TIME

has been important to the growth of Austin Peay State College. Created as a Junior College by the Act of the General Assembly in 1927, Austin Peay Normal School was named in honor of Governor Austin Peay. With J. S. Ziegler as president, the school opened its doors to higher learning September 23, 1929.

A short TIME later, in the Fall of 1930, Dr. Philander P. Claxton, former United States Commissioner of Education, began his term of office. Dr. Claxton spent sixteen years as president during which TIME Austin Peay became a four year college and in 1943, the name was changed to Austin Peay State College.

After Dr. Claxton's retirement in July, 1946, Halbert Harvill assumed the position of college president. During his administration which ended in 1962, the college made great strides in size and education advancement. It was during this TIME that Austin Peay broadened its educational horizon by adding the Master's Degree to the list of degrees given.

Following President Harvill's retirement, Earl E. Sexton served as acting president of the college until January, 1963. At this TIME State Commissioner of Education, Joe Morgan assumed the presidency of the college.

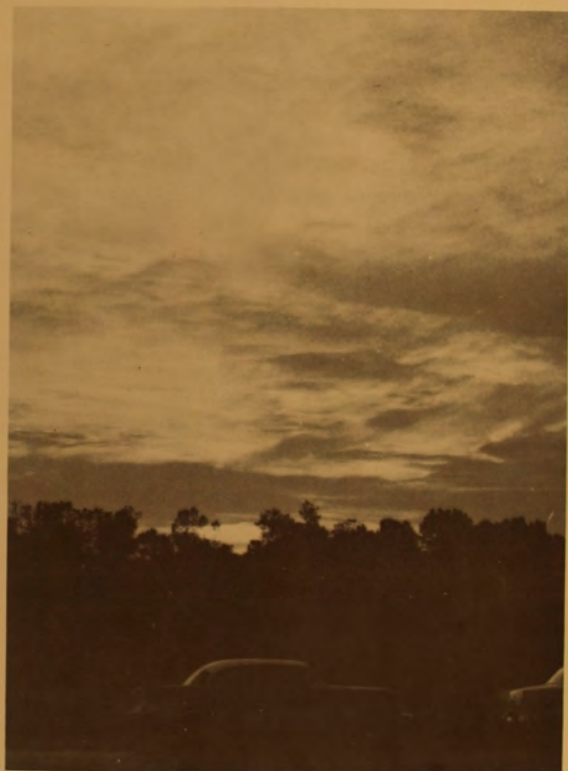

TIME holds the key to the future achievements of our college.

for beginning...

An awakening to new experiences, new friends, new purposes, the dawn of maturity—a time to take the first step on the road to higher learning . . . a time to unpack a suitcase and begin to live in the unfamiliar brotherhood of a dorm . . . time for an unexpected pop quiz, dueling the wits, scampering known facts into the unknown . . . a lesson in preparedness . . . a time for first dates on campus, awkward, thrilling and sometimes, disappointing . . . a time for spring, warm, green and unbelievably lazy; when a young man's fancy lightly turns . . .

for activities...

To laugh with classmates . . . to decorate a float . . .
to cheer a team . . . a time for a sense of belonging:
to a freshman initiation, to a little theater production, to a cheering student body, to a senior class soon to graduate—a time for loyalty: to a defeated team, an ideal, a chosen friend, a familiar campus . . . a time to enjoy the rich benefits of a healthy body in the joyous time of youth . . .

for learning...

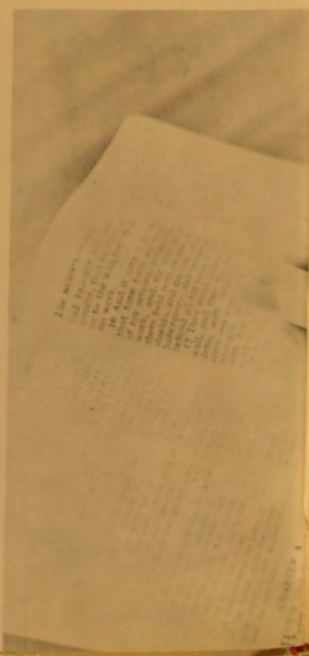

For seeking and striving . . . a time for books and papers and ideas to ripen eager minds to prepare for an unknown future . . . a time to drink deeply of the fountain of enlightenment and satisfy a thirst for knowledge . . . a time to sit in the classes of learned men and women and glean a harvest of information from their teachings . . . a time to cram for exams, filled with remorse for inattentive hours in class; time irretrievably lost . . . a time to exercise the mind in the gymnastics of tolerance, kindness and honesty, so that our learning touches not only our reason, but all our life . . .

for inspiration...

To dream of worlds to conquer . . . a time to attend assembly and hear the wisdom of those who have preceded us and would guide us . . . a time for unexpected contemplation . . . to lose an instructor's words while reveling in the glory of an autumn-gold tree embracing a hill . . . a time for heart and body and mind to grow tall in desire to serve country and mankind . . . to realize there is a purpose and meaning to life, and to prepare, through knowledge, to be equal to that purpose . . . a time for the long, long thoughts of youth . . .

for ending...

A time to close a book, to say farewell to beloved friends and teachers . . . a time to pack a suitcase, including a freshman beanie, a red and white pennant, a faded sweatshirt, and leave a room that has been a home . . . a time to turn to memories with a sudden, forlorn longing to go back to what has been . . . a time to put away childish things and seek the world of a man . . . to realize, in one sweeping sense of maturity, that each ending is but the herald of some new beginning!

