Leaving home; how to describe it. To some of us it's freedom, it's running away and throwing the apron strings to the wind. To others, it's walking out and closing the door on a warmth you'll never know again. But no matter what it is to whom, you've left and you're on your own.

Arriving at a new environment, of Austin Peay State University, one must learn to find himself again. You must pick up the building blocks and start on a whole new person, trying to find a place, an identity that is totally you.

When you first arrive you're self-conscious of being yourself. You feel you must behave as the group behaves. You laugh when the group laughs, you sing, you dance, you clap your hands, but only when the person next to you dictates the mood. And occasionally, on those rare moments, you feel confident enough to do as you darn well please.

Confidence means believing in yourself, that's the key word. With confidence you march out in front of thousands of people and show them that you can perform. You behave as a group and occasionally it's just you out there making the score or doing it solo.

Confidence is also the key to speaking up and expressing your own ideas no matter how contradictory they may be. Confidence is standing up and waving your own flag.

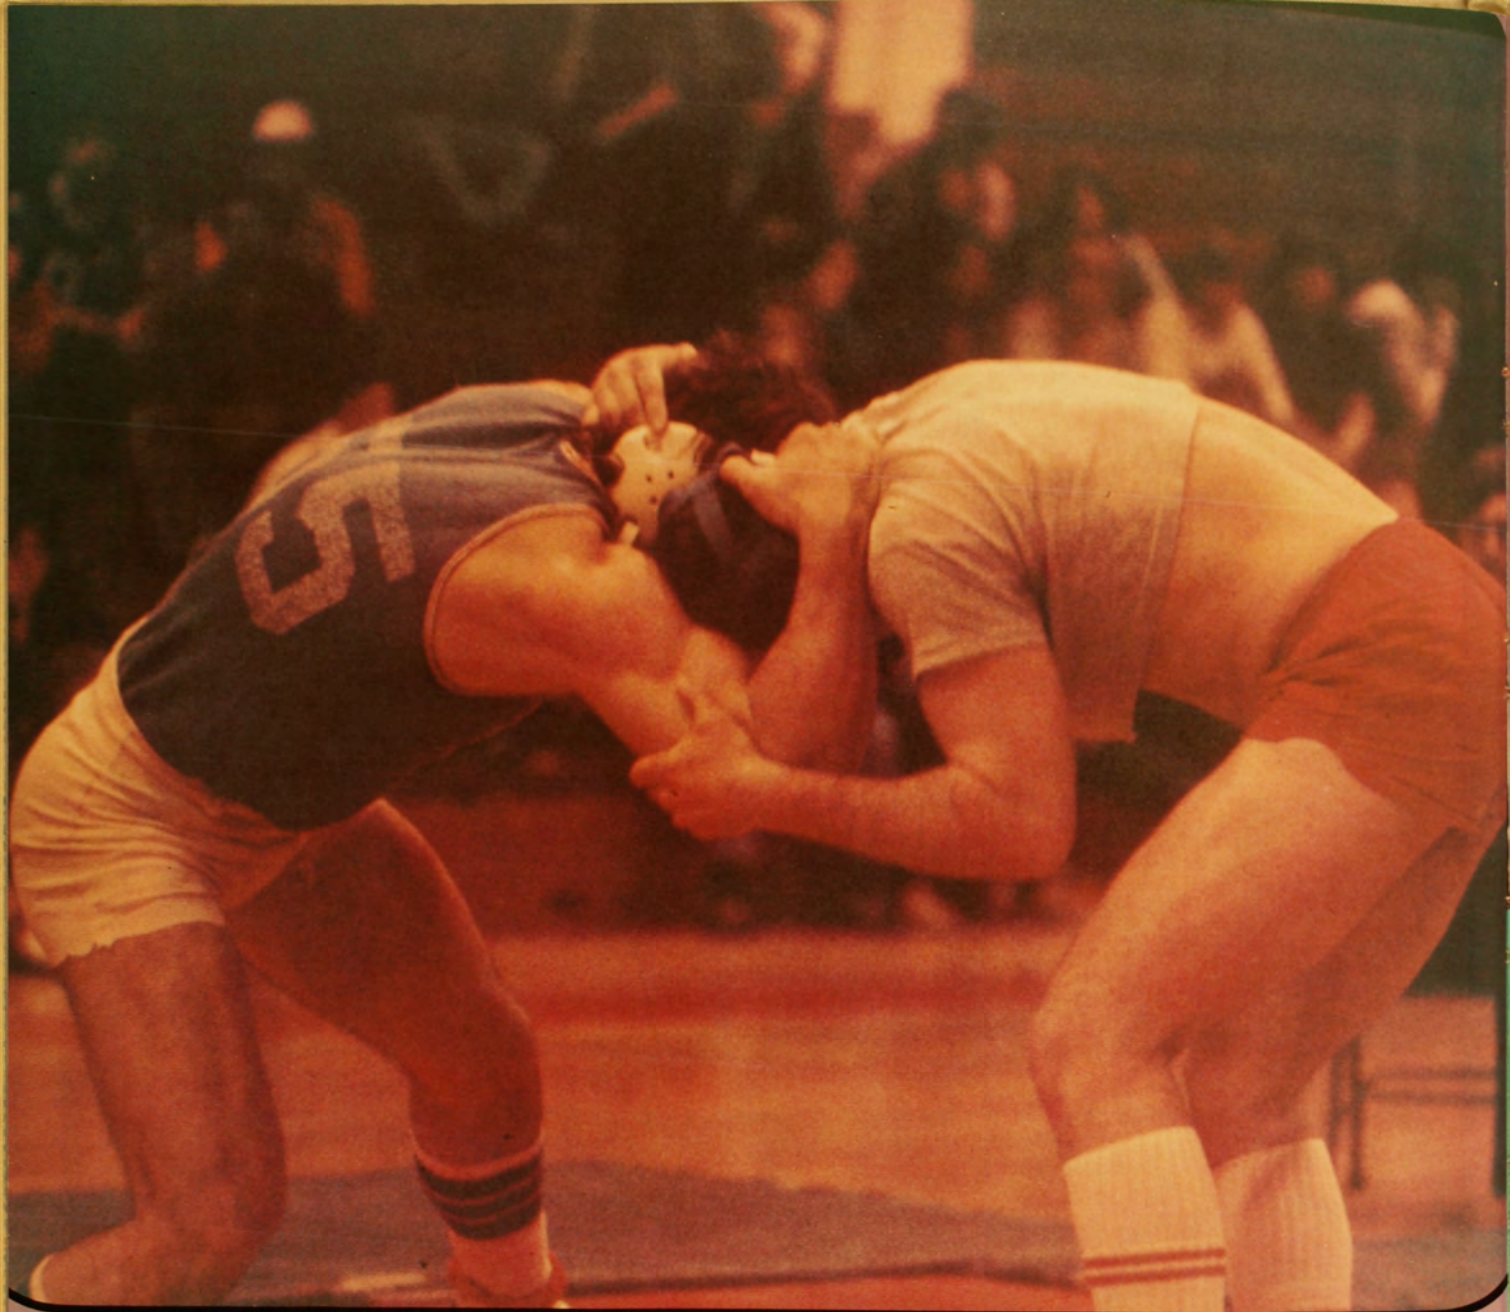

Desire is the word that brings dreams to reality. One desires to become a star basketball player, or a dancer, or a derby-day winner, so you get out and try. You willingly get up early to be the first to tee off, or to study and make that passing grade, or you sit in the front of a VW just because you desire to get a glimpse of a homecoming float. Desire has made giants out of midgets, but to finally get what you desire you must first have that willingness to try.

