

TEACHERS MEET IN NASHVILLE WITH VARIED PROGRAM

NO CLASSES ON FRIDAY OR
SATURDAY, OCTOBER
29 and 30

Meeting on October 28, 29 and 30 at the War Memorial Building, Nashville, the Middle Tennessee Teachers Association, presided over by President G. C. Carney, will have as its main theme "The Unfinished Work of Horace Mann."

There will be no school Friday and Saturday at the college, since the members of the faculty will all attend the meeting. Mr. Guy Hague is planning to extend an invitation to the music teachers of the counties surrounding Montgomery County to have a music festival at the Austin Peay Normal School next spring.

Some noted speakers will appear on the program. Senator Alben W. Barkley, Kentucky, majority leader of the United States Senate and one of the South's greatest orators and leading statesmen, will be the guest speaker for Friday evening, October 29.

Mr. D. B. Clements needs no introduction to the Tennessee teachers. He was the first state supervisor of vocational agriculture in Tennessee. He will appear Friday and Saturday before the division of vocational agriculture.

Dr. Frederick H. Koch is head of the department of Dramatic Arts at the University of North Carolina. Dr. Koch is the founder of the Carolina Play Masters. He will be the guest of the English Section.

Spirakis, Harrison Honored By Classes

LACY, BROWN, BUCHANAN,
HAGUE ELECTED
SPONSORS.

October 18 saw the election of the following officers of the Freshman and Sophomore classes. Sophomore Class: President, Guy Spirakis; Vice-President, Margaret Wilson; Secretary, and Treasurer, Gian Marocchi; Sergeant-at-Arms, Allen Brown; Sponsors, Miss Margaret Lacy and Coach Fred Brown.

Freshman Class: President, William Harrison; Vice-President, William Manning; Secretary and Treasurer, Orvil Moffitt; Sergeant-at-Arms, L. A. Browning; Sponsors, Miss Martha Buchanan and Mr. Guy Lynn Hague.

Series of Lectures Given by Dr. Rollo Brown at APN

In a series of three talks, Dr. Rollo Walter Brown, one of the most interesting and able speakers ever to have appeared at the Austin Peay Normal School, entertained the students, faculty and visitors there on Monday and Tuesday, October 11 and 12.

At the regular chapel program on Monday morning, Dr. Brown spoke on the "Creative Spirit." Paraphrasing his remarks, Dr. Brown spoke as follows: Creative people are those who, breaking things away from their conventional places, put them to new use. Do not be afraid, if you think you have a good idea, to carry it out for fear of ridicule

Library Receives Valuable Gift

A very valuable set of books was given to the Austin Peay Normal School Library by Mrs. J. P. Harvill of Nashville. The set contains 40 volumes of history, including the internationally known Gibson's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, Gibbon's France, Italy's Dutch Republic and Green's History of England.

Donations such as this one are greatly appreciated by the faculty and students of the college. They not only help the present student body but they have lasting value for the future.

Teachers Entertained By APNS Faculty

RECEPTION IN HARNED HALL
GIVEN TO FACULTIES OF
CITY AND COUNTY
HIGH SCHOOLS

The faculty of the Austin Peay Normal School entertained Tuesday evening, October 5, in the reception room of Harned Hall, representatives of the schools of Clarksville and Montgomery County.

The officials of the Joint Board of Education, the heads of the high schools, and the Normal faculty received the guests. An entertaining musical program (Continued on Page 2)

Booster Club Again Makes Itself Felt

UNDER GUIDANCE OF HAGUE
AND MOFFITT CLUB
BOOSTS SCHOOL

The first meeting of the Booster Club, sponsored by Professors G. L. Hague and V. C. Moffitt, was held in Mr. Hague's room on Tuesday, October 5. A large number of new members were present as well as all those who were freshman members last year. Mr. Hague discussed the work of this organization, pointing out its importance in supporting the athletic program of the Austin Peay Normal School. The club elects as its officers the following students: William Mann, president; Dabney Meriwether, first vice-president; Harry McCall, second vice-president; Orvil Moffitt, secretary; and Alice Atkinson, treasurer.

Eight candidates for cheer leaders for the 1957-58 season were nominated by the club, and four of them were elected by the (Continued on Page 2)

Alumni Association To Have Luncheon

ATTENDANCE EXPECTED TO INCREASE GREATLY

On Friday, October 29, Austin Peay Normal Alumni Association will give a luncheon in the ballroom of the Andrew Jackson Hotel at 12:15 p. m. Tickets for the luncheon will be on sale after 9 o'clock a. m. in the lobby of the War Memorial Building. The price is 75 cents. Reservations should be made before the 29th. All members of the Alumni Association and the present student body are cordially invited to attend.