TIME to show our appreciation

Many times the words have echoed over the loud speaker, "And now we proudly present the Band and Governettes of Austin Peay State College." Through the able direction and leadership of Dr. Aaron Schmidt, these organizations have added distinction and prestige to the name of Austin Peay State.

Whether in a downtown Clarksville parade, a football halftime show or on Fifth Avenue in Macy's Parade, the Band and Governettes represent our college with color, dignity and honor.

It is with heartfelt thanks and gratitude for their contribution to our college that we proudly dedicate the 1963 FAREWELL AND HAIL to the Austin Peay State College BAND and GOVERNETTES.

AUSTIN PEAY STATE COLLEGE
CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

TO THE STUDENTS, FACULTY, & ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF,
AUSTIN PEAY STATE COLLEGE

Although I was aware before coming to Clarksville that Austin Peay State College was generally recognized as a good, sound institution of higher learning, I have been quite impressed with the quality of the faculty and the administrative staff, the ability and the maturity of the students, and the friendliness of everyone. It is also very evident that the people of the region which Austin Peay serves are vitally interested in the College.

In the decade ahead while the enrollment is doubling, the factors which I enumerated above will doubtlessly lead to the College being recognized as one of the outstanding institutions of higher education. I welcome the opportunity to be associated with Austin Peay during this period.

Sincerely yours,

Joe Morgan

PRESIDENT JOE MORGAN

The President

THE MORGAN FAMILY
Mrs. Morgan, Mary, John, Joe, President Morgan

The Deans

DEAN F. G. WOODWARD

F. G. Woodward, Dean of Faculty fulfills his duties of general administration with superior precision and direct resourcefulness. His capabilities are more than evident by his unlimited efforts as Director of the Graduate Division of Austin Peay State College.

DEAN M. P. BOWMAN

The aim for accuracy could well be the standard set for effective management by M. P. Bowman, Director of Admissions. The efficiency of his staff in handling the official transcripts and in working cooperatively with the electronic brain, "IBM", aid him in operating a well organized system of checks and balances of records.

DEAN TOM K. SAVAGE

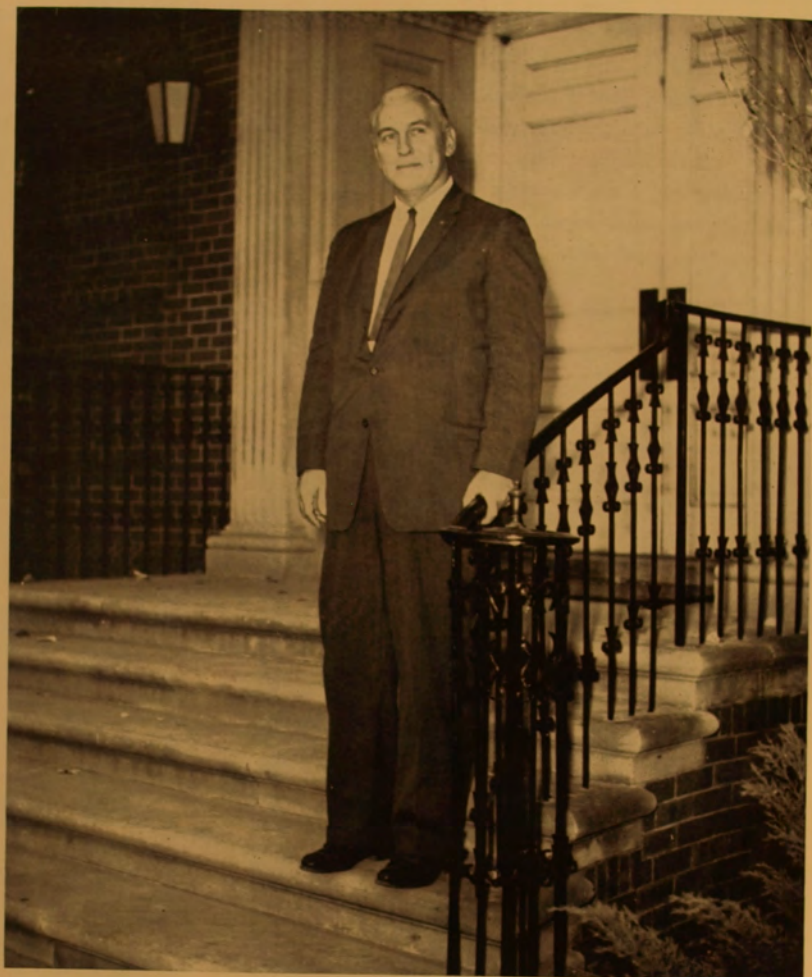

A gentle word and kind smile are indicative of the student's friend and advisor, Tom K. Savage. As Dean of Students, he serves in the capacity of counseling and guidance, as well as a teacher in the Education Department. Unending patience, understanding and a desire for the welfare of the students individually and collectively are sterling qualities attributed to his successful supervision.

DEAN MABEL MEACHAM

Mabel Meacham adds an attractive note to our campus as Dean of Women. She possesses an innate administrative ability for effective supervision of the women students on campus and is most concerned with the preservation of the Southern charm and culture of Austin Peay. In addition to her supervisory role, she is engaged in all campus social activities and is an associate professor of mathematics.