Talent, that thing that you either have or you don't have, is a must for any APSU student. Talent means running your bottom off to make the team and still being able to play your instrument like a pro at Carneige Hall. Talent is being able to smile, march in a straight line and yet being able to hold on to that little rubber-tipped stick. Studying while the rest of the world goes singing by takes as much talent as having the knack of knocking a friend off a greased pole. Talent also encompasses the way some people have with others. Your talents may not always be glorious, but never are they dull, unless you have the talent for being dull.

Success can be simply phrased as winning; and to be successful in anything you must first learn to smile and laugh in all situations. To take things in your stride, without ever giving up that desire to win is all important.

Success is a driving force, whether in sports or in communicating with others. It's driving yourself on and on just to be a winner — just to be successful.

Success is putting first that thing in which you want to be successful, yet never losing contact with the other things around you and realizing 10 they're important too.

Life is a big struggle in which you sometimes fail but you never quit. Life for some is simply the occupation of being a spectator for others it's going out and jumping over each hurdle as it comes. Sometimes life is full of those who prefer to sit and let the world glide peacefully by. But no matter what life is to whom, it takes a little bit of confidence, a measure of talent, and a lot of desire and willingness to be successful at APSU.

"For this is the journey that men make to find themselves. If they fail in this, it doesn't matter much else what they find."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY USA

The theme for the 1975 homecoming was "Happy Birthday U.S.A.", which fit in perfect with the misty-foglike weather of the day, since our early forefathers came from the country of the endless fog.

