And Whither Now?

With the return of autumn and the rustling whirrs of falling leaves, the Austin Peay Normal School is entering its twentieth year as an educational institution. Likewise the organization of the ALL-STATE staff marks the beginning of another era. Its editors and sponsors are again confronted with that annual question, "Just what should this 'Voice of the Normal School' be like?"

This is a question which is largely answered by determining factors. It cannot surpass the literary abilities of its staff, nor can it exceed its financial limit. Yet being the center of the AFNS extra-curricular activities and representing this institution's staff members are duty bound to make it the best possible—first, for the school, and second, for those whose adjectives make its publication possible. Furthermore, can the ALL-STATE, which has so long represented a Junior College, come up to the requirements of a three-year institution?

To be the answer to our major question is largely unanswerable at this early date. Only time will prove the merits of the staff, and outside capital must determine the monetary sky. It is apparent that the addition of a third year here must necessitate some changes in the quality of our paper. As to what these shall be the students themselves must determine. We must become aware that this is OUR paper, our representative. It is only as we support it, and use our initiative to further its cause that it can become worthy of our esteem.

Dear Teacher:

If college Freshmen, whose sudden jump from carefree high school days to the more studious atmosphere of college is sometimes hard to take, could for a little while possess an insight into their future years—they teachers, housewives, or business girls—they would find that their frequently dreaded history course will mean much more to them in later years than some of them think it will.

I doubt if you remember me, in fact, I sort of hope you don't, because if you do, I'm sure it is unpleasant—I have no doubt that I was one of the worst history students you ever had. This letter is an apology to you for the poor work I did for you, a lamentation because I find myself so addled at this particular time, and a hope that the 1939 Freshmen will be a little more level-headed than this 1929

FACULTY NEWS

Miss Lucy Howard has moved to the Nuten Apartments on Greenwood Avenue.

This summer Mr. and Mrs. Russell Spafford traveled extensively in northern Ohio. While inspecting farming plants and to-mato canneries, they also visited Antioch College. In this school the students spend one-half of their time in class and the other half working on a chosen vocation.

Mr. R. C. Swastone is in charge of Hobbs Hall. Dr. Gilmore and his family have moved to Castle Heights.

Mr. V. C. Moffitt along with his wife and Orville, spent their vacation in the Great Smokies National Park. During this time they spent one week on the north side of the park, near Clingman's Dome and Little River, 6,700 feet above sea level. Later they came through New Found Gap and Dayton where they visited the courthouse in which William Jennings Bryan fought his fight on evolution and where they drove for about an hour in the vicinity of Copperport without seeing any grass or timber. The acid from the copper has completely eaten the vegetation in this region.

Miss Anne Laura Huff spent four days touring North Carolina in her automobile and also a day in the Smokies Mountains National Park.

Mrs. Garnett Ladd enjoyed part of her vacation in Neel's Gap, Georgia. She was accompanied by Mr. Ladd and Garnett, Jr.

Miss Hazel Smith spent her vacation at her home in Houston County.

Miss Marcella Buchanan spent a most enjoyable and profitable two weeks' rest at her home in Fayetteville.

Mr. H. C. Phillips, accompanied by his wife and family, took a 10 days' trip through Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mr. F. G. Woodward spent a quiet vacation in Gallatin, Tennessee, where he could overlook the operation of his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and John have recently moved to their new home on North Second Street.

Mr. Harry L. Law and family spent their vacation in Portland, Tennessee.

Miss Anna Leigh McCorkle spent the summer at her home where she enjoyed one of her favorite sports, fishing.

Miss Margaret Lacy and Miss Christine Puleaux went on the Cassette tour from Nashville to World's Fair and New York City. Miss Lacy spent a week-end with her brother in Covington, Ky.

Freshman was.

Please forgive me for unleashing these mournful notes upon you, but every time I pick up a newspaper or turn the radio on I wonder—who did Poland have in mind?—I find there even partial justification in Hitler's demands? and so on—and inevitably I think that I might be so confused in these thoughts that I have listened to my history teacher.

So you see, though I failed to do it, because in spite of my foolish rebellion against learning, you planted the seed of curiosity in my mind, else I might be indifferent to these thoughts instead of avidly reading everything I can get my hands on trying ten years too late, to pursue my history course. Sincerely yours,

Coch and Mrs. Fred Brown, David and Bobby went to Kenzel Springs in the Smoky Mountains. The boys enjoyed swimming and fishing there.

Dr. P. P. Claxton remained in Clarksville this summer, busy with the summer quarter and preparing for the fall one.

Dean H. H. Harvill attended the American Legion Convention in Memphis, and later he and Mrs. Harvill and Evans went to Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bond and three children went to Daytona Beach, Florida. From there they went to Lake Wales, and Silver Springs, and the remainder of the summer they spent on the mountains near Jamestown, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hague visited New York City, Pennsylvania, and Ohio.

This summer D. Harley Fite, a member of Austin Peay Normal School faculty, accepted an invitation to speak at the National Education Association in San Francisco on How a School May Contribute to Country Living.