In Special Recognition
Mr. EARL E. SEXTON

"A busy man is a happy man" certainly describes Mr. Earl Sexton, Director of Field Activities and Acting President of Austin Peay State College from September, 1962 to January, 1963. For thirty-two years, he has devoted his life to service in the school systems. While here at Austin Peay, he has been the helping hand for many of the students by assisting them in obtaining scholarships. During his five months as president, he proved beyond any doubt that his interest lies in the students; their crises are his crises; their joys, his joys; their lives, his life. To know Mr. Sexton, whether on the golf links, in his Sunday School class or in his position as president of the Kiwanis Club, is to know a great American and a great Tennessean. We at Austin Peay are proud to claim him as Ours.

Administrative Officers

MR. R. C. SHASTEEN

Mr. Shasteen is coordinator of general business transactions on campus. He functions not only as financier of college matters; but is affiliated with the monetary affairs of the student body as well. Well known for his achievements as a CPA, he continues to operate a system administered with great care.

We remember:

bonfires . . . snake dances . . . freshman pajama parades . . . the night the flagpole was greased and the college colors changed from red to pink . . . the Cheatham County Torch Game . . . puffing "Pres" and the defunct panty raid . . . the blockade run at Harvill Hall.

This is what we will talk about when we "Remember the time that . . ."

But we will also remember that we came to Austin Peay in an automobile and left in the Space Age after Medford was replaced by IBM. We had failures and successes in equal number and point to both with a pride of accomplishment and a tinge of sadness. FAREWELL Austin Peay, and thank you for the preparation you have given us. And HAIL to the future for we will be, what we WILL to be!

The Junior Class Officers

Fred Alsop, President; Paulette Cardillo, Secretary-Treasurer; Kay Ray, Student Council Representative; Henry Murrey, Vice-President.

"If at first you don't succeed—try, try again" echoes in the ears of the members of the Junior Class even today. We realize that even though success has come to us by winning first place in the Homecoming parade for two consecutive years, there are still other barriers to cross. We must keep trying even harder to make the most of our remaining year of college life. There's the new IBM system, just when we were learning the other routine, choosing exactly what we want for our major and minor subjects and keeping up with all the multi-colored forms which we find in our distribution boxes. But even with these obstacles, we still remember that we are the Seniors of 1964 and we must pause and say our sad FAREWELL to the Seniors of 1963 and HAIL to the future when we will be trying to fill their vacancies.

The Sophomore Class Officers

Larry Haley, Vice-President; Betty McCormick, Student Council Representative; Jean Anderson, Secretary; Tommy Curtis, President.

Time has flown for the class of 1965. No more orientation but only the wild initiation of "green" freshmen which we, the sophomores underwent the previous year. The sophomore float with the theme "Up and Atom" and attendant Judy Garrison won second place in the contest during the homecoming activities. The class pepped up the week end social life on campus by sponsoring several dances this fall.

Under the capable leadership of Tommy Curtis, Larry Haley, Jean Anderson and Betty McCormick, the sophomore class has seen a very successful year.

The Freshman Class Officers

Marshall Cloud, President; Lucy McCutcheon, Vice-President; Price Hopson, Vice-President.

"We came . . . we saw . . . we conquered," can certainly be our words, we the graduating class of 1966. For as we came to Austin Peay in the fall of 1962, we ushered in an era of two new presidents and a record enrollment for Austin Peay. We saw the IBM system being initiated at the beginning of the quarter and our fellow classmen being initiated a few weeks later. Now we look forward with anticipation as we strive to conquer the next three years of higher learning.

ART VAN TONE
Head Coach

The 1962 gridiron season at Austin Peay State College was one which saw the Governors finish with their worst season in history, losing 10 games without a victory.

Coach Art Van Tone's squad, loaded with freshmen and sophomores, was handicapped tremendously by lack of experience, as only seven seniors returned to balance the inexperience.

Looking at the brighter side of the year, the Governors smashed 18 school records. Richard Moore, senior quarterback, headed the list of record breakers by personally setting 11 school marks. Moore, during his four-year career completed 105 of 262 passes for 1359 yards and 16 touchdowns. He had 26 aeriels intercepted, and his completion percentage during the 1959-62 period was .401. Last season, Moore topped the total offense department with 528 yards, and headed the passers with an even 600 yards.

Other record-setting individuals included senior quarterback Cobb Parker and freshman halfback Tim Chilcutt. Parker who punted 36 times last season, ran his career total to 138.

MR. DAVID B. AARON
Director of Athletics

Chilcutt eclipsed three school marks by returning 18 kickoffs for 325 yards. He also returned 17 punts for a new school mark.

The Govs as a team became the passingest club in history by attempting 217 passes and completing 83. The Govs established still another record by punting 71 times while returning 23, to tie the 1959 mark.

In the rushing department, All-VSAC fullback Tommy Donnelly led with 145 yards while freshman Eddie Gray followed with 117. Adding to his kickoff and punt records, Chilcutt topped four departments with pass receiving and interceptions. Senior end Rupert Baker led the scorers with 18 points, and sophomore Sammy Flatt led the punting corps with a 36.6 average.

Coach Art Van Tone, after completing the 1962 season, resigned as head coach but will continue his duties as associate professor of Health and Physical Education until May 31.

Each year APSC has placed its football athletes on the All-VSAC squad. The 1962 football team was no exception since it had three members of the squad to make the All-VSAC team. Included were: Claude Clements, end; Tommy Donnelly, fullback; and Rocky Cobb, guard. Richard Moore also won a position of honor with his attainment of the Williamson Little All-American title.

