DEDICATION

MR. V. C. MOFFITT

Few, if any, of today's students at Austin Peay State College have had the privilege of being in this man's classroom. This year's seniors just missed the opportunity, for Mr. Moffitt retired, after eighty-eight quarters of teaching at Austin Peay, at the end of the summer quarter of 1951. But the spirit of Mr. Moffitt's philosophy lives on in the halls of the College through the memory of those who were his students and fellow instructors and through the large photograph which hangs today in the education department. To his former students, his name is synonymous with courses in psychology, and none will ever forget "Moffitt's psychology."

Mr. Venus C. Moffitt was a member of the original faculty when the College opened in 1929, the second person to arrive on the campus when operation began. During the depression years, he was the only staff member of the education department and taught all psychology and education courses. It was at this time that the methods courses were shifted from the education department to the various departments concerned, and this arrangement has continued to this day.

When Mr. Moffitt retired from the teaching profession in 1951, he settled down on his farm in the Sango community where he enjoys "gentleman" farming.

Because of his contribution to the nourishment of our college in its growing years, and because of the gems of his thinking that he left with us, we, the staff of the 1955 FAREWELL AND HAIL, are proud to dedicate this book to Mr. Venus Clyde Moffitt.

HALBERT HARVILL

HALBERT HARVILL
President

Mr. Halbert Harvill has served Austin Peay State College as president for nine years. But he has served the College in some capacity ever since its beginning. Mr. Harvill came to Austin Peay in 1929 as instructor of history; in his early days here, he also acted as athletic coach. He became Dean-Registrar in 1930 and acted in this position until he entered the armed forces in 1942. He came back to the College in 1946 as president, the post he has held ever since.

Besides these positions with the College, President Harvill was Commissioner of Education for the State of Tennessee from 1938 to 1939.

Under his guidance, Austin Peay State College has had expansion after expansion, and he has certainly led us toward fulfilling our motto, "Grow With Austin Peay." This expansion can be witnessed not only in the number of modern buildings—the Science-Classroom Building, the Administration-Library Building, the Men's Dormitory, and the Memorial Gymnasium—but also in the amazing increase in enrollment and in the size and capabilities of the faculty. It was during Mr. Harvill's administration, too, that the College was authorized to offer a curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree and later to establish a fifth year leading to the Master of Arts degree in Education.

This year, the College has started its second-quarter century, still a young college, but at its greatest height and continues to grow under President Harvill's able leadership. A swimming pool, shop, additions to the Demonstration School, and other innumerable facilities have been added this year.

President Harvill is a leader not only in education, but in civic and church circles as well.

We attend a better Austin Peay State College because of Mr. Harvill's consecrated efforts. The students and faculty of Austin Peay State College through the years feel privileged to have had such an outstanding administrator—and to have known such an outstanding person.

Halbert Harvill; Mrs. Violet R. Parrish, Secretary to the President

With a long list of achievements behind them, the Student Council has made the year 1954-55 one of the most notable in the history of student government at Austin Peay.

They have successfully handled the freshman initiation, pep rallies, formal and informal dances. Along with the music department, they have organized the Governettes. This spring, the APSC blood bank met its largest quota in history, with the splendid cooperation of the students and their government.

These achievements were made possible with the cooperation of students and faculty. Nor would it have been possible without the harmonious relationship between members of the Council with the capable assistance of their sponsor, Mr. John M. Rawls.

It is said that a person's work remains when his name has vanished. If this be so, then the members of this Council shall be remembered for years to come.

Claxton Chapter

The Claxton Chapter of the Future Teachers of America received its charter December 7, 1939, as the first such charter issued in Tennessee. Since that time the F.T.A. has been one of the most active organizations on the campus.

The Future Teachers of America proposes to develop among young people who are preparing to be teachers an organization which shall be an integral part of state and national education associations; to acquaint teachers in training with the history, ethics, and program of the organized teaching profession; to give teachers in training practical experience in working together in a democratic way on the problems of the profession and the community.