Mrs. Fite accompanied her husband on his trip and together they visited points of interest on their way to the coast. In San Francisco, they spent three days at the Exposition.

At the present time Mr. Fite is working on his Ph. D. degree, attending Peabody College four days and teaching at this institution on Friday and Saturday.

A slight change has been made in the N. Y. A. Program of Austin Peay Normal School this fall. The working day of an N. Y. A. student is seven hours, including his related training, such as classes, chapel, and choir. On Saturday four hours of work is all that is required.

Only nine hours of college work was allowed to be taken a quarter last year, but twelve may be taken this year. The minimum number of hours to work last year was one-hundred per month.

This program enables NYA students to get more credit hours per quarter and thus finish school quicker.

GOVERNORS CRUSH MARTIN 31-0 IN OPENING FRACAS

OACH BROWN USES ENTIRE SQUAD AS APNS GRIDMEN RUN WILD

Attired in sparkling new uniforms, the Austin Peay Normal governors made their initial appearance for 1939 on Friday night, September 22, when they defeated Martin College 31-0. The boys from Pulaski, outwitted and out-clasped by the senior Governors, fought a valiant battle but were never able to make a serious threat. Overwhelmed by numerous substitutes at frequent intervals, the Martin team fought almost constantly with its back to the wall, very man on the Normal squad was action, while Martin substituted only five men in its original line up.

The Governors first touchdown came on the fourth play of the first quarter, when Coach Fred Furlow kicked off to Martin to open the game and the ball was returned to the Martin 22-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, a Pulaski team fumbled and Austin Peay recovered. After a line plunges with little gain, Furlow laid back, and tossed a nice pass to Toombs who went over standing up. Darnell's attempt to kick the extra point was blocked, but it was a liv-ly, and the Governors recovered over the goal line. There, the point counted, making a score 7-0.

The Governors kicked off again and play resumed. Martin's first break when Furlow fumbled on the invaders' 35-yard line. The ball shot out to Furlow's arms and a Martin play caught it in the air. Behind the blocking he returned it to Austin Peay's 30-yard line. The Governors braced up and held the ball for seven. This was the Peay team's worst threat ended in the 25-yard line.

At the end of the first quarter a score remained 7-0. Neither team had been forced to punt, and only two substitutions had been made. At this time, ten substitutes came in for the Governors.

As a result of an intercepted pass, Coach Furlow turned the second touchdown came late in the end quarter on a pass from Furlow to McWhirter. The play was made. At this time, ten substitutes came in for the Governors.

Austin Peay kicked off after a half and spent the entire quarter battering Martin. This

BUSINESS MEN FORM TO SPONSOR APNS ATHLETICS

An outstanding event occurring before the opening of the school year took place, August 22 when a group of seventy-five leading citizens met for a banquet at the Clarksville Coca Cola plant to organize the 1939 Austin Peay Normal School Sponsors' Association.

After a meal of mutton and pork barbecue, slaw, pickles and pie, R. L. McKeown, president, was elected president. Dr. L. R. Uffelman, vice-president, and Harold Hirsch, secretary-treasurer, of the organization.

Mr. Maurice Martin, retiring president, presided at the meeting.

Discussing the period of transition the Normal is now undergoing, the new president, Mr. McKeown, stated he felt that building up the athletic program would be helpful to the school. Coach Fred Brown out-lined several ideas of the proposed program for promoting the athletics and growth of the school during the coming year. Jack Miller, Dr. P. P. Claxton, and Dean Halbert Harvill were the other speakers on the program.

Sponsor tickets are now being sold by this organization for three dollars each or two for five.

The school also featured a nice broken field run of 20 yards by Rocky Rodeheaver.

After three quarters of punishment, Martin weakened enough to allow the Governors to push over three touchdowns in the final period. Furlow lateraled to Darnell, who swept around right for the first one. The second came as a result of a neat bit of deception. Furlow faked a lateral to Harvey who faked back as if to pass. Available Furlow slipped around right end for the score. The third and final marker was made on a looping pass from Furlow to Toombs. The toss was good for 20 yards. Each time the attempt for the extra point was bad as the game ended 31-0 in favor of the Governors.

Daniel, quarterback for Martin, was the spearhead of their attack, while E. B. Niles, who started for Austin Peay last year, stood out on defense. The entire Normal team looked exceptionally well for the first game.

SPORTS

Rudolph & Rudolph

APNS backers were pleased Friday evening as the Governors of Austin Peay exhibited a brand of football that should give them a most successful season.

After three weeks of practice in the hottest weather of the year and in inches of dust, the Governors found the cool night and sprinkled field extremely pleasing for the first contest.

Many smooth plays were executed as footballers of high college calibre went through their paces on Highland Field.

The Austin Peay backfield is destined to shine throughout the season. Billy Furlow and Rocky Rodeheaver have proved themselves elusive enough in broken field running, while Collin, Baggett, and Harvey have shown the speed and power that will bring many a score.

The passing and punting duties are amply cared for by J. B. Hatfield, Furlow, and Harvey. The Governors also have an excellent punter in Marshall Toombs who may be called back from his end position when needed.