Although the Govs found the going tough during the 1962 season, the future seasons point to even tougher times since the Govs will officially enter the Ohio Valley Conference competition in 1963. Newly appointed coach, Bill Dupes, will certainly have his work cut out for him in the coming seasons.

Mr. David B. Aaron

The sports staff of the FAREWELL AND HAIL wishes to spotlight David B. Aaron, a man whose career as coach and director of athletics of Austin Peay State College has brought to him, as well as to ASPC, a highly respected reputation and record in the field of athletics.

Aaron came to APSC in 1946, and during his sixteen year tenure as head basketball coach, his teams set a remarkable won-lost record of 258-174 for a .597 percentage.

Aaron's brilliant career includes a 143-53 home record for an excellent .729 percentage; four VSAC crowns based on tournament play; six straight VSAC regular season championships; one NCAA South Region Championship; three trips to the NCAA Regional Playoffs; and four trips to the NAIA District Playoffs. Other than basketball, Aaron has coached nearly all the sports at APSC during various periods of time since 1946. In 1948 he led the footballers to the VSAC crown, and guided the golfers to two conference championships in a three year span.

Aaron has discontinued all coaching duties and is now devoting more time to his duties as Director of Athletics.

Let us point out that Aaron's combined coaching record of 321-227-6 is one of excellent standing which will probably go down in the annals of APSC athletics as the "Aaron Era".

The 1958-59 team gives Aaron victory ride.

GEORGE FISHER
Head Basketball Coach

The 1962-63 basketball year saw Austin Peay State College playing one of its toughest schedules in history. First-year coach George Fisher took over the helm from Dave Aaron who retired as head coach after 16 years of excellent tutorship. Aaron, in his tenure as head mentor, led the Governors to six consecutive Volunteer State Athletic Conference championships, and Fisher, in his debut as coach, captured the seventh crown in guiding his basketballers to a 9-1 conference record.

During the course of the season, Fisher relied heavily upon co-captains Doug Stamper and Henny Murrey, along with Steve Miller, and sophomores Jim DeForest, Seldon Sledd, and Richard Keller. These players were supported capably by seniors Jim Sugg, Jackie Winders, John Briggeman, and Bobby Winders. Fisher had such depth and balance that he was able to use many different player combinations, which resulted in a tremendous 18-9 overall mark.

Stiff competition was provided by such top-notch teams as Southern Illinois University, Pan-American College, Arkansas State, and two future Ohio Valley Conference opponents—Middle Tennessee State College and East Tennessee State College. Pan-American came into the friendly confines of Memorial Gymnasium as one of the top-ranked small college teams in the nation, and the Govs won by a 60-56 count. Another small college power, SIU, was also handled by the hosting Governors 85-71, but in the return match at Carbondale, Ill., the Salukis defeated visiting APSC. The two games with Arkansas were outstanding in that both contests required overtime, with the Governors being victorious at Jonesboro, Ark., 75-71, and the Indians defeating the Govs in double overtime at Memorial Gym, 101-94.

The annual "Torch Game" between APSC and David Lipscomb College which had been played since 1957, was one of the highlights of past cage seasons. This year, it was terminated since the event had not been achieving its true purpose. Also, due to APSC's entrance into the OVC, the Bisons are not included in the 1963-64 schedule.

On two occasions this past season, the Govs scored over 100 points as they posted a 103-76 decision over Belmont, and completely swamped Bethel, 114-52. The latter contest was one which saw APSC breaking four Memorial Gymnasium records and tying one. Included in the record-shattering parade were: most points scored by APSC in a single game (114); most field goals scored (50); most decisive victory (62 points). The best field goal percentage was broken by Kentucky Wesleyan with its 57.6 average. The combined total of most rebounds made was tied by the APSC-Bethel match with a 123 total which matched the APSC-SIU mark set in 1958-59.

Based on a 27-game season, statistics reveal that Doug Stamper led all scorers with 505 points for an 18.7 average. The junior playmaker from Hamilton, Ohio, was named to the All-VSAC squad for regular season play. Stamper was also honored by being selected as the Most Valuable Player in the Western Division of the VSAC. Another brilliant Gov performer was Steve Miller, who scored 350 points for a 12.9 average. Miller also led the team in three departments—field goal percentage (.539); free throw percentage (.754), and also snared 233 rebounds for an 8.6 average. Jim DeForest, sophomore transfer from Eastern Kentucky, who did not become eligible until Jan. 1, was a tremendous asset during the latter half of the campaign. Playing in all 21 games after attaining eligibility, DeForest racked up 243 points and had the third best average (11.6). He also picked off 16 rebounds for a 7.8 average. Co-captain Henny Murrey was the Governor's second best rebounder with 208.

ment at McQuiddy Gymnasium in Nashville, coach Fisher's ball club polished off Lincoln Memorial University 94-64, and Tennessee Wesleyan 83-66. These victories moved Austin Peay State into the finals against Carson-Newman—the defending tournament champs. The Eagles used a deliberate stall offense and completely stymied APSC hopes for a fifth tourney championship. Stamper scored 16 points, but it was not enough to subdue a 48-39 Eagle victory. The Governors, in their last VSAC competition, placed Stamper, Steve Miller and Jim DeForest on the all-tournament squad.

For the fourth time Austin Peay State College was extended an invitation to compete in the small college NCAA playoffs. The Governors accepted the invitation to participate in the NCAA South Central Regional playoffs at Louisville, Ky., March 8-9.

