WINTER QUARTER FINDS MANY NEW STUDENTS AT APNS

ENROLLMENT REPRESENTS MANY COUNTIES OF THE STATE

Opening Monday, January 2, the Winter Quarter at A. P. N. S. began with a slightly smaller enrollment than the high mark set during the Fall Quarter. Most of the students had filled out their cards prior to the holidays and this facilitated registration of "old students." Notwithstanding, approximately fifty were at one time standing in line before the burzar's office. Mr. Russell Spafford, the Biologist department, acted as burzar in the place of Mr. W. J. Gayden, who is seriously ill.

Three hundred and twenty-four students have enrolled. Thirty-nine of these were not here during the Fall Quarter, though some of them had been in attendance at A. P. N. S. previously. Of the total number, one hundred eighty-six are regular students, twenty-three CCC boys, and one hundred fifteen Special N. Y. A. students. Of the incoming group, nineteen are Special N. Y. A., three C. C. C. and eighteen regulars. It is expected that the A. P. N. S. athletics, programs, and scholastic work will be greatly improved by reason of this added talent.

The following new students have registered: N. Y. A.: Dorothy Saloman, Jeanne Bennett, Gladys Goodman, Saele Sinks, Mary L. Perkins, Sybil Duncan, Lillie Terry, Sara Raines, Pearl Piland, Marie Davis, Jewell Ford, Polly Thompson, Ruby Newton, Mabel Jo Crotts, Eula Mae Shipley, Gladys Taylor, Colette Marie, Howard Coe, Robert McNew, C. C. James Zeigler, Holland W. Holt, Aubrey Walker; Regular Students: Mary Elizabeth Welker, Faye Williams, Joe Dunn, Marshall Tombs, Elsie Link Bourne, W. B. Burkhardt, J. Woodall Taylor, H. Smith Keel, J. Marshall Alsobrooks, John E. Dickson, Herbert Rochelle, Irene Robbs, Tarace Pitt, Alline Donelson, Dorothie Morris, J. B. Hatley and D. H. Holt.

Mock Debate Held By Debating Club

DEBATING CLUB PRESENTS HILARIOUS FARCE IN CHAPEL

The chapel program on Friday, Jan. 13, was presented by the debating club, with a mock debate, as their contribution to Student Day programs in chapel.

The question in discussion was, Resolved: That there is more nourishment in the hole of a nut than in the essence of limburger cheese. This topic provided a humorous no-decision debate. The affirmative was upheld by Robert Fort, Ruby Blair, and James Nolan, while the negative was defended by Robert Moffitt, Mary McKee, and Margaret Bruce Baker.

Orvil Moffitt, student chapter leader, served as chairman of this most hilarious and enjoyable program.

APN ORGANIZES DRAMATICS CLASS

31 ENROLLED IN CLASS UNDER DIRECTION OF GUY L. HAGUE

Mr. Guy Lynn Hague has been given the supervision of a class in dramatics, which carries credit for the first time at Austin Peay Normal School. There are 31 students enrolled, and the purpose is to read plays, study the fundamentals of acting, make scenery, and using make-up, and to put on several one-act plays in chapel.

Mr. Hague hopes to have a play ready for presentation early in February.

Text books and several collections of plays have been ordered for the purpose.

It is believed that this class will be an asset to the school in training people for public appearances.

Principal's Home To Be Erected At New Providence School

PROJECT TO BE FINANCED BY STATE, FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS

A movement which was started in 1929 and abandoned during the depression, to erect a residence for the principal of the New Providence Demonstration School, has been revived, and according to current plans, actual construction will begin in the near future. The residence is to be a seven-room structure equipped with modern conveniences, and of architecture conforming to that of the other Demonstration School buildings.

The project is being financed equally by the State and Federal Governments, and plans have been approved by both. Construction will begin as soon as a slight lull in the land title is cleared up. This residence, to be first occupied by Mr. D. Harley Fite, will stand to the west of the Demonstration School driveway. Immediately to the rear of the Baptist parsonage. The land is being donated to the school by Mr. E. M. Walker, now of Clarksville, former resident of New Providence. The landscaping will be done by the teachers of the school.