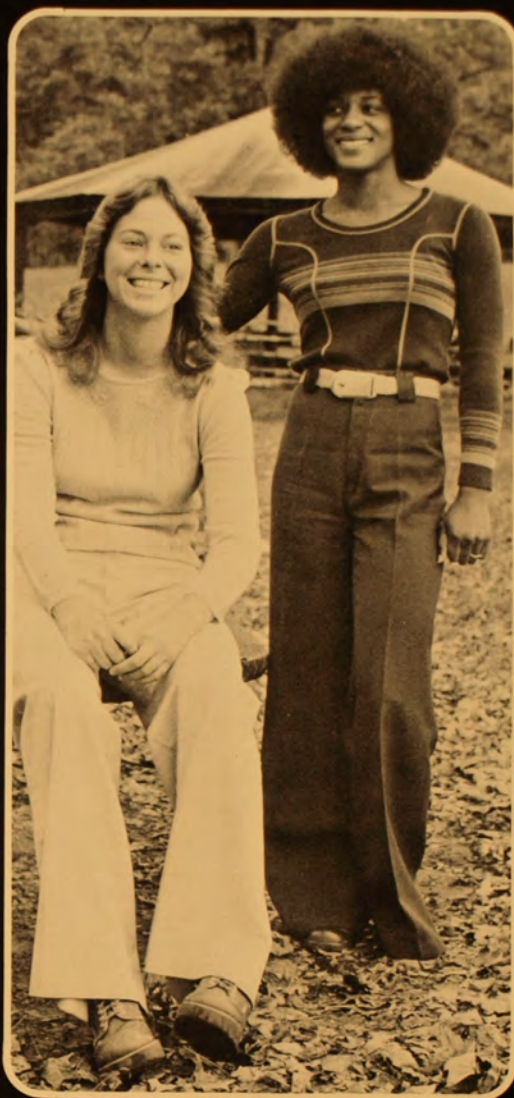

But the weather could do little to dampen the victories at APSU — with Sigma Chi winning the float contest, and our football team — running away with the victory against our biggest rival MTSU.

On the gentler side was Sharon Schreiber winning the hearts of all of us as our homecoming queen. Whether riding on a paper napkin raft or scoring the winning touchdown, victory is still victory.

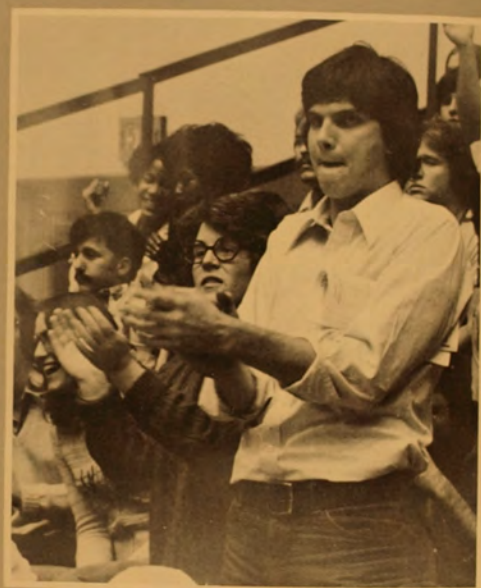

Homecoming is going to a concert starring Barefoot Jerry, backed by Mother's Finest, performing in the Little Red Barn. It's buying a ballon because you feel victory in the air, and it makes you innocently happy. It's being a part of the alumni band and remembering your "school days". Homecoming is Pi Kappa Alpha winning the best dressed house of the year. Queen Sharon Schreiber and first runner up Gisele Brown reigned over the entire homecoming activities. Homecoming is also that spirit filled-time of the year when there's a nip of fall in the air and the throb of victory in your heart.

At Austin Peay when the sun shines people seem to crawl through the cracks to get outside. Students cut classes just lying around in the bowl. A beautiful day also brings workers outside to do their studying or art crafts. One of the more common sights is seeing someone sitting under a tree playing a guitar, and just enjoy life peacefully. People seem good spirited on days of sun as life moves right on by us.

Even when the weather isn't the best, life goes on at the big Peay. No matter what kind of weather, people are still out around campus, rain, shine, or even snow. It could be that the weather here is so unpredictable that people just keep on going.

The third annual Derby Day, sponsored by Sigma Chi, had three teams representing various sororities and one independent team. The coach horse, the surprising mystery event, and the greased pole were some of the fun-loving events that the participants had done to them. This year's winner was the Sevier Streakers followed by Chi Omega, with third place being earned by Alpha Phi. Alicia Willis collected the most pennies and was given the title of "Derby Darling" for her efforts. Sigma Chi collected $600 from Derby Day, and this money will be sent to the Wallace Village for Children.