1962-63 Freshman Basketball

The freshman basketball team finished its 1962-63 season under the excellent coaching of former Austin Peay State basketball player, Fred Overton, who guided the Gov frosh to an impressive 15-7 season.

The APSC freshmen showed great ability in scoring when they advanced over the century mark against three opponents. Falling under the frosh sharpshooters were: Cumberland College in a 111-105 overtime, Hopkinsville Independents 108-68, and future Ohio Valley Conference foe, Western Kentucky 120-91.

The Baby Govs were paced in the scoring field by one of the best basketball players ever to come to APSC. Ken Rose led the team with 579 points for an excellent 26.3 average.

Other top performers for coach Overton included Roger Putty who popped in 300 points for a 13.6 average; Dale Biehl tallied 276 for 12.5 per contest; Virgil McElfresh scored 246 for 11.2, and Jerlyn Sitz had 183 points for an 8.3 average. Charles Loser, who joined the squad in the latter half of the season, earned a starting berth which brought 74 points to the Gov's tally.

1962 Golf Squad—VSAC Champions

The 1962 APSC golfers captured the Volunteer State Athletic Conference golf championship for the second consecutive year, and have compiled an impressive 15-6 overall match record during the past two years.

Sherwin Clift, coach of the Gov golfers, has not only led his teams to two VSAC championships; he has set many other records. The 1962 team, with its 8-3 record, added more victories in a single season than any other golf team in APSC golf history. Also, the victory margin over U-T Martin, $26\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$, was the largest in Governor golf annals.

Besides VSAC competition, Austin Peay State finished sixth in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament. This was the initial appearance in the tough OVC loop. The Governor linksmen finished fifth in a 10 team field at the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Golf Tournament held at Sewanee.

Leading the Governor championship squad was Phil Cleaveland, senior, who captured the medalist crown in the VSAC with a 149 stroke total for 36 holes of play. Sophomore Griffin Pickard shot an even par 70 to post the lowest score of the season.

Others contributing to the golf squad's success were senior captain Don Sargent; senior Tommy Elam; sophomores Jim McKindsey, Steve Miller and Don Wood; and freshmen Bob Mitchell and J. W. Turnbow.

Coach George Fisher completed his third year as head coach in which his teams won two Volunteer State Athletic Conference championships.

An impressive seasonal mark was not the 1962 Governors' fortune with an overall record of 1-5. However, they completely outclassed opponents in a tri-meet with David Lipscomb and U-T Martin.

The '62 edition was hurt by the loss of their top three scorers from 1961; Tom Phillips, Charles Reinhart and John Flatt. Gone too, were four of the next six top men, leaving only Blakey Bradley who continued his fine showing in his specialties, the hurdles and high jump. Nick Nichols', a fine quartermiler, 1962 output was cut by a knee operation.

The bright spot of the 1962 season was Ronny Page, freshman dash sensation, who set a school record in the 100 yard dash with a time of :09.8 seconds, breaking the old mark of :09.9 set by Bill Alexander in 1956. Tom Hinkle broke Don McKennon's record set in 1961 of 10:32.8 in the two mile with a time of 10:28.

Other top performers included weightman Ed Fredette, Cobb Parker, school record holder in the javelin, and Bob Binder, high jumper.

Austin Peay State, defending VSAC champions, was dethroned by Union University who scored 71 points with the Governors finishing a slow third, 39 points, behind Carson-Newman's 43.

The Governors competed for four championships including the Southwestern Invitational, the VSAC and the strong Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The Govs, Nichols, Bob Binder, Blakey Bradley, Hank Beacom, Everett Sinor, Kenneth Hughes, and Sammy Flatt.

Rodney Rogers, freshman shortstop, paced the team in most of the hitting departments. He slammed five home runs, led in total bases with 47 and had 18 RBI's, one more than Frank Nappi, who also chipped in with two four-baggers. Nappi was second in total bases with 38 and led the Govs in stolen bases with nine. Jackie Winders, hustling left-fielder, led in doubles with four, and also finished second in stolen bases with seven. James Shoemaker, who is graduated, will leave a gap at second base. He was second in base hits with 27 and third in total bases with 36. David Mason, veteran catcher, came through with 16 RBI's including several key ones in the regional tournament at Jonesboro. The Austin Peay State College baseballers of 1963 will enter the Ohio Valley Conference and officially begin competition for the league championship. 1962 was the last year of Volunteer State Athletic Conference action for the Govs, who compiled a 6-4 league record. However, outside the league, coach Leon Sandifer's crew had a fine 7-2 slate, including the NCAA Regional championship at Jonesboro, Arkansas.

This year the Governors will have a huge task facing them in competing with the OVC teams. Last year, APSC beat batting average in seven games before he had a knee injury, and was sorely missed throughout the remainder of the season, although Doug Stamper did an excellent job in Briggeman's place.

Coach Sandifer has a major rebuilding job, especially with his pitching staff. Jim Beshears, Ronnie Bibb, Mike Proctor and Robert Gaines have all departed. Ken Connelly was the workhorse of the mound corps last year with a 7-1 record in compiling a sparkling 2.22 E.R.A. Sandifer will have to come up with two or three more starters, along with Connelly and Doug Stamper, in order to withstand the six double-headers scheduled this season.