MALONE TO SPEAK ON GOOD HEALTH

Dr. F. J. Malone, Clarksville health officer, will speak January 25, at 6:30 p. m. to the members of the Durness Club. He will speak on "The Charm of Good Health," and will answer questions about the work of the Health Department in the state and county.

LAW, PRESIDENT OF FRESHMAN CLASS

Harry Law, Jr., has succeeded Dick Bailey as president of the Freshman Class, as the latter has recently accepted a position in the First National Bank. No one has yet been appointed to fill Mr. Law's former position as vice president.

WELSH SINGERS TO APPEAR AT APN

TWO-HOUR PROGRAM TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY EVENING AT 8

Appearing here for the first time, the Welsh Imperial Singers will be heard by the students of the Austin Peay Normal School and music lovers of Clarksville on Friday night, Jan. 18, in the school auditorium.

The Welsh Imperial Singers, under the brilliant leadership of R. Festyn Davies, return to the United States for their third transatlantic tour. The sensational success at the 1938 Toronto Exposition, where they sang five great concertos followed many European triumphs. These singers are acclaimed as one of the world's foremost male ensembles. They first appeared in this country in July, 1930. At this time they thrilled thousands of Rotarians at the Silver Jubilee of the International Rotary at Chicago. In years prior to this, success after success followed these men in Canada. For two years they toured the United States and were applauded by more than 500 audiences.

The singers are led by their noted director, R. Festyn Davies. Mr. Davies believes that the group is better now than at the time of their first appearance in this country. The number has been increased from 14 to 19. Each member is a brilliant soloist who has distinguished himself by winning the Elstisford prize.

Dressed in red coats and buff trousers, the men present a colorful appearance. They will sing approximately sixty-eight songs with solos and duets dispersed throughout the program. The concert will last nearly two hours.

Childs Contributes To Tenn. Teacher

IS FOURTH CONTRIBUTION MADE BY APN FACULTY MEMBERS RECENTLY

Once again a member of the faculty of the Austin Peay Normal School makes a contribution to the Tennessee Teacher. Appearing in the December, 1938, issue, Mrs. Jessye H. Childs writes on "Our Own Community." This makes the fourth article contributed to the official educational organ in recent months by a member of the College faculty.

Mrs. Childs, who is teacher of the first and second grades in the New Providence Training School, discusses in her article how the Training School has tied into the life of the community. In 1931 when the school was established, she says that the community was slow to respond to an attempt by the school to sponsor community activities. She traces the gradual disappearance of this attitude until the time when the Practice School or the Training School becomes the center of the community. She has around which the activities of the community move.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS SCHEDULED FOR WINTER QUARTER

LECTURES AND DRAMATICS TO GIVE EDUCATIONAL ENTERTAINMENT

Chapel presentations for the winter quarter promise good entertainment for the student body, besides the two interesting Student Day programs on January 6 and 13, when the Old Fellows Home Band and the Debating Club demonstrated their talents. The future holds the following in store:

Jan. 20—The C. C. C. boys are showing, in dramatic form, the many functions of their organization.

Jan. 25—Miss Martha Buchanan will speak on "Franklin D. Roosevelt." This is the first of a series of talks to be made by members of the faculty during the winter quarter.

Jan. 27—The Dramatic Club will give a play.

Jan. 30—Dr. Claxton will speak on "What Taxes Are For."

Feb. 3—The choir will present a program.

Feb. 8—Mr. John B. Bond will lecture on the subject of one's Glimpse into Nature's Wonders.

Feb. 10—Miss Virginia Keen and Mr. Guy L. Hague will sponsor a minstrel show which promises to be one of the hits of the season.

Feb. 17—Mr. Harry L. Law will sponsor a "Professor Quigley Quiz."

Other programs are in prospect, but are not definitely decided on. As usual, Mondays will be taken by Prominent Claxtons, and Wednesdays will be used, for the most part, for group singing.