Life seems to move so quickly that you never really think about it. Tomorrow we will govern the country, yesterday we were only college students. Where does all the time go? You remember how simple life seemed in high school, but then it didn't seem so simple. College sometimes makes you feel like the whole world is on your shoulders, but when you really think about it, life isn't so simple. Memories make it seem more simple because you can always solve them, but you can't always solve it when it is the present. Some philosophers say that the future keeps us going and some say that the past is the one that makes us survive. It is both, because with the past you can remember how things have changed and the good times you had, while the future makes you plan for things and dream about certain goals you wish to reach.

THE HASSLE OF REGISTRATION

The first day of college and you wonder how you got here. Then you begin to remember how most of us ended up here. You remember the nice recruiters telling you about all the friendly people, the good times, and the educational programs offered at the big Peay. The next thing you knew was that you were unloading your belongings and moving into the campus life. Mama and Dad had gone back home and you were all alone, lost and feeling rather insecure. Then all the hassle of registering; But where do I go? Where is the gym? Why did I decide to go to college? You ask someone and they laugh a little but tell you what to do and you only hope that they aren't sending you on a wild goose chase. You walk into the gym and lines are everywhere. So you get in line only to find that the class you need is closed, so you have to reschedule your classes. Then it's back to standing in line for another hour and just hope that you get all your classes.

Luck stuck this time because you got all your classes without anymore hassle. Almost finished now, all that's left is to pay fees, but more lines. You get to the end of the line and they want ID card and house card. Then the next line wants your yellow card but by this time you just pitch them all your cards and let them get the one they want. Finally you are at the last line the one that takes your money. When you get to the end of the line you find out that you only have one dollar left. The hassle is over and you feel like you have been drugged through all the lines. After a day like that you are ready to get out and forget all your troubles. So where do you end up? Sitting in the bowl enjoying the sunshine if it isn't raining, acting a fool in the student center, eating free supper on the floor, or maybe down to the Library for a cold beer or a game of pin ball. Now you feel the real college scene of taking all the hassle at times but hanging in there and trying to relax and enjoy all the things life has to offer.

GOVERNOR AND FIRST LADY

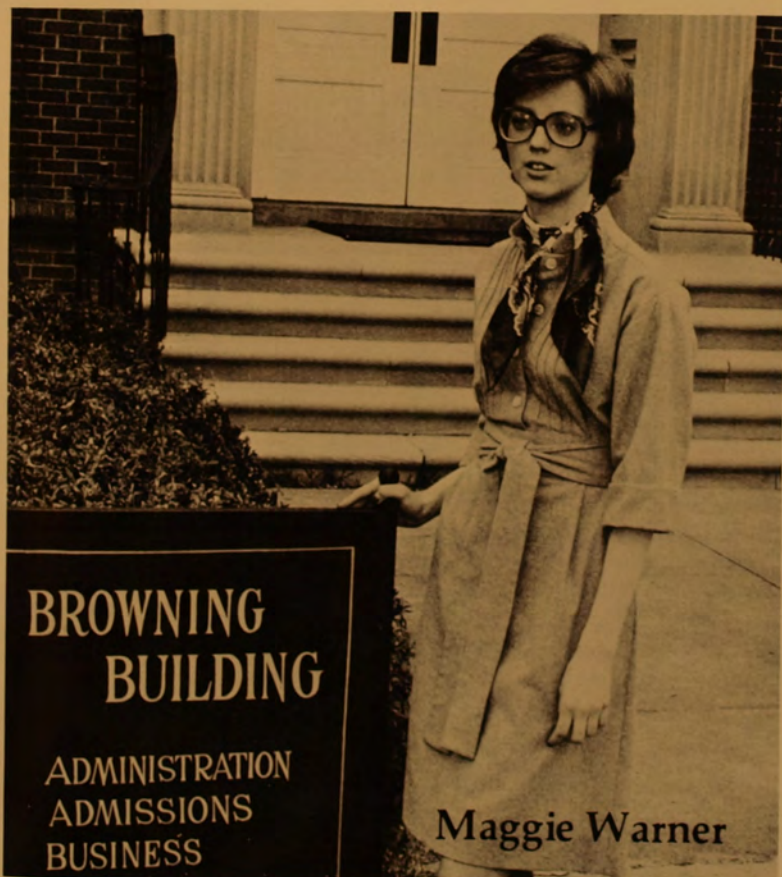

Andy Fulton

Governor, Andy Fulton, a business administration major from Clarksville, is very active on campus. Andy is strongly involved in SGA and The All State. During the year he was chosen as a member of Who's Who. Andy is also a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, where he holds the office of treasure.