Lee, Blackburn, and Rutledge are good men who have shown their merits and will see much service. Bailey and Jones, the lightweight of the squad, were in action Friday and proved themselves willing and capable.

Toombs and McWhirter, playing end, gave gratifying exhibitions of pass receiving while the men in the center of the line were slugging on defense.

Darnell, Harpen's Spencer, Buchanan and Owenby are impressive at tackle while Thompson, Deal, Killebrew, Anderson, Richardson, Coke, and Gainer furnished good guard material. Jack Price and Joe Spirakis leave little to be asked for at the post. Billy Nole of Russellville played good defensive ball when substituted at end.

We wish to commend Coach Brown on his selection of uniforms. They show class equal to any of four college teams in the country.

For the hardest one-man tackle of the game we choose the one that Rodeheaver unloaded horizontally into a Martin pass receiver. Nice drive, Rocky.

We regret losing "Bullet" Nole from our squad. The Texas boy who broke his ankle showed real promise at the guard position.

Answering many questions as to the Austin Peay Normal's home schedule, Coach Fred Brown said that the Governors would play four more home games, making a total of five this season.

A rumor over town said that the college footballers played their games out of town with the exception of one more, and buying a sponsor ticket would not be worth the money.

This was corrected when Coach Brown issued a statement that the Governors play Western Frosh, Murray Frosh, St. Bernard, and a game with the Freshmen State Teachers for Friday, November 24, is being arranged.

Football players have been selling sponsor tickets over town and the response has not been too good. It was brought out that besides all of the football games remaining this year, the ticket would be good for all basketball games here and baseball games next spring.

If the game with the Murfreesboro State Teachers is arranged, it will mark the first time a four-year school has played the Governors on home soil. The State Teachers, who have a new coach this year, tried to arrange a game here the early part of the campaign, but the locals played in Pensacola on that date.

Since that time Brown has worked on the game on November 24, and there is a good chance that it will be arranged.

The home schedule for the Governors is as follows:

Thursday, October 12, Western Freshmen.

Friday, October 27, St. Bernard.

Thursday, November 18, Murray Frosh.

Friday, November 24, State Teachers.

VESPER NOTES

On Sunday evening, September 10, the traditional vesper services were held in Myra McKay Harned Hall for the purpose of reorganizing.

Dr. F. P. Claxton addressed the students at vespers, Sunday evening, September 17. The central thought of his talk was a plea to students to use their time to the best advantage.

A vesper committee, assisted by Miss Huff, has prepared the Sunday evening programs to last throughout the fall quarter. The committee consists of: Jack Durham, chairman; Mildred Leys, Nettie Davis, Paul Spencer, Bill French, Lila Neal, Virginia Hackney, Frank Cooper, Woodall Taylor, Fred Gupion, Macie Denison, Ruby Blair, Margaret Knott, Bob Buchanan, Edith Smith, Mattie Harris, Dorothy Dorris, Katie Sue Denton, Doris Bates, Marie Jones, Maxine Oakley, Robert McNeister, Earline Lark, William Register, and Georgia Wimberly.

New Rooms To Be Added To Boys' Dormitory

In order to provide the necessary accommodations for the increasing enrollment at Austin Peay Normal School, Dr. P. P. Claxton has announced plans for an addition to Calvin Hall. This addition, at an estimated cost of $4,000, will consist of 12 bed rooms, which will be built onto the west end of Calvin Hall and will accommodate 24 boys.

To raise money for this project, the school has been authorized to issue seven $500 bonds. The first is to be paid off at the expiration of two years and one is to be paid each succeeding year. It is expected that the rent from these rooms will be sufficient to meet the payments when due.

Most of the construction work will be done by the special NYA boys under the supervision of Mr. Walter S. Minor.

Through The Keyhole

Is Buford Ledbetter really interested in the ALL STATE, or is it the people who attend the meetings? We wish he'd make up his mind, don't we, Billie?

What girl from Myra McKay named Hall caused Amanda Ruelle's Cherry to turn sour?

Time tells all! Ever notice how unexperienced, Bill French and Nancy Riley act? They know how it's done, you might give us a hint sometime, you two.

Our advice to Easley, Clark and Robbs. See Miss Lacy. She specializes in the solving of triangles.

This department believer Frank Cooper is sorry this is 1939 and not 1938. Remember what a nice time you were having last year, going around saying, "Meet my girl from Lewisburg."

It's the Law around the Notion Homestead on Friday night, Sat. The eleven were on me.

Harry—"Your father is most unreasonable."

E. Nolon—"Why, dear?" H. L.—"Because he tells me not to lose sight of my object in life—and then he kicks me when I call on you seven nights a week."

Dr. Gilmore—"The examination questions are now in the hands of the typist. Are there any last-minute questions you would like answered?" Class—"Who's doing the mimeographing?"

"That girl is certainly the picture of health."

"Yes, she's mighty well painted."

He—"I heard about a man who lived on onions alone."

She—"Anyone who lives on onions should live alone."

Hatlet—"Today I met a girl who had never been kissed."

Tombs—"I would like to meet her."

Hatley—"You're too late now."