In addition to sponsoring a coke party during freshman week, and co-sponsoring the annual Christmas program, the local F.T.A. played hosts to other college chapters and the high school clubs of Tennessee during the annual F.T.A. convention which was held on the Austin Peay campus April 15, 1955.

The staff of the 1955 FAREWELL AND HAIL has tried to record here a typical part of every phase of life on the campus this year. We do not expect everyone to like all of this book. Some of you may not like any of it.

But our wish is that in years to come when you glance through this book, it will recall memories of the happiest times, and some sad ones too; the most picturesque scenes, and some not so beautiful; the most fun, and just as much hard work; and thousands of fond memories of classes, friends, and social get-togethers. If this book serves that purpose, then our rushing about gathering information, identifying pictures, and pleading with students and faculty to have their pictures made will have been well worth our time and worry.

Here it is! We have done our part; now it is yours.

The All State, written and edited by student personnel, records student activities and reflects student opinion.

Within its pages may be found campus features, personalities, and humor, in addition to the customary current reporting. Its editorial page presents and interprets problems confronting the student body as well as providing space for creative literary effort.

The editor of the All State is selected by the editorial staff of the previous year with the approval of the faculty adviser and, in turn, selects the staff from among applicants who exhibit an interest in college journalism.

Publishing thirteen issues per year, the newspaper is circulated through the campus mailbox service and the members of the Austin Peay Alumni Association, with a total of nearly 1200 readers.

One of the fastest growing organizations on the campus is the Austin Peay State College Choir. The choir, composed of mixed voices, is open to all students who enjoy singing. Founded in September of 1937, it is one of the oldest organizations on the campus.

Under the capable direction of Dr. Charles L. Gary, the choir has a varied repertoire including compositions of classical, folk, and sacred music, as well as many hit tunes from famous Broadway musicals.

The choir participates in tours to schools in neighboring counties, the purpose of which is to stimulate interest in the rapidly growing music department of the College. And plans are now in the making for the production of recordings of school songs sung by the choir.

As an incentive to the students to belong to the choir, a colorful blazer, or jacket, is offered after six quarters of singing with the choir.

The choir also plays an important part in the assembly programs throughout the year. Indeed, the choir is an important asset to our College.

Much credit is due the members of the Austin Peay State College Band for their faithfulness and their endurance. No matter what the weather—rain, sleet, snow, or sunshine—you always find the loyal band members on hand to inspire our teams on to victory.

Not only are they loyal at home games, but when the team goes on the road, the band often goes along.

In an effort to recruit new members from the neighboring high schools, the band joins with the choir to give concerts at these schools.

At frequent intervals during the year the band takes its place in the assembly programs, in concerts, special music, and pep rallies. These are only a few of the examples of the band's part in creating school spirit.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Eta Rho Chapter

"To promote a closer bond among students of Education, to enter into more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to the cause of teaching as a profession, to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, and to recognize outstanding contributions to education"—such are the stated aims of Kappa Delta Pi, a nation-wide Honor Society.

Because the students of Austin Peay State College also are dedicated to these ideals, we secured a chapter, which was installed under the name of Eta Rho on May 23, 1953. Since that date it has initiated seventy-four members, including outstanding undergraduates, graduate students, four faculty members, and our President and Dean of Instruction.

One proof of the vitality of any organization is its receptivity to new ideas. Innovation introduced in 1954-55 include the presentation of a "shingle" to each new member; a re-working of the initiation ceremony tailored to most appropriate local use; an open-house meeting honoring sophomore students who might be eligible for election next year (no one below junior collegiate standing can become a member); and a scholarship to college for some worthy high school student who shows promise of developing into an admirable teacher.

Lambda Sigma Lambda was formed in 1952 by a group of students and faculty members who were interested in bringing together all persons on the campus having common interests in language, speech, and literature. Members are English majors and minors and others who may be interested in any of these fields.

The English Club, the more popular name for the club, has a variety of programs during the year including outside speakers, criticism of regional writing by club members, and socials.