The attendance this year is expected to go beyond last year's attendance, which was over 100. Invitations containing a stamped, addressed card have been sent out to the alumni. The replies that are coming in already indicate that the banquet will be well attended.

This will be the third meeting of the Alumni Association, which was organized in the fall of 1936. The present officers are: President, James Gibbs, Cheatham County; Vice-President, Wyatt Shaw, Cheatham County; Secretary-Treasurer, Frances Childs, Montgomery County. The representatives are as follows: Bedford County, Kate Beasley; Denton County, Paul Crockett; Cheatham County, James Gibbs and Mrs. Gladys Jackson; Dickson County, Mamie Brown; Henderson County, Elizabeth Puryear; Houston County, Earl Sexton; Humphreys County, Mrs. Augusta Porch; Wayne County, Howard Brady; Maury County, Maude Sewell; Montgomery County, Andrew Conn and L. L. Bumpus; Robertson County, Grace Hyde; Stewart County, Ray Nelson; Hickman County, Bell Anderson; Sevier County, Paul Dorris. These county representatives are making a drive this fall to increase membership in the alumni association. The fee, which is 50 cents a year, includes a subscription to the Alto State, which will run regularly this year a column of alumni news.

Marlin Heads APNS Sponsors

The annual meeting of the Austin Peay Normal Sponsors' Association was held in the school cafeteria Tuesday evening, October 5. Election of new officers for the year, reading of the facts that the Normal School reports, and a number of general pep talks were included in the program.

Last year's able president, Adolf Hach, was succeeded by Maurice Martin. W. E. Bosch was re-elected treasurer and B. Bond was elected secretary of the organization. Vice presidents Jesse Perry and Robert Morrison were "appointed" by the president.

Plans for an increase in the sponsors' Association membership were announced by president Martin. Reports from the respective officers were made and the fact that the Normal School Athletics had to be financed by private contributions was brought out. Other speakers were C. H. Moore, Harry Jesse Perry, Dean Halbert Harvill, Coach B. Brown, Harry Brown, President P. P. Claxton, A. E. Killebrew, and V. C. Moffitt.

MANY COUNTIES REPRESENTED AS A. P. NORMAL SCHOOL BEGINS NINTH YEAR

21 Tennessee Counties and 2 Two Other States Have Students Enrolled—New Members Added to Faculty

HARRY LAW
Professor of Geography

GUY LYNN HAGUE
Director of Music

College Women's Club Holds First Meeting

At the first meeting of the College Women's Club Tuesday evening, October 19, Miss Huff, president of the club, reviewed "The Years" by Virginia Woolf. Mrs. P. P. Claxton presided. The program for the year was read by Miss Buchanan, chairman of the program committee, and was unanimously adopted. Miss Howard and Miss Nolen are the other members of the program committee.

DEAN H. HARVILL IS HONORED BY LEGION

New State Commander Praised By Prominent
Visitors In Short Talks at Banquet

Dean Halbert Harvill, new state commander of the American Legion, was signally honored by a banquet given him Monday night, October 11, at the Woman's Club, and sponsored by the Archie Wood Legion Post of Clarksville. Dean Harvill was elected state commander in August and had just returned from the national convention held in New York early in September. Presided over by Jesse F. Perry, commander of the local post, the banquet was attended by approximately 200 students have registered for the fall quarter at the Austin Peay Normal School, which has opened for its ninth consecutive year. These students represent 21 counties in Tennessee and two other states.

This is the biggest enrollment in years, according to Dean Halbert H. Harvill, who pointed out that it is about 15 per cent above the enrollment of the fall quarter of last year.

About one-third of the students are from Montgomery County. Other counties represented are Cheatham, Warren, Lewis, Sumner, Robertson, Henry, Davidson, Stewart, Wayne, Dickson, Humphreys, Hickman, Houston, Fentress, Benton, Perry, Marshall, and Lincoln, and Bedford. Several students are enrolled from Kentucky and Georgia.

Registration for the students was Monday and Tuesday, September 20 and 21. Regular class work began the next day. It was estimated that 60 per cent of the students are taking courses preparatory to teaching.

Only two changes have been made in the faculty since last year. Harry L. Law, Superintendent of schools in Portland, Tennessee, who has taught in George Peabody College, State Teachers College, Murfreesboro, and Western Carolina Teachers College, is the new teacher of geography. Miss Martha Buchanan, former teacher of geography, has been transferred to the history department, to take the place vacated by W. B. Nicholson who is in Duke University on a leave of absence. Guy L. Hague, the new director of music, comes from Cumberland College, Kentucky. He has taught voice also in the public schools of Cleveland, Ohio, Rochester, New York, and Kansas City, Missouri.