The overall team strengths and weaknesses look something like this: a good solid infield with exceptional depth at first base and catching. Second base will have to be filled but Rupert Baker and Rodney Rogers are set at third base and shortstop. In the outfield Jackie Winders is the only returnee, leaving center and right field wide open. If Sandifer can rebuild his pitching staff, the Governors of Austin Peay State can look forward to competing on an equal basis with the OVC clubs.

Northwestern University, a powerhouse from the tough Big Ten Conference, will provide the opposition for the Gobs in a two-day affair in late March, which will open the 1963 campaign.

APSC concluded the 1962 season with five consecutive victories, and Sandifer hopes the momentum will carry over into the baseball year. Considering this victory string and the strong nucleus returning, Coach Sandifer has a bright outlook for the coming baseball season.

Art Van Tone, Tennis Coach

1962 Tennis Team

The Austin Peay State College Tennis Team, under the direction of coach Art Van Tone, finished its third season of intercollegiate tennis with a much improved record. Since tennis had not been played at APSC since 1949, the arrival of coach Van Tone has helped bring a steady increase in interest and performance for tennis by the Governors.

After taking on a heavier schedule for the season, the 1962 squad bettered the 1961 record of 0-6 with an overall season of 2-8 and a 2-6 VSAC record. Both APSC victories came at the expense of Bethel College.

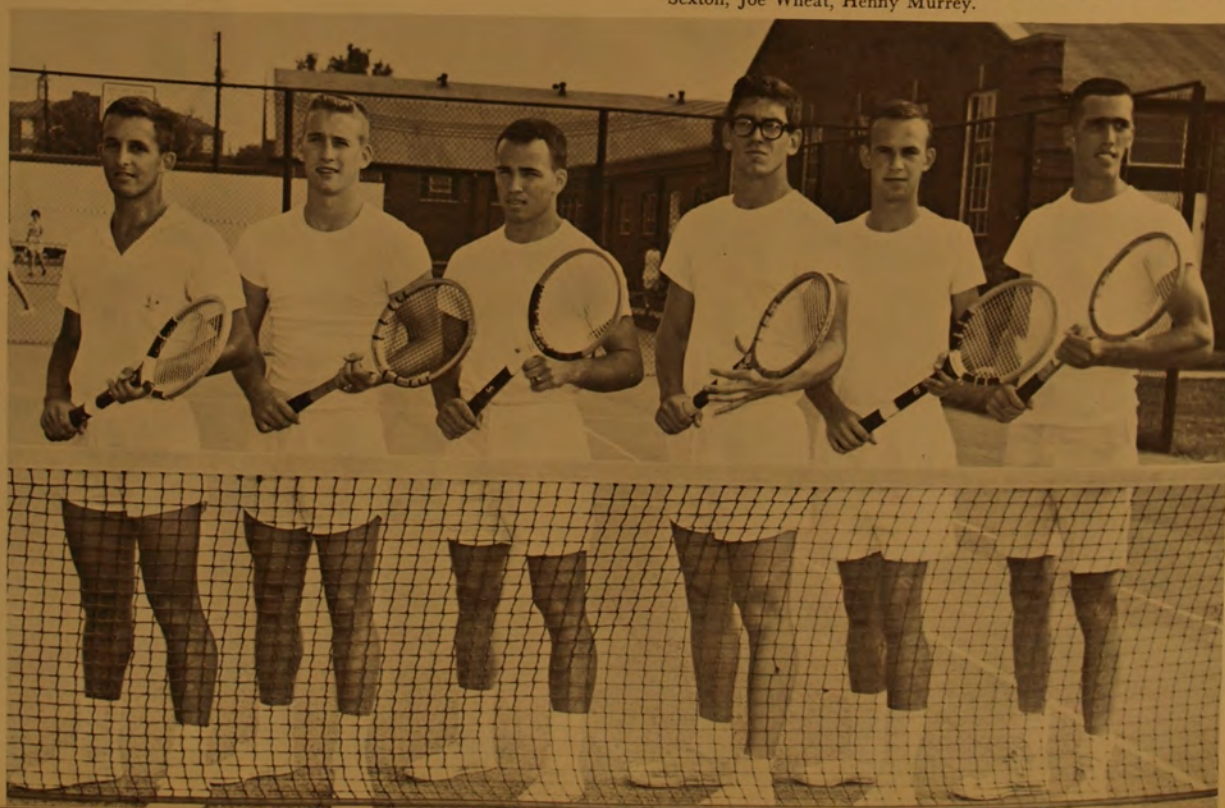

The most prominent record set in singles play came from Buddy Solomon who had three wins and three losses, and Fred Alsop who followed with a 6-7 won-loss record. Doubles play resulted in teammates Ken Goad and Henny Murrey winning their only match while Fred Alsop and Ralph Grant, who had a more active season, finished with a 3-6 record.

Cheerleaders of 1962-63

Eight pretty and attractive Austin Peay State coeds brought about the most attractive segment of the 1962-63 athletic program with their enthusiastic leadership of the Governor's student body support for the athletic squads.

The cheerleaders gave support and leadership to bond fires, pep rallies and snake dances which were created to add support for the teams. Also, the cheerleaders and Mrs. Patty Hancock, their sponsor, attended all home sports events plus many of the road games.

The pep club, known as the "Blazing Staters", concluded its second year of supporting the cheerleaders and APSC athletics.

We want a victory tonight. Fight!

The 1963 Farewell & Hail

The editor and staff of the 1963 FAREWELL AND HAIL have worked diligently on this composition not to make it outstandingly dramatic or sensational—but rather to make it an impression of some of the best years of our lives—those spent at Austin Peay State. Memories that TIME has created are encased within these covers never more to be forgotten.