First Lady, Maggie Warner, is a senior from Tullahoma, Tennessee, majoring in Speech and Political Science; Maggie is the first lady to become president of the SGA. She is serving on various committee and is also a little sister to the Sigma Chi Fraternity.

President Harry Truman had a sign on his desk that said "The buck stops here." It meant, of course, that the president has the final responsibility for many decisions that have a great effect on the welfare of the nation.

In a similar way, the president of a university, through his official actions, bears a great deal of responsibility for the success or failure of that institution.

The facts show clearly the great progress which Austin Peay has made under the administration of Dr. Joe Morgan.

During his 13 years as president of Austin Peay, it has grown from a teacher's college to a multi-purpose university with a budget of over $7 million. The student body has doubled in size, from approximately 2,000 to 4,000 students, while faculty and administration have grown from approximately 120 to 190 members.

Several buildings have been completed, including the Woodard Library, the University Center, the Dunn Center, and a number of classroom buildings and dormitories.

But Dr. Morgan's contribution to APSU goes far beyond facts and figures. His stature is shown by the respect and esteem felt for him by all elements of the university community-administration, faculty, students and alumni.

This does not mean that Dr. Morgan has seen eye-to-eye with every group on every issue. However, none of those who have worked closely with him over the years have ever had reason to doubt his fairness, his sincerity or his determination to do what was best for the university.

We commend Dr. Morgan for his 13 years of distinguished service to the university. We wish for Dr. and Mrs. Morgan success and happiness in the years to come. THE ALL STATE

A SMOOTH TRANSITION

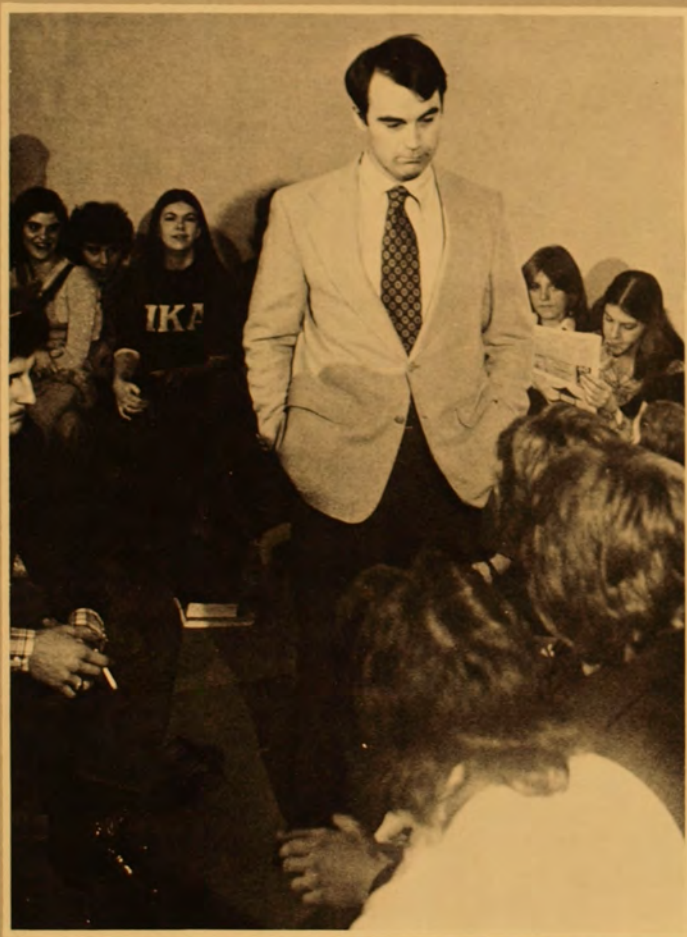

"He was out before I really knew he was leaving," commented Lynn Ellis, a freshman at APSU when asked about how Dr. Morgan's leaving had affected her. This feeling was the general response on campus during the transition from Morgan to Riggs, for it was a quick and easy break from the old to the new. Naturally, it was a confused and frustrated time for both families of Riggs and Morgan — there was packing and moving to handle, the usual conferences to attend, and always new ideas and opinions to be listened too. Then suddenly, as if over night, a new name was placed on the President's door and one could hear the rumblings of change off in the not too distant future.

The taking over of any job has its petty frustrations, nagging doubts, and fearful tremblings of taking that first step. But, if this was true of Dr. Robert O. Riggs one would have never guessed, for at first glance one sees a man who has a straight forward determination to achieve. He was a president who came with a plan and from the first day started on it's completion. Dr. Riggs has stated that before he makes any major changes at Austin Peay he plans to get to know the community and the university to begin to understand the immediate needs of the campus, a wisdom that shines beyond his thirty-three years.