Robert Abernathy, who has just completed a study of local school units for the Tennessee State Department of Education, has been added to the faculty of the Demonstration School. Mr. Abernathy has also taught at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute and State Teachers College, Murfreesboro.

With classwork well under way and with school activities all started, the school is looking forward to its best year.

In brief talk Governor Browning hailed Commander Harvill as an outstanding Legionnaire (Continued on Page 4)

ALL STATE

Published Generally Every Two Weeks by Students of
AUSTIN PEAY NORMAL
SCHOOL
Clarksville, Tennessee.

Member:
Tennessee College Press Assn.
Subscription By The Year, 75c
GIAN MAROCCHI

Editor-In-Chief

NEWS EDITORS

J. C. Hunt
Dabney Meriwether
John Rubel
George McMurry
Frances Manning
Nancy Dickson Literary Editor
John Lewis Sports Editor
Clementine Hambaugh
Exchange Editor

REPORTERS

Mary Ann Hardison
Margaret Wilson
Mary Payne Claxton
Alice Atkinson
Margaret Crutcher
Jane Beaumont
Lillian Hunt
Pauline Harper
Novelle Bentley
Virginia Cherry
Virginia Matlock
Beulah Robinson
Frances Bardwell
Louise Elliott
Buford Ledbetter
John Nicholson
Howard Gray
Carl Fowler

BUSINESS STAFF

Victor Williams Business Manager
Harris McKeonolds, George Fort Assistants
Mary Frances Page Circulation Manager
Cullum Claxton Assistant

Much Needed Renovation

For some weeks workmen have been busy in the Stewart and Castle buildings and the boys' dormitories and in a short time will have completed giving these buildings a look of freshness and newness very pleasing.

The repairs and renovations which have been made constitute only the barest necessities of the rehabilitation which will take place when a more anticipated addition of an administration building containing an auditorium and a gymnasium is added to the college plant. It is hoped it will be possible to obtain this new building in the near future.

All outside woodwork on all buildings has been freshly painted. All inside woodwork of Robb and Calvin Hall, the boys' dormitories, has been painted, as have the six or eight classrooms and the entrance to Stewart Hall, at the authorized expenditure of $1,800. All broken plaster in both buildings, including the library and boys' dormitories, has been repaired at the cost of $263.76. Remains have been made in the roofing and in the brick walls at the cost of $16.18, making a complete total of $2,079.94.

The result is a measure of freshness and beauty. And that is as it should always be. But because there is a direct relation between good teaching, good learning, and cleanliness, but because about a school which has taken as its special task the rehabilitation of all that is unfit, inadequate, and ugly about the rural schools of Tennessee there should certainly be cleanliness and beauty. Dirty and noisome toilets, littered floors, rotting buildings, a bare and ugly campus should not characterize a normal school. There is, for all their beauty, many of the new buildings. Let us keep them clean, even in penury. There is beauty on our campus. Let us keep it so.

Those Precious Legacies

By Nancy Ellen Dickson

Let's read a bit of drama and remember Henrik Ibsen's Doll's House from the shelf. Ibsen writes of a middle-class family where the wife finds that she must accommodate herself to her husband's theory that all women are playthings, with no minds of their own. The play centers around the wife's love and devotion for her husband. She finds her husband is very ill, and a change of climate is the only cure. This seems impossible to her poor family, so she forces her father's name on a loan bad name in business. Very conveniently the father dies and she tells her husband that the money was loaned to her.

Her husband is a very egotistical man, and refuses to give the man from whom his wife borrows the money a job in the bank in which he works, because of childish reasons, thus bringing the play to a dramatic climax. The wife's forgery is discovered, throwing her husband into a rage. She realizes that she must leave him, so she finds the real relations that man and wife should have when they are married.

urer, Polly Harper. Sponsor, Miss Smith. Initiation of the new members will take place November 3, in Harned Hall.

VESPER SERVICES

Organizing for 1937, with Mollie Noland, chairman. Past members, Eleanor Matlock, Lena Belle Fitzpatrick, Frances Sharenberger, Terrell McCurdy, Tom Shaw, and Vivian Brown as program committee, the Vesper Services held the first meeting September 26, in the reception room of Harned Hall. Dickson spoke on the subject of "Looking Ahead." Orville Lee Mofitt and Robert Keeling gave a trumpet duet.