This year, for the first time, Lambda Sigma Lambda is taking the project of helping to sponsor and edit the annual anthology of student writing at Austin Peay, The Tower.

The Alpha Club, the smallest of the dormitory clubs, is nevertheless a very active club on the campus. The club started the year with seventeen new members, but lost five, part of them old and part of them new members, to the field of matrimony.

The club was well represented in the Homecoming Parade by a beautifully decorated car full of very attractive Alpha girls.

The Alphas were proud to be represented in the Valentine Ball by Brenda Moore and Eddie Toler as the queen's attendants.

Mrs. Phyllis Thomas was elected as sponsor, and she has ably led them in all their activities throughout the year.

Everyone will agree that the Alpha Club has a roster of members who are active in all phases of campus life—academic, extra-curricular, and social.

The Betas opened the school year with a top-quality group of twelve new members. With the cooperation of Alphas and Omegas, the Beta members sponsored the annual Valentine Ball, having as candidates for King and Queen of Hearts, Libby and Ray Lucas.

At Homecoming the Beta car stood out with its black and gold color scheme.

The Beta Club is pleased to have such outstanding members as Sylvia Smith, Iris Queen of 1955; Betty Rye Leech, Miss APSC of 1955; and Jo Coleman and Suzanne McWilliams, Iris Queen Attendants. The Betas attribute a large part of the year's success, however, to the able leadership of their sponsor, Mrs. Bertha Cayce.

The gay colors of green and white were unfurled again last fall to welcome in another school year of honors and success for the Omega Club. Sixteen new members were welcomed by the fifteen veterans who returned after summer vacation.

The Omega car entry in the Homecoming Parade received first prize, and riding in it to represent the club were Mary Dudley McClendon, Mary Sanford, and Julia Beaumont.

The highlight of the club year was the Valentine Dance when their candidates, Frances Miller and James Curl, were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

To raise funds for the club treasury, members sold snacks in the dormitory. Many a hot dog was enjoyed by residents of Harned Hall, thanks to the Omegas.

Everyone in the club realizes that they could not have enjoyed so much success without the local backing given them by Miss George Chapman, their sponsor.

CIRCLE K

Circle K is one of the newest organizations on the Austin Peay campus. The local chapter was organized in the spring of 1954 under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club of Clarksville. Being a service club, its primary purpose is to aid the College and the community by carrying out a number of worthwhile projects each year.

The chief project of the club this year has been to set up a scholarship fund for sending a worthy high-school student to Austin Peay State College. The money for this fund will be obtained from the proceeds of an annual invitational basketball tournament between local high schools, the first of which was held this winter.

Members of Circle K are selected by a membership committee on the basis of leadership ability, civic-mindedness, and scholarship. Membership is limited to forty.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union is closely coordinated with the local church and other B.S.U. organizations throughout the state. The purpose of the organization is to focus the aim of students more sharply on spiritual living.

The B.S.U. members meet for devotional services in the Little Chapel at noon each Monday and Wednesday, at which time inspirational messages are given by guest speakers. The B.S.U. works together with the Student Ministerial Association and the other religious organizations on the campus in presenting the annual Religious Emphasis Week.

Members of B.S.U. are always around on registration day in the fall to meet the freshmen, serve them refreshments, and present the advantages of membership to them. Other forms of recreation are sponsored throughout the year to balance with times of tedious planning and hard work.

Much credit for the Christian attitude of the students and the highly spiritual life on the campus can be given to the work of the Baptist Student Union.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

In an effort to promote religious thinking on the campus and in order to bring together students of like faith, the Methodist Student Movement is one of the most active clubs on the campus.

Through the sponsorship of M.S.M. many outstanding religious speakers are brought to the campus each year. A noonday devotional service is held in the Little Chapel each Friday at 12:30, and there is also a regular monthly meeting at night. Also, the M.S.M. members lend their cooperation to the Student Ministerial Association in presenting Religious Emphasis Week each year.

