POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

POLICY NO.: III: 01 : 07

DATE: November 11, 1977

SUPERSEDES POLICY NO.: III: 01: 07

DATED: March 8, 1977

SUBJECT: Emeritus Faculty

APPROVED: Robert O. Riggs, President

Robert O. Riggs

All faculty and professional administrative personnel having served the University sufficient length of time to qualify for State retirement benefits shall be eligible to become emeritus faculty upon retirement from Austin Peay State University. Appointment to emeritus status shall be by the President of the University following appropriate consultation with University representatives.

Emeritus faculty and administrators shall be entitled to certain privileges common to the University faculty that are within the power of the University to grant and that can be provided without imposing a direct expenditure of State funds. These privileges carry with them the same general responsibilities as for regular faculty and administrators.

Emeritus faculty and administrators, among other privileges, shall be entitled to maintain an ID card which shall identify the member as having emeritus status and entitle the holder access to certain University facilities and services commonly available to faculty and shall include:

The Felix G. Woodward Library and its facilities

Faculty parking sticker purchase

Faculty rights and responsibilities relative to ticket purchases for University functions

Gymnasium privileges common to faculty

Participation in convocation and commencement exercises.