Subsequent programs, held October 3, 10 and 17, have included such speakers as Don Harvill, the Rev. Willard Bue, pastor of Methodist Church, and Tom Shaw, Mr. Hague of the music department. Terrell McCurdy, Eleanor Matlock, and Mary Frances Sharenberger have been in these programs one time or another.

The regular meeting place of the Vesper Services is the reception room of Harned Hall, and the time is 5:30 every Sunday evening. All members of the student body are cordially invited.

EXCHANGES

Clementine Hambaugh

"A long engagement keeps a man short."

"If you walk in your sleep it is a splendid time to go out and have your teeth fixed."

A man who will tell you the truth in all other things, will lie shamefully about a fish."

"Short and Snappy," from The Tiger Cam.

The Camera Camera in The Tech Oracle states that: "These fellows, these students, these fellows before the court of public opinion: Bing Crosby, Rudy Vallee, Fred Astaire, and the rest of them, Powell Thomas, and Don Ameche."

A little advice from the Maryland Highland Echo of Oct. 2:

"Take not thy date to a football game for after the game growth hot, thy date shall deserve an ice cream cone, and when it gets chilly, shall she ask to be taken home, and greet is the anger of her if you look not at her but at the football game."

An October issue of the Cumberland Collegian contained a "Mothering poem."

"A mother loves her children as all mothers should."

A cowboy loves his ponies and his horse, and his cowboy.

A sailor loves the sunset like flowers love the dew.

Young men love the moonlight under which they bough and coo.

But of the love in this whole inside world compared to that of a mother,

It's that tender, lingering, passionate love, one drunk has for another."

"Give an example of unpro-

DEBATE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS, RECEIVES NEW MEMBERS

Under the sponsorship of Mr. V. C. Mofitt, the Debating Club held its first meeting on Wednesday, October 13. Officers chosen are: Victor Williams, president; Orville Mofitt, vice-president; and Eleanor Matlock, secretary.

In a discussion by Mr. Mofitt the aims and activities of the club were defined to the new members. An explanation of the club's policy will be held this year between the Austin Peay Normal team and teams from other schools, in which all those who are sufficiently interested in debating will be able to participate.

The aim of the club, as pointed out by Mr. Mofitt, is to promote not only debating, but also every phase of public speaking in which any student may be interested.

Student Christian Union Organized

Thursday morning, September 30, the Student Christian Union met with the sponsors, Miss Lacy, Miss Tanner, and Mr. Hague, to organize the club for the new year. Eleanor Matlock, elected president, Vivian Brewer, vice-president, Mary Frances Page, secretary and treasurer, and Margaret Crutcher, chairman of the program committee.

At the following meeting on Oct. 7, Mr. Mofitt gave a conference of impressive talk on Striving. He emphasized the necessity of having an ideal, and the importance of striving to attain that ideal. Also, in the program was the rendition of a dramatic arrangement of the Twenty-third Psalm by Mr. Hague.

This organization has an excellent aim since its purpose, and a very successful year for this club is anticipated.

"Inductive spending of wealth."

"Taking your sister to the pictures." —Vollette.

BOOSTER CLUB

(Continued from Page 1)

entire student body the following day. Those chosen were Mary Ann Hardison, Cecil Smith, Nancy Beaumont, and William Mann.

From an over-abundant number of volunteers, a number of the members were chosen to assist in the sale of sponsor tickets. Very gratifying results were obtained from the ticket campaign, although the hopes of the club in raising a larger fund were not entirely satisfied. This year's Booster Club has all the earmarks of a noble, spirited unit, ready, willing, and able to support the entire athletic program of the Austin Peay Normal School.

DR. BROWN

(Continued from Page 1)

said, is when you are young, while you have the enthusiasm of youth. Most of his grant money he has given to the students of the world either when young or at least started out to do them. While creature people do not receive the rewards that they deserve, they are the important ones, the ones most deserving of the advancement of the world.

As future teachers, the noted lecturer said, the students of A. P. N. have the great opportunity of helping to develop the young, the young that they may make. It is the teacher who can make the world a better place and tell what he is worth. So it is their duty to encourage and promote the creative spirit in the

U. D. C. Delegates Meet for Program In APNS Chapel

An historical pageant was given under the direction of Mrs. Hardy E. Jackson, division historian, in the auditorium of the Austin Peay Normal School, Thursday night, October 14, before an audience of approximately 300 people.

Preceding the pageant, "Cavaliers of Colonial Women," in which about twenty-five delegates participated, was an address on the Old South, given by the Rev. Marshall Wingfield, commander of the Tennessee Sons of the Confederate Veterans.

A number of prizes were presented to students of various high schools for their essays and poems on themes of historical interest.