Farewell is a parting wish to those who may be leaving—a wish for the best that the future has to offer them. Hail is a salute to those who have completed this phase of their education. The Farewell and Hail graduating ceremony which signifies the Farewell to associations of our college days and the Hail to future endeavors produced the incentive which stimulated the creation of this volume throughout the years. For just as one is about to graduate he recalls the events which highlighted his college days—the same events which we hope to have captured here.

After exploiting many months in its preparation and having utilized all the attributes at our combined command we present you the 1963 FAREWELL AND HAIL. May you enjoy it.

William T. Turner, Editor-in-Chief, Farewell and Hail, 1963.

The All State

This has been the year of drastic changes for the Austin Peay State College newspaper. Last fall The All State, written and edited by the students, was printed by the offset method for the first time. This not only involved a new printing process, but it also greatly altered the appearance of the paper. Last year's eight-page, six-column bi-monthly became a four-page, five column weekly with much better reproduction qualities. Then in January The All State had a new editor

Francis Butler, Charles Jackson, Trudy Brotherton, Ed Fredette (seated).

for the first time in two and a half years when Nancy Apple replaced Roy Rogers Price, who had graduated.

In spite of all these changes, one thing remains constant from year to year. The All State continues to strive to be the perfect college newspaper. One that is without error in the articles or in the make-up, and one that is composed of current news and fillers that are of interest to the students. Only with the advice and assistance of the staff, The All State advisor, Sherwin Clift, and the people at the Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle could such a successful year have been completed.

Student Council

The year, 1962-63, has been a year of change for Austin Peay State College. The year began with Mr. Earl Sexton serving as acting president and then followed by Mr. Joe Morgan. During this year of change the Student Council has tried to sponsor more social activities. These activities have been encouraged in an effort to encourage students in spending their week-ends here at Austin Peay.

The council has also, in this year of change, participated in the self-study program. This has been done in order to evaluate the college. The council has also started the wheels rolling for a new student government constitution.

Women's House Councils

HARVILL HALL

The Harvill Hall House Council consists of five women, elected to their respective offices on the basis of their moral and academic standing with the dormitory, as well as on the campus. The main functions of this council are to uphold the academic standards of the college and to enforce the dormitory regulations for 75 Junior and Senior girls.

BLOUNT HALL

The House Council of Blount Hall is the single governing body of the dorm. It is composed of Mrs. Frank Smith, the dorm mother, the president and vice president, who are elected by the girls of the hall, and several girls who serve as monitors. All of these girls are selected for their academic and leadership qualities. When about 80 girls get together, there is bound to be noise, and lots of it, if there is not some way of maintaining order; this is the responsibility of the House Council.

HARNED HALL

Harned Hall House Council is a student government charged with the responsibility of maintaining high standards of living and conduct in the dormitory. The council strives for further mutual cooperation in regulations governing the residence hall. It is a vital organ, working with residents, the dormitory supervisor and Dean of Women, that keeps the daily living functioning smoothly in Harned Hall. The Council supervises Homecoming festivities, the Christmas Party and Open House.

ELLINGTON HALL

Ellington Hall, the largest men's residence dorm, is considered by those living there to be the best dorm on campus. Ellington can certainly be well remembered for its tremendous "COLOSSUS OF ELLINGTON", a giant 15 foot statue constructed for the Homecoming decorations. Also Ellington sponsored the only Men's Dorm Christmas Dance Party, as well as sponsoring the monthly dances in the spacious and beautiful dorm lobby.

Ellington Hall under the leadership of Mr. Joseph Sakas, dorm supervisor, and the Dorm Council, elected by the residents, have taken many steps forward in creating a college like atmosphere in the dorm and have many plans projected for the future.

Tommy Shelby, Larry Johnson, First Floor Rep.; Nalan Fox, Second Floor Rep.; Mr. Joseph Sakas, Sponsor; Walker DePriest, Third Floor Rep.; Warren Chaney, President.

McREYNOLDS HALL

McReynolds Hall was erected in 1957 and was named for Robert L. McReynolds, a prominent lawyer, statesman and civic leader. McReynolds Hall houses seventy-nine male students of Austin Peay State College.

McReynolds Hall is very active in campus activities, annually participating in the Homecoming activities by constructing the bonfire which marks the beginning of the annual snake dance. McReynolds Hall will strive to uphold its high standards and help in the progress of Austin Peay State College.

MILLER HALL

It is the privilege and responsibility of those living in Miller Hall to elect a House Council, to take care of problems that may arise and work closely with the supervisor to enforce rules and regulations. The House Council directs activities in which each dorm participates, such as Homecoming decorations, Open House and other activities throughout the year. The House Council also sends a representative to the Student Council meetings. The supervisor of Miller Hall is Mr. Leon Garrett.

Tri-Beta is a national honorary society open to majors and minors in the biological sciences. Requirements for membership in the organization, other than majoring or minoring in biology, are an over-all grade point ratio of 2.5 and a 3.0 in biology.

Each year Eta Pi Chapter brings to our campus an outstanding speaker on some phase of biology through the facilities of the A. I. B. S. Speakers' Bureau. Besides this highlight in the year's activities of the chapter, two meetings are held each month with the programs being under the direction of A. P. S. C. faculty members, students involved in research, or additional outside speakers. Other activities include the annual winter and spring initiations, participation in homecoming activities, and in the future, the awarding of a scholarship in biology to an outstanding entering freshman wishing to major in that field.