The following students have been chosen to read the Bible in chapel for the remainder of the winter quarter: January 20, Virginia Hackney; 23, Billy Wall; 25, Ruby Taylor; 27, Charles Rudolph; 30, Yvonne Easley; February 1, Lewis Dickson; 3, Thelma Sullivan; 6, Tom Hudson; 8, Marjorie Barker; 10, Harry Council; 13, Katherine Shelby; 15, Owen Hodges; 17, Macie Drans; 20, Huelin Porter; 22, Sara Walton; 24, Willard Blue; 27, Dorothy Smith; March 1, Jack Durham; 3, Margaret Knott; 6, William Register; 8, Wilma Gilliam; 10, Kenneth Nance; 13, Lila Neal; 15, Bob Bailey; 17, Brownie Coble.

GILMORE TO SERVE FOR ILL GAYDEN

EX-S T A T E COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION RESUMED DUTIES TUESDAY

Halbert Harvill, former Commissioner of Education for four months under retiring Governor Gordon Browning, returned to the college yesterday to resume his old duties as Dean of the School. Mr. Harvill was granted a leave of absence in September by the State Board of Education. Charles H. Gilmore, who served as Dean in the absence of Mr. Harvill, will take over the duties of Bursar and instructor in mathematics during the absence of Mr. W. J. Gayden, who is seriously ill.

The All State salutes the retiring Commissioner for having won the esteem of members of the faculty and the affection of the students. The All State salutes the retiring Commissioner for creditable performance of duties during a trying time in which he required the high regard of educational leaders all over the state, and salutes the incoming Dean as one who has long held the respect of the members of the faculty and the abiding affection of successive student bodies. In his retirement from the state as a whole will lose what the Austin Peay Normal School will gain.

NYA BOYS FINISH SCHOOL PROJECTS

LANDSCAPING, ELECTRICAL WORK SUPERVISED BY MINOR AND ROAKE

Under the direction of Mr. W. S. Minor, the N. Y. A. boys have made many necessary electrical repairs. New light fixtures have been installed in the Castle Building, Stewart Building, Robb Hall, Calvin Hall, and the Gymnasium.

The N. Y. A. boys have also been working on the improvement of the school grounds. They have increased the beauty of the campus by planting thirty-two white oak and pecan trees and forty-eight rose bushes and replanting several shrubs. This work was done under the supervision of Mr. Herbert Roake.

Stage Improvements

It seems that A. P. N. is starting on a new project with the cart before the horse. A class in dramatics has recently been organized, but there are no adequate stage facilities for the members to demonstrate the talent they have or may develop. By the above statement we do not mean to cast reflection on the organizers of the dramatics class, but rather, we wish to emphasize the dire need for stage equipment in the APN auditorium.

With all the rejuvenation and institution of new projects going on about the campus, it seems that in some way at least a small amount of stage equipment could be squeezed in somewhere.

One of the outstanding present deficiencies of the stage is its shortness. By widening the stage and putting up a main curtain and a drop curtain, or some simple scenery to hide those unsightly windows at the rear the auditorium could be classed as a real asset to the school.

WINTER MINSTRELS

Never will come a time for us to have the opportunity to become acquainted with some of our wild musicians—those minstrels of the woodland and the meadow, those songsters whose very cadences pierce of God.

How familiar is the high pichery of the mockingbird, that deceitful mimic who so delights to plague his more modest neighbors with his brazen mockery! He bounces and he marches himself upon the highest pinnacle of the highest temple within his domain and how gracefully he belittles the daring exploits of the man on the high trapeze. And now he hark the twitter of the junco, the chirp of the flycatcher, the high trill of the warbler, the tranceling rasping of jays, and the beloved song of the cardinal. How often the smaller members of fowlkind hear the delightful wailing voices of their mates, and upon investigation—well, just score another for our state bird, that mirth-loving singer of the farmyard, that minstrel who can chide his sorrowful, delight the mirthful, and who himself never allows his buoyancy to abate.

More likely to be discovered in droves than singly, and more prominent about farmsteads than city homes, is the jolly black-capped chickadee. He, too, in his own jaunty way, is a pleasing acrobat. He is more friendly in winter than in summer, and loves to cling to the lower side of a limb while securing therefrom his luscious repast of insect eggs and larvae. He is sure-footed as the peevish housefly, and his "chickadee-dee," called cheerfully from a barren maple limb near the front window is sure to delight even the fault-finding pessimist. And don't forget, the more dismal the day, the more ecstatic he becomes. He is very small, so look closely.