Miss Isabel Coulter rendered a solo, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," accompanied by Mrs. Adrian Laseur at the piano. A Theatrical Program was sung by Prof. Guy L. Hague, music instructor at the college.

Hugh Cawender, Montgomery County's only surviving Confederate veteran, and Mrs. Cawender, were presented by Mrs. Lula B. Epperson.

In the pageant famous colonial women were represented by local women and delegates to the U. D. C. convention, attired in picturesque colonial costumes. Eight school girls, Misses Tyler White, Frances Manning, Nancy Ellen Dickson, Susan Day, Annemarie Dunsen, Elizabeth Riley, and Mrs. Mary Frances Page Claxton, danced a minute in nineteenth century costumes.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet." He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

He was Edward Arlington Robinson, with whom Dr. Brown spent many summers at the McDowell Colony. He told of the difficulty of becoming intimately acquainted with Robinson and how he finally grew to know him well. He described E. A., as he called the poet, as a person who was very much alive, always super-sensitive to the things about him, extremely observant, with an inclination to philosophize on ordinary observations. He was, Dr. Brown said, one of the few great men he had ever known; that is, there was something about him which he could only describe as greatness. Edward A. Robinson was a man who always thought of other people, who was generous with his meager funds, and always ready to help. Dr. Brown said his lecture by retelling from memory a number of selections from Robinson's poetry.

He said that some of those who come under their

He was talking Dr. Brown spoke on "Living Next Door to a Poet."

PEAY WINS FIRST VICTORY AGAINST MURRAY FROSH

BRILLIANT PASSING ATTACK RESPONSIBLE FOR 26-7 WIN

Using a razor-dazzle offense, the Austin Peay Normal Terrors won their first football game of the year on October 16 at Murfreesboro, Tenn., defeating the Murray Freshmen 26 to 7.

Forward and lateral passes were again the pay-off of the Normal touchdowns. Sexton and H. M. Sandifer were outstanding for the Normal, and the blocking of the entire Normal team was the best of the season.

A lateral play, H. M. Sandifer to McGill to Sexton, was good for the first touchdown. APN then made the count 14 to 0 in a few minutes. A number of passes from Sandifer to Sleight brought the ball to Murray's six-yard stripe, where Sandifer raced off tackle to score.

Sexton ran 44 yards for the third Normal touchdown after making the play from the strong side of the line to the weak side of the line. "Slick" Vester accounted for the last Normal touchdown, making end runs to score for Austin Peay.

Nearly every member of the squad, except those not dressed, or injured, got in the game for the Terrors.

AUSTIN PEAY'S LINEUP
Sleight, D. Branson — Ends
Campbell, Perry — Tackles
Workman, Smith — Guards
Spirakis — Center
H. M. Sandifer — Quarterback
McGill, Vester — Halfbacks
Sexton — Fullback

Substitutions: Lorentzon, Keeling, Spencer, Northington, Gallagher, Hawkins, Harris, Baggett, Pullen, Hallama, Murdock, Stecker, and C. Branson.

Excellent Showing Given by Normal At Pensacola

LOSING 12-7, BOYS PLAY BEST GAME OF SEASON AGAINST BETTER TEAM

On a trip to Pensacola, Florida, reputedly the longest any State Normal has ever taken, the Austin Peay Normal was defeated by the United States Naval Base 12 to 7 on October 9.

The Normal, playing a bigger and more experienced team, gave their best showing of this season. The first half ended with neither team scoring.

With five minutes to play, Buddy Murdock was sent in the game. Murdock tossed a 15-yard pass to Lorentzon who lateraled to H. M. Sandifer for the Normal's touchdown.

The Naval Base displayed power in driving down the field for scores in the third and fourth quarters.

APN DEFEATED BY UT JUNIORS, 20-14

SANDIFER, SEXTON RUNNING STARS IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

The Austin Peay Normal Terrors lost a hard fought contest to the U. T. Juniors, 20 to 14, at Martin, Tennessee, on Friday, October 22.

The running of Sexton and H. M. Sandifer and the pass catching of Doyle Branson were outstanding for the Normal. Spirakis and Lorentzon were injured during the game, hurting A. P. N.'s chances of victory.

Sexton and H. M. Sandifer alternately running with the ball, the Terrors sustained drives for their touchdowns. A number of

FOOTBALL TEAM LOOKS GOOD IN MID-SEASON

Injuries, Lack of Reserves Hold Up Progress, But Boys Expect Successful Showing

With twenty-six on the roster, the Austin Peay Normal School is now in its fifth year of football, and a successful team, the rest of the season is expected following an early season jinx of injuries and breaks going to their disadvantage.

