At a dinner meeting held in the college cafeteria, Thursday, February 28, officers of a Montgomery County unit of the Austin Peay State College Alumni Association were elected, and members of town and county committees were selected for soliciting money for a student loan fund now being raised. Trustees to administer the loan fund were also announced.

The trustees named on the charter which has been executed include Joseph Bollin, Judge A. B. Broadbent, R. A. Walker, John H. Morefield and the president of Austin Peay, the college bursar, and the president of the Alumni Association. At present, these are Dr. P. P. Claxton, R. C. Shasteen and Judge N. A. Link of Dover, respectively.

The officers for the Montgomery County Association are M. C. Northington, Jr., president; Miss Vera Broome, vice president; Mrs. Mary McReynolds, secretary, and James Mann, treasurer.

The organization was formed after a dinner served in the cafeteria with Judge Link as toastmaster. (Continued on Page 4)

3 Students Chosen During Brotherhood Week For Awards

In connection with American Brotherhood Week, which was held February 17-24, the students of Austin Peay elected three students who best exemplify the spirit of brotherhood. The three chosen were Floyd Blankenship, senior; Garvin Edison Burke, sophomore; and Volvie William Nicholson, senior. In assembly on March 4, Dr. Claxton presented to them their certificates.

American Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, was carried out in schools and other organizations throughout the country. Endorsed by President Truman, it was an effort to unite all the peoples to live in harmony and through teamwork to prepare a better world not only for the present, but also for the future generations.

New Method of Electing Officers Is Adopted And Used By Student Council

Recently the Student Council, with the approval of the classes, passed a measure which designates the way that Student Council officers for the school year 1946-47 will be elected this spring. This measure sets forth a method of election that is almost identical with the one used in state and county elections.

Candidates for the coming primary election on March 19 are as follows: President, Walter Powers, H. J. Marshall, William Hines and James Woolcott; vice president, Brause Corbett and Bobo Lee; clerk, secretary, treasurer, Jo Hunter, Margaret Wilson and Peggy Fanning.

Requirements for becoming a candidate are that a person has to be endorsed by fifty people enrolled in the school, has to present a campaign speech setting forth his platform in front of the student body, and has to have a C average for the preceding quarter. Campaign speeches were presented in chapel on Wednesday,

Registration For Spring Quarter Is Over Two Hundred

Registration for the spring quarter at Austin Peay State College exceeds that of the winter quarter according to information received today. Total enrollment is 229. Of this number 30 are registered for Saturday classes.

With the registration of discharged veterans for the vocational agricultural course which opened last week the total enrollment is expected to increase considerably. All courses for the spring quarter will be held on the campus. The off-campus classes have been discontinued. President P. P. Claxton has announced.

Fifty new Old students registered for the new quarter, bringing the number of World War II veterans at the college to 79 for regular academic work. Of this number thirty-one are from Montgomery County. They are Frazier Adkins, Clay Clayland, William Perry Fisher, Floyd Bullock Ford, James M. Langford, Thomas Bates Moore, Jr., Lawrence P. Marshall, Marvin Monroe Proctor, Louis Monroe Smith and John Lawrence Sullivan, William

Prof. Layton Joins A. P. S. C. Faculty; To Teach Math

All State welcomes to our campus Mr. W. L. Layton and hopes that they will soon feel at home at the college. Professor Layton will be professor of mathematics, succeeding Miss Margaret Lacy, who is on leave of absence. Professor Layton comes from Amarillo Junior College at Amarillo, Texas, where he has served as head of the department of mathematics for five years. Receiving both the B. S. and M. A. degrees at the University of South Carolina, he has done work in his Ph. D. at Duke University, University of Chicago, and Peabody College, where he has completed all requirements for the Ph. D. degree except the writing of his dissertation.

Students enrolled in Professor Layton's classes, among which are many returned veterans, give enthusiastic reports of his teaching. This spring and summer he will offer courses not only in pure mathematics but in the methods of teaching mathematics in the elementary grades and in high school, the which he is particularly interested.

March 13.

Candidates names and endorsements had to be turned in to the election commission chairman by March 7. The eligibility for candidacy of each person was passed on by the election commission, made up of Johnnie Givens, president of Student Council, Edison Burke, chairman, and Floyd Blankenship, senior representative.

To assist in the primary election are the judges, judges, and a sergeant-at-arms. The clerks are Margaret Kerr, Marvin Reed, Orvis Wyal, and Mary Thayer.