And the cardinal! Adorned in all his emblazoned summer glory, he must take heed how he exposes himself these winter months. One careless flight in the open without a pre-survivor of his surroundings and a giant hawk will swoop gracefully from out the azure above—and Mr. Cardinal is no more. But he is here though more often heard than seen, and occasionally will cast all vigilance to the winds and venture forth to proclaim abroad that he is happy and content.

The sharp, sweet cry of the meadow lark is also a January treat, and somewhat less musical but nevertheless a bearer of good cheer are the chirping notes of the flicker, or yellowhammer, wren, and our faithful robin redbreast. To some it is not worthy of mention, but there are no colder, freer tones than the reverberating drumming of a woodpecker on a clear, cold day. And if you are near a clump of cedars, don't forget to listen for the inconspicuous twittering of the glossy waxwings. Remember, they are so quiet that if you chance to hear one there are probably a hundred near.

Our feathered friends act almost solely upon instinct and in warm weather prevails, we pray have numerous visitors stopping by on their long northward flight—but strangers are often "angels" in disguise.

SPORTS

BY GEORGE FORT

WILL APNS DEFEND?

There is a possibility that the Austin Peay cage team will be present at the 1939 Southeastern Conference of Junior Colleges Basketball tournament to defend the championship won by last year's crack combine.

It is not that the team this season isn't capable of making a good showing, for, if there is any difference in the outfits of the present and a year ago, the edge belongs to the more recent edition. The disturbing factor is that the tourney will probably be held at some point too far distant for the Governors to participate.

This situation does not exist due to some fault of the officials as carefully selecting some point nearly equidistant from all schools in the conference, but due to the fact that the financing of the annual cage tournament constitutes a major problem. So, consequently the bids for the tourney are in excess, and the competition must be held where the proper facilities are available and the institution is willing to take the responsibility for the tournament and all the duties in connection with it.

Last year, there is no doubt but that the Chattanooga Times and the University of Chattanooga lost money, for the attendance at all time was poor and nothing near to a full house existed for the final engagement. It is unlikely that that city would request the affair again this year, and the site will possibly be held some distance south of Atlanta, which lets Austin Peay out.

If the 1939 tournament could be held within 200 miles of Clarksville, the APNS boys would most likely be there trying to make it two straight. However, at present, it appears that the cage meet will be awarded to a city out of reach for the basketball Governors. This is a very unfortunate circumstance, but one which the school officials have no power to alter.

OPPOSE EX-GOVERNORS

If Coach Brown's plans go through, A. P. N. S. basketballers will oppose three of the four boys who graduated from lasting positions on last year's squad. There seems to be some difficulty in arranging a schedule this season, but there are contests in prospect which would bring a trio of former Governors upon the Austin Peay team.

The boys in concern are Andrew Lorenson, Coyle Branson, and Doyle Branson. Lorenson is doing his goal-shooting for Centre College, while the Branson twins hold down guard positions at S. T. C. Each of these schools has been sent requests for games, and there is a possibility that these trays will be arranged. It might be a good opportunity to prove or disprove the talk about this year's quint being an improvement over last year's champs. At least, it would be interesting to see some of the boys playing against their teammates of a year ago.

TRACK SETUP

The recent spring-like weather turned out to be a studied interest to the sports of that season, which they know will take place at Austin Peay as usual. But there is also a good deal of looking forward to an addition to the 1939 program—track.

The almost-forgotten and neglected quarter-mile track around the athletic field will come into its own this spring. Work being done on the cinder path includes resurfacing and widening. When completed the new surface will be of sufficient width to permit four lanes to be marked off, and first-class track will be the property of A. P. N. S.

To accompany the boys in school who will help make the sport a success. Outstanding among those presented are Tommy Denton and "Bayler's Bib" Bailey, Athl. distance men; "Beowulf" Blackburn and "Rocky" Kedgehever for the shorter sprints. There also are probably many others of unknown or unannounced ability along this line that are anxious to dig their spikes into the cinders when the time comes and do their share toward forming a competent squad.