However, it is not only in religious activities, but in wholesome, recreational activities as well, that the Methodist Student Movement is extremely active. At the beginning of each year, the M.S.M. is ready to entertain and welcome the freshmen during "freshman days." Throughout the year, numerous hay-rides, wiener roasts, and skating parties are given.

The women's physical education department at Austin Peay is equipped to offer the physical education majors the best training in their chosen field. The P.E. major gets actual teaching experience in coaching such classes as volleyball, basketball, stunts and tumbling, softball, and tennis.

Members of the club have sponsored square dances, tennis matches, and swimming, bridge, bowling, and volleyball activities. This year several members went to the annual Physical Education Majors convention at Tulsa, Oklahoma, for a week of recreation, education, and fellowship with people from other states.

P.E. majors find in their club an opportunity for associating with others with common interests. Physically, socially, and mentally they are prepared for a teaching profession, as well as obtaining a great deal of carry-over values for their later life.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is open to girls who plan to major or minor in home economics and any other interested persons.

One of the aims of the club is to bring about social contact among the students. Much has been done toward this in sponsoring different social affairs. This year the club has given a tea for the freshmen, another for the transfer students, and an open house for the entire student body and faculty. Frequent square dances and hamburger fries in co-sponsorship with the Ag boys have helped to round out the social calendar.

As a project to interest high school girls in home economics, the club holds a fashion show each spring. Girls from high schools in the surrounding area may participate.

The club is always well represented at the State Home Economics Convention. This year one of its members, Betty Curtis Elliott, has served as State President.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

A steady increase in the membership of the Industrial Arts Club, which is composed of students taking work in Industrial Arts and those following the pre-engineering curriculum, has shown that this organization holds an important place in the activities of the Industrial Arts Department.

The purpose of the Industrial Arts Club, which meets once a month, is to help the student to realize the role that Industrial Arts plays in modern civilization. Films are shown, lectures given, and field trips to various industrial plants are taken to give the members a better insight into and an understanding of industrial processes.

The club fosters several projects annually, such as the building of a float for the Homecoming parade and the repairing of toys for distribution at Christmas.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

The Agriculture Club takes pride in being an outstanding student organization at Austin Peay State College. Boasting of its own clubhouse on the College's 475-acre farm, Ag Club members have blended fellowship and scholarship. In addition to having hamburger fries, informal socials, and "bull sessions," it has become a tradition for the club to have one of the best floats in the Homecoming parade.

With a firm foundation in a well-qualified faculty, "Aggies" are prepared for a limitless future, for graduates include a vice president of the Armour Fertilizer division at Nashville, a chemist and district salesman for fertilizer companies, a trouble-shooter for International Harvester Company, and even a pilot in the Air Corps. In addition, other graduates with majors in agriculture are farming, doing postgraduate work at universities, and engaged as farm managers.

The Agriculture Club is proud of its accomplishments and looks forward to even better years at Austin Peay State College.

CAMPUS PERSONALITIES

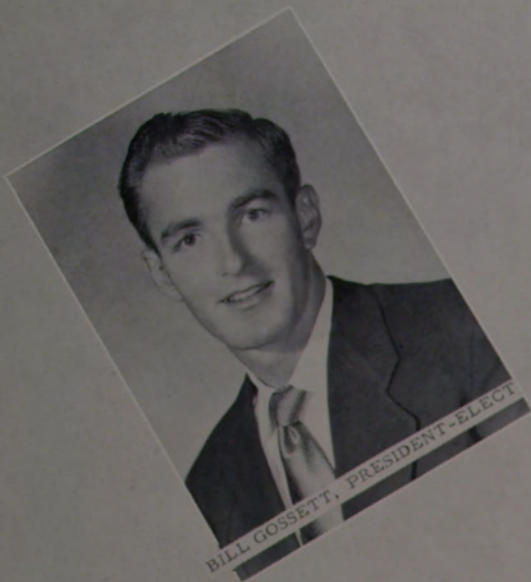

Because the students do not elect the personalities, it has become the responsibility of the FAREWELL AND HAIL staff to choose those persons each year. Personalities are chosen from the sophomore and junior classes only, since there are so many deserving freshmen and since they have had so short a time to show their merits. Characteristics considered in choosing personalities are friendliness, general service to the school, and all-round appeal.