The following are to be judges: Mary Lowe Dickson, Jack Nicholson, John Outland, and Mary Wilson.

Serving as sergeant-at-arms will be the judges, judges, and a sergeant-at-arms.

If any candidate receives a majority of votes in the primary election, he will automatically be elected to the office. If not, the votes for each office will be on the ballot of the general election to be held March 28.

Dr. D. H. Fite Resigns Position At A. P. S. C. To Work With TVA Education Program

Students and faculty regret to know that Dr. D. H. Fite, associate dean and director of teacher training, resigned his position at the college on March 19 to become associated with the Tennessee Valley Authority as a chief education officer. Dr. Fite has done valuable work for the college, first as principal of the New Providence training school and later as professor of education, director of teacher training and, during the war years, as associate dean. Students will miss him as friend and counselor, and the college as a whole will miss his aggressive leadership in the fields of elementary education and extra-curricular activities.

Dr. Fite's headquarters will be at Wilson Dam, Alabama, and his work will be in the central area of TVA, which includes Middle Tennessee, western Alabama, eastern Mississippi, and the most southern counties of west Tennessee.

Dr. Fite came to Austin Peay State College in 1931 from Memphis University School, where he had been head of the social science department. Prior to his work in Memphis he had been principal of rural schools in Middle Tennessee. Dr. Fite's first position with Austin Peay State College was that of principal of the training school located in New Providence. He held this position for eight years.

WORK PRAISED

Dr. Fite's fitness for the work of principal of the school was indicated to me by his personality, his intimate knowledge of country life and the fact that he had his master's degree from Peabody College in agricultural education," Dr. Claxton said. "His work for the Ph. D. degree at Peabody gave him a more fundamental understanding of rural life and economy, of which he has made good use in the college.

"His work at the college has been unusually helpful in many ways beyond his classroom work, especially in working out the campus and off campus, and in various forms of (Continued on Page 2)

Mrs. Gorsuch Is New Matron At Myra Harned Hall

Mrs. J. E. Gorsuch, the new matron and social director, took over her duties February 21. "Miss S. S. as she is called by the girls came to Clarksville from St. Petersburg, Florida, where she has been spending the winter. Mrs. Gorsuch's home address is Crockett Mills, Tennessee. The new matron has served as assistant matron at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma, where she received her B. S. degree in speech and dramatic art. She has taught dramatic art at Milligan College, and recently was matron of a dormitory connected with the ordinance plant at Milligan.

All State welcomes Mrs. Gorsuch, whose attractive personality and cultured manner is bound to win friends and influence people.

Miss Margaret Lacy On Leave of Absence

Students and faculty regret that Miss Margaret Lacy, professor of mathematics, has been forced, because of illness in her home, to take a leave of absence during the spring and summer quarters. Miss Lacy has been with the college since the beginning in 1929, and made many friends among the hundreds of students that she has taught through the years. Her course in the teaching of arithmetic in the elementary grades have helped many teachers to do better teaching.

Bradley and Ladd Give Chapel Recital

Students and faculty were entertained in assembly Wednesday, February 27, by a musical program furnished by two seniors from the Clarksville High School: Miss Dorothy Bradley and Mr. Garnett Ladd, Jr., who sang a number of classical and semi-classical selections.

Miss Bradley sang the "Lord's Prayer," "In Albert," "Malotte," "The Cry of Rachel," by Mary Turner Salter, Mr. Ladd sang "A Prayer," by Roger and Noves; "My Love Came as a Flower," "Life," by Pearl Kern. They were accompanied on the piano by Professor Guy Lynn Hauge, who also announced the selections.

Open House Given By The Council In New Student Room

A reception celebrating the opening of the new Student Room was given by the Council on March 4. The students arrived at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and from seven to nine that night. Approximately a hundred guests, many of whom were donors to the Student Activity Fund, attended the well planned affair, and all were favorably impressed with the great improvement in the installation of the Student Room made on campus life.

The reception committee, consisting of Miss Johnny Givens, president of Student Council; Professor R. C. Shasteen, council advisor; Walter Powers, vice president of Council; Mr. and Mrs. James Stagers and John Outland formed the receiving line.

Mrs. Sarah Linehan, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Christine Price served punch at a long table decorated with a lovely arrangement of spring flowers.

The students arranged this open house to show their appreciation to those responsible for making possible the creation of a Student Room.

