

Faculty Senate Meeting
April 2, 1985

The Faculty Senate met April 2, 1985 with Reece Elliott presiding. Members present were: Reece Elliott, Dorothy Smith, Don Der, Larry Hortenbuty, James Bell, Robert Crews, Richard Yarbrow, Dolores Gore, Bruce Myers, Tom Hamel, Buddy Grah, Carlette Hardin, Nora Beiswenger, Don Carlin, Scott Magruder, Gaines Hunt, Charles Calhoun, Harriett McQueen, Ramon Magrans, Lawrence Baggett.

The Senate approved the minutes of the previous meeting and the agenda. After briefly addressing the Senate, Dr. Riggs introduced Dr. Bert Bach, vice Chancellor of the Board of Regents. Dr. Bach addressed the long Range Plan and Mission Statement. Dr. Bach included in his remarks a discussion of Phase III of the Centers of Excellence; a history of the Liberal Arts Emphasis Proposal; the faculty's role in planning the curriculum.

Before adjournment, Dr. Elliott announced the appointment of the 1985-86 Nominations Committee. Members appointed were Nora Beiswenger, Dorothy Smith, and Richard Yarbrow. Dr. Yarbrow was to chair the committee and Dr. Elliott would serve by virtue of his office.

Dr. Elliott charged the Faculty Red committee to develop a statement reflecting our concern on Departmental Tenure.