The team has played well in every game being handicapped with at least one man injured in every contest. It has displayed a very good aerial attack and has fought hard in every contest, winning one and dropping four.

Coch Brown has fourteen men on the team returning from last year. The complete roster is as follows:

Ends: Lorentzon, D. Branson,

Sleight, Keeling, and Spencer. Tackles: Campbell, Perry, Northington, and Gallagher. Guards: Smith, Workman, Baggett, Harris, and Pullen. Centers: Spirakis, Hallama, Broster.

Backs: Vester, Sexton, H. M. Sandifer, Murdock, Leon Sandifer, Browning, Stecker, Workman, and C. Branson.

Oct. 22 — U. T. Juniors (there).

Oct. 29 — Open.

Nov. 5 — Murfreesboro Teachers (there).

Nov. 11 — Murfreesboro Freshmen (here).

Nov. 20 — Western Kentucky Teachers Freshmen (here—pending).

Doyle Branson was described by one of the first stringers as a player who tries all the time. Those are my sentiments, too.

"Foods" made the All City center in basketball at East High. Campbell is 19 years old, weighs 205 pounds, and wears a size 15 shoe. The Normal had to get a special uniform to fit him.

The football squad will sorely miss the services of "Plowboy" Roark, who will be out the rest of the season because of a pulled tendon in his knee.

Harry (Screwball) Smith, guard, hails from Mount Vernon, Ga. "Screwball" played four years at the Bruton Parker Junior College before coming to the Normal. Smith is five feet-nine, weighs 185, and is 18 years old.

He made All Conference guard of the Southern Junior College Conference. His hobbies are eating, football, and omelette.

"Butch" Workman is captain of the team. "Butch" has played four full games this season.

Ab Perry, a four-year football player, H. M. Sandifer to D. Branson to Sexton or Sexton to D. Branson to H. M. Sandifer clicked for long gains. H. M. Sandifer, plowing through the center of the line, scored both Normal touchdowns.

The U. T. Juniors played straight football, pushing over three touchdowns and scoring a safety to win the game.

The Normal passing attacks clicked for two touchdowns in the first quarter and a third in the fourth quarter. Lorentzon place-kicking one extra point.

The Union Freshmen unleashed an aerial attack to cross the Normal goal line in the second quarter and two times in the third quarter. The invaders made two of their extra points—the margin

TERRORS DROP FIRST GAME OF SEASON TO CUMBERLAND

LACK OF PRACTICE HAMPERS A. P. N. GRID-DERS

Austin Peay Normal lost its season's inaugural football game to Cumberland University 26 to 9 before some 700 fans at Lebanon on September 17.

The team having practiced only a week, the Normal was not ready for the Cumberland game, but displayed plenty of fight to make a good showing in the game.

Cumberland scored a touchdown in both the first and second quarters, and two in the last quarter. A blocked punt and an intercepted pass paved the way for two of the touchdowns.

The booming of the gun to end the half cost the Normal a possible touchdown. A forward lateral, H. M. Sandifer to Doyle Branson to Leon Sandifer, brought the ball to Cumberland's ten-yard stripe when the half ended.

Austin Peay played Cumberland off its feet in the third quarter, keeping the ball most of the period.

AUSTIN PEAY'S LINE-UP

Lorentzon, D. Branson — Ends
Roark, Perry — Tackles
Workman, Smith — Guards
Spirakis — Center
Murdock — Quarterback
Sexton, H. M. Sandifer — Halfbacks

Leon Sandifer — Fullback
Substitutions: Carver, Harris, Browning, Northington, Redding, Stecker.

BEST GRADE FOOTWEAR AT PENNEBAKER'S

AT PENNEBAKER'S

MANNING-ORGAIN SUPPLY CO.

COAL AND BUILDING MATERIAL

We Furnish Everything To Build Anything

A. F. N. Students and Teachers Always Welcome At

McNeal & Edwards Co.
QUALITY AND SERVICE

We Have the Kind of Merchandise You Want.

BOILLIN-HARRISON COMPANY

WHOLESALE GROCERS

FIELD SEEDS

LESTER BROS.

FRESH FRUITS OF

ALL KINDS

BEST, CONVENIENT

Eat At

CROMWELL'S

Hot Lunches Cold Drinks

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF

CLARKSVILLE

DICKSON-SADLER DRUG COMPANY

BOOKS MUSIC

Druggists

Telephone 88

BERKMAN BROS. QUALITY STORE

For Dry Goods, Ready-To-Wear and House Furnishings

119 Franklin St. Phone 260

ELDER-CONROY COMPANY

Wholesale Distributors

MANSFIELD TIRES

HARDWARE

A.-C.-O. DRUG CO.