If any administration desires uniqueness, there will be changes to be made in the campus environment. Like it or not, changes are a fact of life and the Riggs administration will change APSU life significantly in the ensuing years. Examples are already evident in Riggs restructuring of the campus grounds, planning and administration.

A GLANCE INTO THE FUTURE

There will be constant re-evaluation of programs under Riggs. He must decide what programs benefit and which lack purpose. Needless to say, some departments will suffer cutbacks. It is not a glamorous task, but a necessary one. Riggs has stated that the days of beautiful resources are over. We must retrench and use what we have — not waste resources we either possess or borrow. Some people's egos will be injured, but in the long run APSU will be healed.

The Riggs administration beckons new initiatives despite obviously limited resources. Innovations in regionally desirable programs and a more attractive social and academic atmosphere are stressed. Riggs will above all place new life and spirit into a university needing encouragement.

NEW ADDITIONS

The Winfield Dunn Health and Physical Education Building and Convocation Center was completed this year. After three years of work on the Dunn Center it was finally open for the first basketball game of the season. During one game, former Governor and Mrs. Dunn were presented with a basketball autographed by the APSU basketball team.

During the year we have had many new additions to the campus. The Trahern landscape and parking lot was completed. The ROTC has been working hard on the landscape around the new Dunn Center while there was a new parking lot added behind the Memorial Stadium. Various buildings have been remodeled and also sidewalks were replaced or new ones built.

All of these new additions were greatly needed at Austin Peay State University.

Janet Blanke, Assistant Director of Field Activities
"Our students seem more involved with what is going on."

Charles N. Boehms, Vice President for Student Affairs
"I think Austin Peay is a wonderful place. We have a very fine faculty and administration with the necessary physical plant to offer an excellent educational program. The students are great and have outstanding leadership among their Student Government Association who are actively involved in University governance. We have our bad days, but these are overshadowed by the many, many more good days that we are able to enjoy."

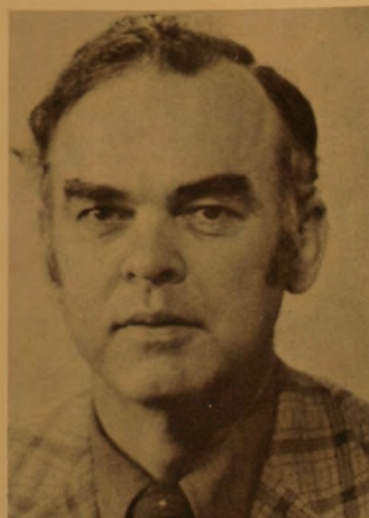

Fred Boercker, Director of Public Service
"My most pleasant recollections of Austin Peay are of my students in my Physics classes; some were able, some not so able, some ambitious, but all were of high quality. I hope the University will build projects which will attract and serve most students."

James D. Brant, Director of Counseling Center
"Austin Peay has high potential in that it meets the needs of its' students and the aspiration of its' faculty."

John Bratcher, Director of Student Financial Aid
"I enjoy working here."

J F Burney, Dean of Business and Economics
"Our main objective is to develop a competent faculty and assist students in developing their talents and abilities."

ADMINISTRATION

Sherwin Clift, Director of Public Information
"Austin Peay is full of Peay-ple."

David Collier, Director of the University Store
"Austin Peay is a great university with unlimited opportunities."

Erle Coppedge, Business Manager
"Austin Peay is very attractive."

Mildred Deason, Director of Womens' Affairs
"One of the real strengths of the campus community is the high percentage of responsible students who get involved in activities which serve to improve life at Austin Peay."

William Ellis, Director of Institutional Research
"A friendly, congenial campus with an abundance of smiles."

George Fisher, Director of Athletics
"Obviously, since I've been here forever, including my undergraduate and graduate years, I think Austin Peay is super!"

Glen Gentry, Vice President for Admissions and Records

"The campus is the workshop for a group of fine students."

Johnnie Givens, Head Librarian

"The University is ending an era with the retirement of President Morgan. I have learned more from him as an administrator than I have from any other administrative experience. It has been a positive learning; rich in concept development, incentives for quality standards, and strong support for education for all. Austin Peay State is a dynamic institution, and it is challenging and exciting to move into the future under the leadership of a new president."

Julius Greene, Director of Veteran Affairs

"Just the right amount of student-teacher contact."

Dick Littleton, Director of Field Service

"A college is made up of people, not buildings."

Henry Malone, Director of Alumni Affairs

"The University is no stronger than its graduates."

Melburn Mayfield, Vice President of Field Services

"Whether you want to learn or not you have come to the right place; however, it seems that those who want to learn stay here longer."