A REVIEW OF THE SEASON

Except for the loss of backfield coach Don Gary, the Austin Peay coaching staff remained the same as last year.

Head coach Dave Aaron has been the pilot for the past decade. He is Austin Peay's first full-time coach, having taken over in 1946. As well as being head coach, Mr. Aaron is also Athletic Director.

Assistant to Coach Aaron in both the athletic directorship and the coaching duties is Leon Sandifer. Coach Sandifer hails from Clemson where he was an outstanding lineman.

Rounding out the coaching staff is Kenneth Cooper who comes to the "Big Red" by way of Vanderbilt and the Baltimore Colts. Coach Cooper was an All-Southeastern Conference guard while at Vanderbilt.

The trainer of the Governor football team is Ed Kulakowski, a former Governor grid star.

SEASON'S RECORD

Led by co-captains Bobby Brown and Bobby Way, Austin Peay's football team had a record of three wins, five defeats, and two ties.

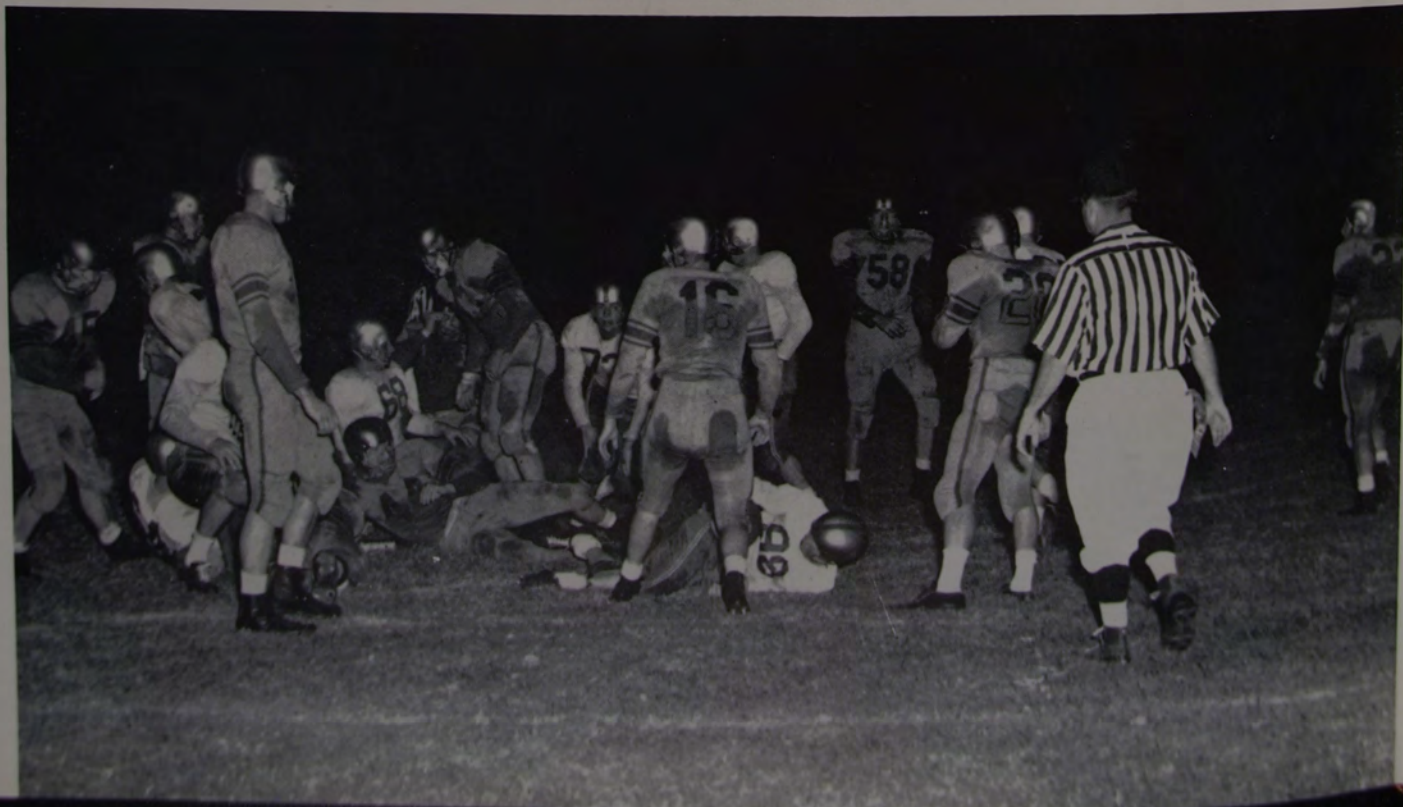

First on the Austin Peay agenda was East Tennessee State, who took a 28 to 7 win from the "Governors." The next week the "Red and White" journeyed down to Arkansas where they picked up a 19 to 13 win over Henderson State College.

Florence State of Alabama invaded the Austin Peay campus and managed to eke out a 13 to 7 victory. Underdogs against the "Blue Raiders" of Middle Tennessee, Austin Peay managed to gain a 7 to 7 tie in what was considered to be one of the better games of the season.

Austin Peay proved too much for Uncle Sam as they trounced Memphis Navy 14 to 7. The Aaron men were not quite so successful against the "Gamecocks" of Jacksonville State as last year; but they did manage to get a 14 to 14 tie. This was the Homecoming game, and although not a complete success because of the tie, it was good not to lose this game in particular.

The "spooks" of Halloween and the hills of East Tennessee proved too much for Austin Peay as it lost to Carson-Newman on October 30, by a score of 13 to 6.