Mr. Hamilton To Teach New Agricultural Course Offered To Veterans

On Wednesday, March 8, the first unit of veterans enrolled for the vocational agriculture course under the direction of Mr. J. V. Hamilton of Union City. The unit is limited to twenty students, all of whom live on their farms and who will receive group instruction at the college and specialized instruction on individual agricultural projects. Enrollees will have their instruction paid by the government and will receive in addition $63 a month if single and $90 if married, and all profits of farm operation will belong to them. Instruction for each veteran may continue for one year and for as many as three years. If the veteran was in military service.

Mr. Hamilton is a graduate of the College of Agriculture, University of Tennessee, and has been employed as Farm Security Administration Supervisor in Sumner County.

"Unfortunately business pays such a man more than school budgets make possible. Dr. Fite goes to TVA for a salary considerably more than he is paid at the college. He goes with the best wishes of the administration, faculty and students of the college, which he has served so well."

In 1938, Dr. Fite relinquished his duties as principal of the training school and became director of teacher training and professor of education at the college. In 1942 he was made co-dean and director of teacher training.

WAS AT PEABODY

He has been on the Peabody College faculty two summers as instructor in education.

Dr. Fite goes with the Tennessee Valley Authority with a broad experience in working with college and teacher groups, having had much experience in workshop programs, reading clinics, curriculum conference, farm foundation conference and several regional conferences on rural education.

Dr. Fite is a member of the following organizations: The American Academy of Political and Social Science, National Education Association, Rural Education Association, American Association of School Administrators, Tennessee Education, Tennessee Public School Officers Association, Philomathic Society, the Chamber of Commerce, the Civitan Club, and the First Baptist Church, where he is superintendent of the Sunday School and a member of the board of deacons.

Local Educators Discuss Student Failure Problem

High school principals, teachers, state department and college officials devoted three hours recently to discussing the problem of student failure in high school at a meeting of the High School Principals' organization held at the Austin Peay State College cafeteria, following a dinner served there. W. A. Shannon, president of the group presided.

Earl Sexton, principal of Dover High School, opened the program by presenting causes of failures which he had collected by making a study of reports made on surveys and research work that have been done in various sections of the country. He named thirteen principal causes that have been advanced. Absences from school headed the list. Eight others given in order were lack of ability to do the required work, laziness, incomplete daily lesson preparation, lack of concentration, outside activities, lack of proper educational and social background, and because the school program was too heavy. Taking these topics as the basis for informal discussion, administrators at the meeting sought some conclusions as to how failures may be avoided.

INDIVIDUAL TRAINING

The discussion pointed towards the need for individualized training for students so that each could progress on his own level and be graded according to his improvement and growth during a given period of time, it was pointed out. This is not quite possible under the present school system, the administrators agreed.

High school principals' groups over the state are making studies of problems that teachers and administrators face. H. G. Kirksey, associate high school supervisor, told the group. He suggested that those present make some studies to be brought to the next meeting. The group decided to study the topics discussed during the evening's program and to bring conclusions reached to the next meeting which will be called some time after the next school year begins. The school administrators voted to continue to meet to study high school problems. They will elect officers for the coming year when

Beta Club Wins S. C. U. Stunt Night

The Beta Club was awarded first prize and the junior class second place in the "stunt night" program held here in the auditorium of Austin Peay State College, Tuesday night, February 28, under the direction of the Student Christian Union.

The Beta Club's stunt, judged the best of the group, was a musical burlesque with Dorothy Moffitt as a solid singer on the drums directing the colorful orchestra. Eleanor Choate's torch singing and the swoon-crooning of Everett Katherine Givens left nothing to be desired.

Running a close second was the court scene presented by the juniors with Sam Mellon and Evans Harvill as a couple of hams. If we ever saw any, and Dorothy Roach and Betty Gilbert taking part in the stunt.

Altogether there were twelve stunts presented by the different classes and clubs, most of which were original. Among the others were hospital scenes, comedies, Negro skits, a tumbling act, a barber shop quartet, and some delirious corny melodramas. Misses Dorothy Barfield, Ora B. Walker and Lou Owen acted as judges.

Mr. Harry L. Law, sponsor of the S. C. U., presided and presented the prize. He was assisted by Floyd Blankenship, president of the Union, and Helen Hill, chairman of the program committee.

Proceeds of the ticket sale will go to the Student Christian Union fund for the annual drive by the organization.

Stunt night was a complete success with the participants and audience alike enjoying themselves immensely.

Much hidden talent was brought into the spotlight and we look forward to seeing them in action again.