Let's hope that this endeavor to establish a track team at Austin Peay will be a highly successful undertaking.

CAGE COMBAT TO BE STAGED IN CHS GYM

GOVERNORS PLAY TWO IN PENSACOLA, FLORIDA, JAN. 27-28

The Austin Peay Governors will make their third appearance on local hardwood floors tonight in a basketball battle against the Murray Freshmen in the Clarksville High School gym at 8 o'clock.

In encountering the Murray combine, the boys of A. P. N. S. risk their average of 500, and the outlook for rating it is not at all good. In fact, the cagers from Kentucky make up an excellent group of basketballers and are regarded as one of the outstanding fresh aggregations in their state.

AUSTIN PEAY FIVE PACED BY HUNTER IN DECISIVE WIN

In a sterling last-half performance, the A. P. N. S. hardwood forces swamped the U. T. Junior Vols at the C. H. S. gym on January 15 to the tune of 38 to 18 as they gained their first victory of the current campaign.

Turning in the visiting quint at the mid-point, 20 to 18, the Governors returned to the scene of action and immediately took charge of matters, racking up a total of 20 points while holding the hapless Vols to a mere 6 during the two remaining periods.

Hunter ripped the mesh for an even dozen to lead the A. P. N. S. attack with Law close behind with 19 points, and McNeil matched Law's contribution to take top honors for the vanquished.

As a preliminary fray, the Jakes and the C. C. students will tangle in an Intra-Mural League game at 7 o'clock.

Next Week

Next week the Governors invade foreign soil for three cage conflicts. On Tuesday, they travel to Lebanon to meet Cumberland University, and then tour to Pensacola, Florida, for a pair of cage tilts with the U. S. N. Air Base on Friday and Saturday evenings. The latter undertaking involves the longest journey ever made by APNS letters.

WESTERN FRESHMEN THUMP GOVERNORS

APNS CAGERS RAIGED IN CRUSHING 38 TO 18 DEFEAT

On Monday, January 18, the Austin Peay quint fell before the Western Kentucky Freshmen's onslaught on the basket by the score of 38 to 18 in a hard word encounter played in Bowling Green.

Turning in only a mediocre exhibition, the Governor sharpshooters were completely outclassed by the crack Hilltopper frosh combine as the latter engineered their decisive 12-point triumph.

Vanderbilt Defeats Austin Peay Quinl

APNS DROPS INAGURAL
CAGE TILT IN CHS GYM,
45 TO 35

The Austin Peay Normal School cagers for the second successive year opened their season with the Vanderbilt five and again suffered defeat. The contest staged in the Clarksville High School gym on January 2 saw the Commodore emerge victors by a 45-35 score before a large crowd.

The Governors piled up an early advantage, but the N.A.S.ville combine surmounted this lead to hold the edge at half-time, 18 to 16. During the final period, A. P. N. S. succeeded in knotting the numerals after trailing throughout the third chapter, but the Vandy quint hastily pulled away with a late spurt for the victory which might have been the Governors' but for the failure to connect for only 3 of 17 free tosses.

Law and Toombs topped the homeing's efforts with 11 points each, while Lipscomb championed Vandy's cause with a total of 16.

Through The Keyhole

Rye says the new girls are pretty, but still he likes Wilma the best.

So Sharber has stepped out on us. We thought he'd get over his bashfulness.

We wonder why Mary Lena Brents has adopted "Sweet Fern" as a theme song.

Callum seems to be getting along all right without Helen Ruth. Carolyn Wesson is the new girl in his life.

A newcoer has completely captured the heart of Bobby Dowden. Dorothy Dorris has made quite a kill.

It's certainly hard on Mike with Margaret Baker constantly getting himself campused.

Harry Council says, "Just let me give one big cheer for Bernice Randolph."

Mildred has grown awfully fond of Peter Rabbit since Frank was rechristened.

Seen at the game Wednesday night: Dimpley Webb and M. J. Law, Dorothy Wilson and Whitney Watson, Harold Perdue and Ruby Abernathy, Juanita Holt and Billy Rubel (he escaped at the half), Maxey Wallace and Frances Ross, and Mary Derrington appearing a little late with Roland Dougherty.