The last two games on the Austin Peay slate were quite a disappointment to both players and coaches. Austin Peay succumbed to two powerful Ohio Valley Conference teams, Tennessee Polytechnic Institute 27 to 13, and Murray State of Kentucky 44 to 7.

However, the Austin Peay season did not end on a sad note. In the past the city of Clarksville has held a mid-state championship game for high school teams. This year it was decided that the Austin Peay "Governors" and the Fort Campbell "Angels" should tangle in this game. Austin Peay did itself proud, played its best game of the season, and won by a score of 13 to 12.

Austin Peay was able to outrush, but not outpass nor outscore their opponents. Austin Peay averaged 144.6 yards rushing and 53.8 yards passing for a total of 198.4. Their opponents averaged 136.4 yards rushing and 89.5 yards passing for a total of 225.9. The "Red and White" scored 107 points while their opponents were scoring 178.

The rushing leader for AP was Bill Alexander, a Georgia boy. Bill carried 96 times for 365 yards, an average of 3.8 yards a carry. Bill was also high scorer with three touchdowns and two extra points for 20 points.

He's Sorry, Coach

The leading passer was John Martin, who attempted 65, completed 26, had 11 intercepted, and gained 379 yards. His completion percentage was 40 per cent. The leading pass receivers were James Williams and Don Woods, who caught 7 each. James gained 154 yards on his seven catches, while Don gained 143.

The leading punter was Lloyd Hill, who averaged 37.14 yards on 7 boots, and Jack Midwood, who averaged 35.3 yards on 10 kicks.

The "Governors" had no outstanding man on their squad this year as all men played on about the same equal.

Most of the men should return next year as Kim Smith and Ron Clary were the only graduates.

Now hear this . . .

Austin Peay had what might be termed a hot and cold year on the basketball front. The Governors returned six men from the '52-'53 squad. These were Dickie Elliott, Earl Chance, Ken West, Gene Trotter, Donnie Holmes, and Johnny Rendek. Seven newcomers were also added. They were Phillip Brown, Doug Moore, Carl Taylor, Bobby Bowers, Ray Hampton, Wayne McCollum, and Bill Lax.