ADMINISTRATION

Lieutenant Colonel Pat McDermott, Head of ROTC
 "The aspect that has impressed me most during my brief tenure here at Austin Peay is the warmth and sincerity expressed by the members of the University community — administration, faculty, and students alike. This sense of camaraderie promises the continued success of this excellent University."

Robert Neilson, Director of Intermurals
 "I have great anticipation for Austin Peay, with a new president who has verbally state his like for an increased social program there is no way for us to go but up."

Wanda Pinckley, Director of Placement
 "Work requires many abilities and preparation must start before the senior year."

Arnold Quarles, Director of Student Service
 "Austin Peay is convenient, compact, clean, and attractive."

Doytt Redmond, Director of Men's Affairs
 "I am excited about the increased dedication to learning exhibited by student abilities."

Tom K. Savage, Dean of the College of Education and Director of Teacher Education
 "For twenty-three years I have been a member of the Austin Peay campus. It has been a major element in my life, my family, and my professional career. Through my association with the University, I have been richly rewarded."

Travis Smith, Associate Director of the Computer Center

"Austin Peay is basically one of the best intermediate schools a person could attend."

Herbert Stallworth, Vice President for Academic Affairs

"Austin Peay is a wonderful place to be and to work."

Wayne Stamper, Dean of the Graduate School

"Tremendous progress has been made in the graduate program."

Margaret Sumner, Director of the Learning Resource Center

"Austin Peay is small enough to have a humanistic approach."

Gerald Tenny, Director of Photographic Services

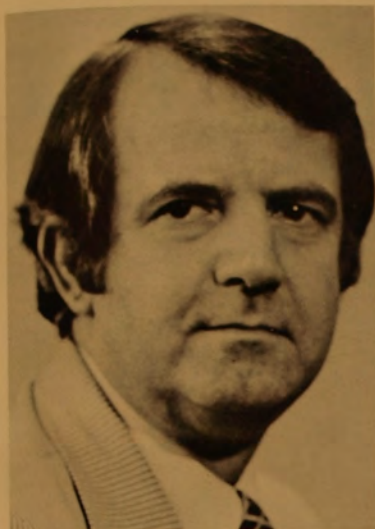

"Austin Peay is one of the finest universities."

Doug Vance, Director of Sports Information

"I think Austin Peay is the type of school that can be very beneficial to a certain type of person. I believe that its' size and personality provide an attractive situation to the person who enjoys a friendly and comfortable atmosphere."

ADMINISTRATION

James Vinson, Occupational Research Assistant
"I believe that the growth of Austin Peay will come from programs outside of the liberal arts areas."

Charles Wall, Director of the Computer Center
"I think Austin Peay is a good place to work and also a good place to go to school because of the size, not to large and not to small."

David Watson, Director of the University Center
"Austin Peay is one of the better Universities in our region."

Walter Wilson, Director of Purchasing
"Austin Peay is an excellent educational institution and works well with the community on many worthwhile projects, I enjoy being a part of both."

Mary Windham, Director of Nurse Education
"I think Austin Peay has the best students by far, the best supporting community, and the best service area in the State of Tennessee."

Howard Winn, Director of Safety and Security
"Austin Peay State University is a primary source in this community for academic, cultural, research, and public service pursuits. If the University were utilized and supported properly by a larger segment of the community and the surrounding area it could serve its full potential as an important resource for the improvement of the region."

The Cabinet is the administrative branch of the Student Government Association. Each cabinet member has specific function, such as Bookstore manger, secretary of organizations, and treasurer. These people meet with the executive officers and discuss problems, goals, and proposed legislation for the senate. Each cabinet member is appointed by the president and approved by the Senate.

MAGGIE WARNER
SGA PRESIDENT

Maggie Warner SGA President
Austin Peay is unique? And it is this uniqueness that makes one's stay here most enjoyable and rewarding. As president of the Student Government Association, I have been in a position of noticing the warm attitudes and support of the students, and with this support my year as President has been made easier.

BONITA K. WILSON
SGA VICE-PRESIDENT

Bonita Wilson SGA Vice-President
Austin Peay is a place where one learns not only about things from books but also about people and life. As Vice-President of the SGA I have been privileged to meet many people and experience many new things. This is what I cherish most about Austin Peay.

DIANE COAKLEY
SGA SECRETARY

Diane Coakley SGA Secretary
I feel that Austin Peay has given me the chance to broaden my interests socially as well as in my education.