SCHOOL

SUPPLIES

PRESCRIPTIONS

Normal Loses Till With Union Frosh

FAILURE TO MAKE EXTRA POINTS COSTS APN LOSS

The failure of the Austin Peay Normal gridgers to make two extra points cost them a 20 to 19 defeat at the hands of the Union Freshmen at Murfreesboro on September 23.

The Normal passing attacks clicked for two touchdowns in the first quarter and a third in the fourth quarter. Lorentzon place-kicking one extra point.

The Union Freshmen unleashed an aerial attack to cross the Normal goal line in the second quarter and two times in the third quarter. The invaders made two of their extra points—the margin

CHEER LEADERS FOR YEAR ARE CHOSEN

The cheer leaders for the Austin Peay Normal School were elected by the student body in chapel on Wednesday morning, October 8, 1937. Misses Nancy Ruth Beaumont and Mary Ann Hardison, Cecil Smith and William Mann were chosen to lead cheers for the coming year.

All of these people have had some experience and are well qualified for their position. Miss Beaumont was a leader in student activities at Clarksville High School; Miss Hardison was a cheer leader for Lewisburg High School; Cecil Smith, lead cheer at Clarksville High School; and William Mann at Austin Peay Normal School last year.

TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES

The Montgomery County County Teachers Association held its regular meeting at the Demonstration School Saturday, October 16. Mr. Guy L. Hague, head of the music department at Austin Peay Normal, gave a demonstration of public school music.

Under the leadership of Mr. Fie, students of the upper grades of the Demonstration School have made an interesting collection of rock. The exhibit contains old formations of mica, quartz, slate, Kentucky marble, fossils, granite, and shale.

HARVILL

(Continued from Page 1)

gionnaire, a worthy educator, and a friend. Callie Goddett, local attorney, traced the history of the American Legion and spoke of its ideals. Turning to Commander Harvill, he continued his speech with these words: "Dean Harvill came to us eight years ago. He is a native of Hickman County. I want to come sooner, and it is my earnest hope that he will make Clarksville his home for the rest of his life."

Given an opportunity to reply briefly to some of the things that had been said of him, the new commander declared: "I am happy I've come your way. I think I am among the most sincere people I have ever known. I appreciate all of the things that have been said of me and the organization which I represent. I love that organization and those beloved mothers," he added as he motioned toward representatives of the War Mothers. "I know you want to see the nation prosper in peace and happiness as I do. They are ideals of Americanism for which the American Legion stands."

LISTEN TO WHAT—

Buford says: "Why do they always glance over me?"
Nellie says: "Do you think Orville's mad at me?"

Carl says: "Anyhow, I can box some."

Mary Ann says: "Oh, my, but there are so many cute boys, Roy."

Chester says: "Well, I always did like Irises."

Eva Lenna says: "Funny how I always get a Parker."

Harris M. says: "They call me good-looking, but so what?"

Joe S. says: "Can I help it if I've got what it takes?"

Dabney says: "I can't understand why Lowe hangs around school so much."

"Bo" Brown says: "At least, I can say I've tried."

Frances M. says: "My, but I didn't know football boys were that nice."

Doctor: "Well, there's a fire across the street and I didn't want you to wake up and think the operation had been a failure."

Through The Keyhole

Well, here we are starting on another year, looking through the "Keyhole" and believe me, if you don't think you can see things through a keyhole just try it sometimes.

Where did Roy Broster get the name of "Rooster"? Was it because someone in "Hopdown" heard him crowing one night?

We overheard Mike Northington staving "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean" the other day. Was Mr. Hague being given him singing lessons or is it Columbia, Tennessee, he's thinking about?

Who ran for the closet and crowded under the beds at the dormitory one night when "Ma" Keeling came around to get a few noises that were echoing through the halls. How about it, Fitzpatrick?

Why has Mr. Cromwell started selling gas and oil? We don't know for sure as yet, but we got a good sneaking idea.

We wonder if Mrs. (Coach) Brown has ever found out what it is in mathematics she hadn't the other day.

Why couldn't Cecil Smith sit down to the breakfast table the morning after the Murray-A. P. N. game? Maybe it was because every time he jumped up after a yell he kicked himself in the pants.

Someone ask Peter Day how he likes to stay in Calvin Hall, especially after a football game on Saturday night.

Why does Irene Manning eat at the "Boda Shop"? Is it because her credit is good?

A certain young man about town seemed to be very glad to see Faye Williams the other day. At least from the greeting he gave her in the picture show, he

JOKES

Buick Owner: "You sold me a car two weeks ago."

Victor: "Yes, sir."