B A S K E T B A L L

The "Governors" will lose several good men this year in the persons of Elliott, Trotter, Chance, and Holmes. Their loss will be a blow to cage fans; but there is hope for the return of old stars like Tom Morgan, Freddie Harrison, and Jackie Hunt, and for some new freshmen or transfer students.

Austin Peay played 24 games during the season, winning 7 while losing 17. The "Red and White" made a good stand for the home folks as they won half of the home games.

In the first game it looked as if the AP cagers were off to the races as they took a 32-point win over the Clarksville Navy Base. After this, though, Austin Peay wasn't able to win for eight games. For their second win, the "Governors" put on a stall and took a 4-point decision from Tennessee Tech. The "Golden Eagles" were highly favored, so they were quite humiliated by this defeat. On the next night AP registered its third win. This was over Club Deportivo Mexicana, an athletic club from Mexico, by 15 points. Later on the same week, they conquered Union University by 2 points.

Things again cooled for the "Governors" until they almost ran East Tennessee State out of the gym. On the next night the nationally famous Rio Grande team was met and defeated for win number six. The last victory came near the season's end against Arkansas State.

In the play-off for eighth place in the Volunteer State Athletic Conference and a place in the tournament, Austin Peay lost to the Milligan College "Buffaloes."

AP scored 1,554 points for an average of 64.3 per game. Their opponents scored 1,733 for an average of 72.2 per game.

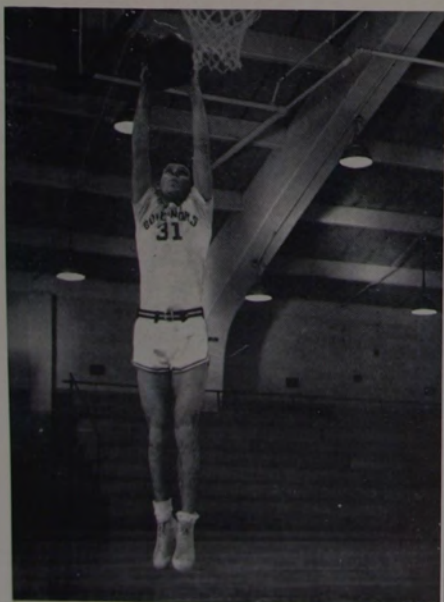

The leading scorer, Dickie Elliott, also had the best per game average. He scored 280 points for an average of 16.47.

Three "Governors," Holmes, Chance, and Moore, participated in all games.

Elliott scored the most field goals, 99, and the most free throws, 82. He was followed in field goals by Rendek with 88, and free throws by Chance with 80. Donnie Holmes accumulated an amazing accuracy of 84 per cent on his free throws.

Although not winning too many games, the team showed great courage, try, and sportsmanship.

The Governor baseball squad was able to turn in the best won-lost percentage of any athletic team for the year. The baseballers won 4 and lost 3 in the Conference, and had an over-all record of 9 wins and 4 defeats. Two of the defeats were at the hands of Middle Tennessee.

The AP starters included Co-Captains Martin and Chance, Holmes, Roberson, Rendek, Gossett, Cartwright, Elliott, and hurlers Craig, Burchett, Carney, and Midwood. Rounding out the team were West, Doster, Wimberly, Henson, Britt, L. Hill, Bell, Trotter, and Stephens.

In 1954 the team was again coached by Don Gary, who resigned after the season. The 1955 edition will be piloted by Leon Sandifer. We hope the team can come through with as fine a showing this year as last.

The track team showed up very well, finishing third in the Conference meet behind East Tennessee and Union.

Austin Peay had several first places in the meet. These were Don Woods, shot put; Richard Weakley, mile and two miles; and Eddie Evans, 880.

Weakley was tied for second high scorer in the meet and Evans was tied for third.

Others to show up well in the meet were Roberson and Hancock, pole vault; Clary, shot put; Alexander, 100 and 220; Toler, 100; and Woods, high hurdles.

We are proud of our track team for its fine initial showing. It looks good to see other sports coming to the campus.