They come together the next time. The Girls Choir of the College rendered three vocal selections at the opening of the session under the direction of Guy Lynn Hague, the college music director.

Governors Wind Up Basketball Season

On February 11, the tall boys from Mt. Vernon waved over the Austin Peay Governors to the tune of 46-33. The Governors led at the end of the half. The Teachers began to put on the pressure in their free scoring in the third period. All five of their boys scored four or six points each, making a total of 23 points. The Teachers led 39-21. Powers with 14 points was best for the Governors while Frazier, with 12 points was best for the Teachers.

Feb. 18 the Governors played host to the 46th Chemical Mortar Battalion which walloped them 63-39 on the Clarksville hardwood. In this game all the men on the sick and injured list were back in the starting line up. Shelton led the soldiers with 23 points. Powers and Miller were best for the Governors.

On February 25, the Governors lost a game worth talking about. They lost this extra period game to the 2nd Infantry of Camp Campbell. The final score was 36-35. At the end of the last quarter the score was 23-33. In the three-minute play-off the Governors scored only 2 points and the soldiers scored 5. Miller, Rye, and Melton stood out for Austin Peay. Phares and Allen were sharpshooters for the soldiers. Recotti and Allen, were called the "defense bulwarks."

March 1, the Governors lost again to the 8th Chemical Mortar Battalion with a score of 51-41. This ended the basketball season for the Governors and we are very proud of their ever-fighting spirit and hope to have a winning team next year.

Athletic Program To Be Reorganized By Coach Aaron

Building up an athletic program from the bottom, where it had been forced by the war years, Coach Aaron is busy with many things these days. There are the regular physical education classes for men to reorganize, the setting up of classes in sports, the visiting of high schools and enlisting the interest of football prospects, getting the athletic field in condition, and organizing a new Sponsors' Organization.

Plans are going forward to enlist the interest and participation of all the student in some form of the physical education program. There is talk of changing the two-year requirement in physical education to four-years. Spring football practice will begin soon. Some have expressed an interest in having a baseball team, but Coach Aaron thinks that equipment could not be obtained in time for training an inter-collegiate team. A "pick-up team" is, however, highly probable. If the track is completed in time, there will be an opportunity for those who are interested to come out for track and field events. Plans are being made for volleyball courts and more tennis courts.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY

In explaining the purpose of the loan fund, Judge Link said investment in people is better than investment in real estate, or anything else. He said the Alumni Association is sponsoring the loan fund but all friends of the institution are urged to contribute. The minimum gift is $5 and the maximum is as high as one wants to go. He announced that the drive was launched in Stewart County, where more than $1,300 was raised.

Dr. Claxton recalled that approximately 1,200 students from Montgomery County have attended the college, though some have since moved away. The school has done a great work, he said, and he predicted a bright future for it. In the past many students have sought financial aid in completing their work at the college and the institution long has needed such a student loan fund, he said.

The fund will make it possible for a student to borrow from the future to enrich himself, he explained, and to enable that student to earn more than he or she could otherwise earn.

Prof. Felix G. Woodard recalled that a student loan fund has been discussed for at least three years, but said Judge Link as president of the Alumni Association, got the machinery started. He read the charter authorizing the fund and listing the trustees who will safeguard and administer it.

Others who made short talks were R. A. Walker, John H. Moorefield, and Stanley Crow.

Membership committees for both city and county were named and include:

City: Evelyn Randle and John Power, co-chairmen; Verda Broome, Harry Law, Jr., Nettie Davis, Virginia Pace, Berkeley Clark, Maurice Crow, Charlie Crow, Katherine Smith, Verda Williams, Richard Perkins and Mrs. William Hambsch.

County: Elsie Hayes and Mrs. Aubrey Broome, co-chairmen; Mrs. Manie Lewis, Margaret Anderson, Charlotte Oliver, Mrs. Theo Johnson, Christine Harris, Mrs. Emile Marable, Mrs. Herman Baggett, Julia Mason, Doby Barlow, Wilmut Dowlen, Mrs. Porter Powell, Christine Pardue, Lucile Meek and Ova Pace Warden.

young man with a nice car. Any girls interested?

There are quite a few new ex-GIs on the campus. You girls will have to do your own investigations, but we know Hollingsworth is unattracted.

Walt Powers, Calvin Hall Romeo, is still trying to remember the name of his date for the last basketball game.

There should be better singing in chapel since the boys are doing a lot of serenading at night for practice.

Bruce says there's no flies on him, but he can't say the same
about the punch.