Phi Alpha Theta

The Theta Delta Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta is completing its second year on our campus as the national honor society for students who have distinguished themselves in the field of history. Membership is open only to those students who have maintained at least a 3.0 average in all courses in their major field and in two-thirds of their other courses.

Translated from the Greek words Philia, Anthropos, Theos, the society stands for the expression of Love, Man, and God. This organization denotes the spirit in which the student directs his endeavors toward the advancement of the civilization in which he is living in order to stimulate the civilization of the future.

In the quest for a better understanding and a broader background of historical events programs are centered around films of current and past importance; speakers who reveal their direct knowledge of the world's heritage; and discussions of primary interest to the members. Other social activities combine to make the organization one of both educational and social benefit.

Junior Counselors

This year Austin Peay State College introduced the idea of Junior Counselors in the freshman dormitory, Harned Hall. Summarizing the activities of the counselors, it can be said that through counseling and encouragement, the girls help the freshmen women to make a satisfactory adjustment to college life. This adjustment is both academic and social.

Orientation week was particularly busy for the counselors with the many new faces and social events. Carol, Lynn, Paula and Suzanne initiated the idea of lobby parties to encourage fun and friendship in Harned Hall. Highlights were the Halloween, Christmas, New Year-New Girl Parties.

The counselors were chosen by the Dean of Women, Miss Mabel Meacham and Resident Head Supervisor, Mrs. Martha Reeves.

The Chapter began its activities in the fall by entering a horse and buggy in the Homecoming Parade, bearing the slogan—"Education has changed since Grandma's day—Support better education with S. N. E. A." Patsy Ellis, queen, rode in the buggy which received honorable mention. There were two major socials, the annual Christmas Party and the Spring Picnic. The Governettes

These girls practice afternoons and nights before performing their routines, under the direction of Dr. Aaron Schmidt. Who are they? Why they are Austin Peay's own Governettes, the prettiest girls on campus. These girls, accompanied by the Band, constitute one of the snappiest drill teams that we know and everyone from nine to ninety thrill to see these girls at the football games or parades.

The Marching Band

A-C-T-I-O-N spells many long hard hours of practice for the marching band and this is evidenced by their numerous performances. It is because of these long hours of work that the 1963 FAREWELL AND HAIL is dedicated to this fine group.

The Concert Band

One of the outstanding musical performing organizations on the Austin Peay College Campus is the Concert Band. This fine performance organization is composed of students selected for their high level of instrumental playing ability.

The highest honor to come to the Concert Band this year was their selection as the only band from an institution of higher learning in the South to appear on the program of the Southern Division Music Educators National Conference Divisional Meeting in Charleston, West Virginia.

The Band also gave two formal concerts during the second and third quarters of the school year in addition to appearances at College Assembly and the 7th Annual Senior Band Clinic.

The band students also contributed to basketball games as a member of one of two Pep Bands.

The Austin Peay State College Band is of high musical quality and contributes greatly to the cultural level of the campus.

Art Club

The Art Club of A.P.S.C. was established in 1961 by the art majors and minors of A.P.S.C. under the guidance of Mr. Charles Young, head of the department, and Mr. Louis Burton. Its constitution gives its purpose and objectives as: to form and maintain the most desirable relationship between the artist, the school, and the community; to promulgate the interest, ability, and the esthetics among the membership, the school and community; to create an atmosphere conducive to creativity; to exhibit, promote, and formulate for the furtherance of art in the individual, and the school; to assist in extending artistic knowledge and ability.

Field trips are taken to such places as Cheekwood, various art shows, Nashville's fine arts festival, various college shows, and Gorden-Cassey's of Hopkinsville.

Outdoor painting and sketching is encouraged by club outings such as the day spent at Paris Landing last year.

The climax of the club year is its annual trip to Chicago to visit private galleries and to tour the Art Institute of Chicago.

The Madrigals of Austin Peay State College are the smallest vocal ensemble in the Music Department. The ten or twelve members are chosen by audition and do not have to be music majors.

The Madrigals originally sang 16th Century music of England and Italy. It was the custom in those days to sit around the dinner table after the meal was finished and sing; therefore, each person must carry his part. Even though the group today still performs around a table, they do not restrict their singing to the music of that time; they sing folk songs, contemporary literature of all kinds and any music that is suitable for a small group.

Kappa Delta Pi

The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage high professional, intellectual and personal standards; and to recognize outstanding contributions to education. Our chapter, Eta Rho, was the first honor society to be organized on Austin Peay State College Campus. Founded May 23, 1953, several charter members are still active and faithful to Eta Rho Chapter.

The members of Kappa Delta Pi are eager to promote a closer bond among students of Education and to enter into more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to the cause of teaching as a profession, for which specialized preparation is deemed imperative. One of the most coveted honors of students on Austin Peay State College Campus is to be invited to membership in Kappa Delta Pi.

One of the high points of the year's activities occurred in February when Dr. Henry Hill, President Emeritus of George Peabody College spoke to the group. Dr. Hill is a Laurette member of Kappa Delta Pi, the highest honor bestowed upon a member.

For 1962-63, there are more plans for contributing to the "full man", plus ambitions to learn German Schuhplattler dances and to exchange recorded tapes with student groups in Germany and Austria. Plans are underway to communicate with the students of the Hermann Schulz School of West Berlin, a school in Hamburg and a group of English Institute students at the University of Cologne.