B. O.: "Tell me all about it again. I am getting discouraged."

Judge: "The officer says that you and your wife had some words."

Dean: "I had some, but I didn't get a chance to use them."

Nutt: "I insured my voice for a thousand dollars."

Mr. Hague: "Really? And what did you do with the money?"

John: "My uncle plays the piano with his ear."

Buford: "That's nothing, my uncle fiddles with his whiskers."

Mrs. Brown: "Dear, you haven't kissed me for three days."

Coach: "You don't say! Then whom have I been kissing?"

Mr. Bond: "What is the difference between electricity and lightning?"

Dr. Claxton: "You don't have to pay for lightning."

HENRY NEWHOUSE

SANITARY PLUMBING

Phone 44

seemed to be.

Mr. Bob Keeling must have that Robert Taylor air. At least the way the girls flock around him he must, and we're afraid he'll be leaving his dear old A. P. N. soon. So, girls, if you want to keep him here, hold on to him.

It has been said that Orvil Lee left his girl waiting an hour in the library when he promised to come straight back. Nellie waited, but from what we hear, Orvil Lee, you had better be more prompt next time, if you want to keep that woman in your power.

It seems that these Sunday evening dates in the girls' dormitory can get you into quite a few embarrassing positions. At least Eleanor Matlock and Vivian Brewer seem to think so.

Madge Felix seemed to be rather excited about something the other night. Was it because she lost her directions to the Girls Dormitory?

Terrell, if it's not being too personal, why the sudden interest in Vesper services last Sunday? Surely it couldn't have been on account of Tom Shaw, the speaker of the occasion.

Anna K. seemed to be rather nervous the morning she escorted the football boys out of town on their way to Pensacola, Florida. Was it because she was afraid "Smitty" would join the Navy to see the world?

Somebody wants to know why Joe gave Nancy Ruth back her monogram bracelet. Wasn't it very lucky for him during the Pensacola game?

David, you had better watch out; Mary Payne is most likely to have you going around in circles, and what would the girl back home you promised to be true to have to say about that?

Pullen: "This roof 's so bad that it rains on our beds. How long is this going to continue?"

Mr. Bond: "What do you think I am, a weather prophet?"

J. C.: "You look like a nice

THE MOTOR SHOP

L. E. LADD, Prop.

DURRETT MOTOR COMPANY

CHEVROLET

and

OLDSMOBILE

Sales and Service

METCALFE'S

FLOWERS

RAIN AND INJURIES HAMPER HOME BOYS AT MEMPHIS

On a rain-soaked field at Memphis on October 2, the Austin Peay Normal—handicapped by injuries and reserves—was defeated by the West Tennessee Teachers 26 to 0.

The Normal was unable to use her passing attack on account of the wet, slick ball. They neared the Memphis team's goal only once, H. M. Sandifer slipping after being clear as he took a lateral from Lorentzen.

The West Tennessee Teachers crossed Peay's goal line in the first and second quarters, and twice in the third quarter.

Lorentzen, Spirakis, and Workman stood out for Austin Peay.

sensible girl. Surely you will marry me?"
Clementine: "Oh, no. I am just as sensible as I look."

Mr. Woodward (at end of a lengthy speech): "Now let me close with the words of the immortal Webster:
Louise E. "Huh, if he's starting on the dictionary, I'm leaving."

Peter: "Who is that letter

Clarence G. Carney

Sales—FORD—Service

Watch the Fords Go By

Our Slogan
We Stand by Our Customers and
Our Customers Stand By Us
Their Cooperation Has Made
Our Record Possible

NORTHERN BANK OF TENNESSEE

Oldest Bank in the State

A. P. N. Students, When You Go Out to Teach—

BE SURE AND SUBSCRIBE TO THE

CLARKSVILLE LEAF-CHRONICLE

News In Clarksville and Out of Clarksville

M. L. CROSS COMPANY

SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHING

Men's and Students' Furnishings

FIRST TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

FRIENDLY SERVICE

THE CLARKSVILLE STAR

PRINTERS OF

THE ALL STATE

from?"
Mike: "What do you want to know for?"

Peter: "There you are! What do I want to know for? You're the most inquisitive person I ever met."

THINGS TO WEAR!

VALUES MORE AND MORE

GO TO

PUSHIN'S

Department Store

Compliments of

KY.-TENN. LIGHT & POWER CO.

"BUILD A HOME FIRST"

BASS & COMPANY Incorporated.

Most Complete Line of BUILDING MATERIAL In the South

I. H. C. FARM IMPLEMENTS

Field Seeds Firestone Tires

Perkins & Miller, Inc.

Phone 19