Architectural Notes Savage dog foaming at mouth