The SGA Senate, FIRST ROW (L to R): Pam Adams, Edith Webster, Jean Proctor, Imogene Gupton, Sandra Wallace, Sheryl Jenkins, Boo Giannia, Ronsonlyn Scholar, Stephanie Bellar, Cynthia Mason, Jeff Corvin; SECOND ROW Michie Honeycutt, Mary Langford, Linda Shanklin, Martin Abraham, Mike Rose, Howard Bradley, Mike McNair; THIRD ROW Kathy Blazek, Fred Parker, Mike Stevens, Margaret Langford, Mike Prespare, Tony Fletcher, Debbie Gupton, Mike Sheppard, Patti Webster, Kathy Jones, Phyllis Boggs, David Mason

The Senate is the legislative body of the Student Government Association. They pass resolutions and bills concerning anything from parking to student life to academic requirements. Their main goal is to improve Austin Peay State University for the students now and in the future.

The University Social Activities Board sponsored several events this year. During Freshman Orientation Week the USAB sponsored a disco dance, and an afternoon bowl concert. During the spring the USAB sponsors the annual Fiddlers Convention which is a week-end event. The board has sponsored various concerts such as Charlie Daniels Band, Outlaws, Mother's Finest, Barefoot Jerry, and bowl concerts with various types of music. USAB held the annual Miss APSU pageant which had 16 contestants. Also USAB sponsors various events from films, programs, to co-sponsoring the Bicentennial Basketball Fest.

STUDENT TRIBUNAL

James Hemphill
Chief Justice

The Student Tribunal, has been exceptional in its participation and responsibility of hearing cases. The responsible of the Tribunal is hearing, deciding, and recommending penalties for students who are alleged to have violated university rules. In addition, the Tribunal judges the constitutionality of bills and amendments to the SGA constitution. Even though the judicial system has been altered slightly, the Student Tribunal will still be the outlet for peer discipline here at Austin Peay.

The Visiting Speakers and Artists Committee under the direction of Dr. Joe Filippo hosted a large array of excellent talks and programs. The speakers vary from preachers, politicians, professors, and even one act programs.

The Philosophy Club was responsible for discussion of 'farm' living. Stephen Gaskin, (A) and a group of people from "The Farm," a commune located near Summertown, Tennessee, held several discussions around campus. They talked about their type of lifestyles and the problems they had encountered as they attempted, through their non-establishment lifestyle to get fulfillment out of life.

A topic that concerned every female on campus was brought to APSU and that was 'How to say No to a Rapist and Survive.' Frederic Storaska, executive director of the National Organization for the prevention of Rape and Assault, gave a very interesting talk.

Black History Week was highlighted by the (B) Rev. Jessie Jackson who spoke to packed house. The Rev. Jackson is the founder and national president of Operation PUSH, which is People United to Save Humanity. One of the remarks made by Rev. Jackson has remained on the minds of many, "It doesn't take a man to make a baby, just to raise one."

The Bicentennial program presented by the Committee was V. Neil Wyrick whom presented "The World of Ben Franklin." Mr. Wyrick brought the character to the 20th century which was educational and inspirational at the same time.

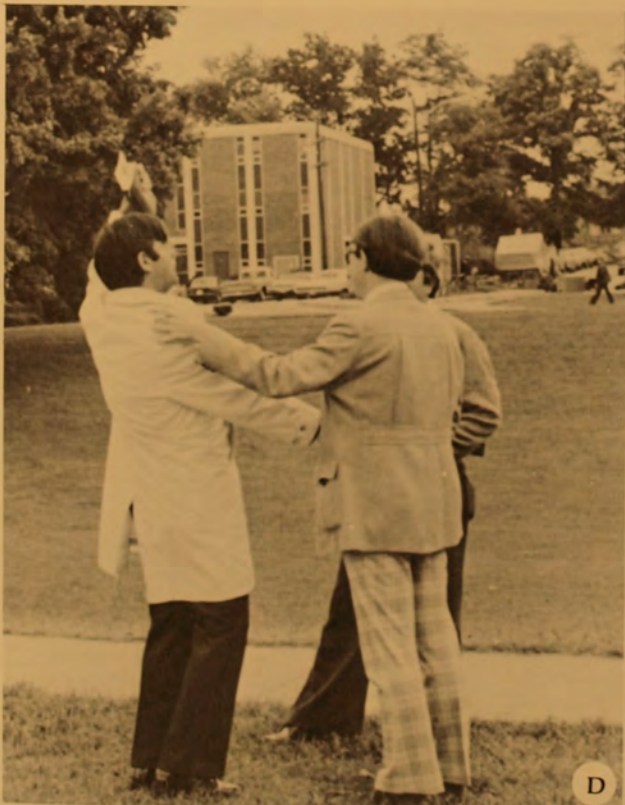

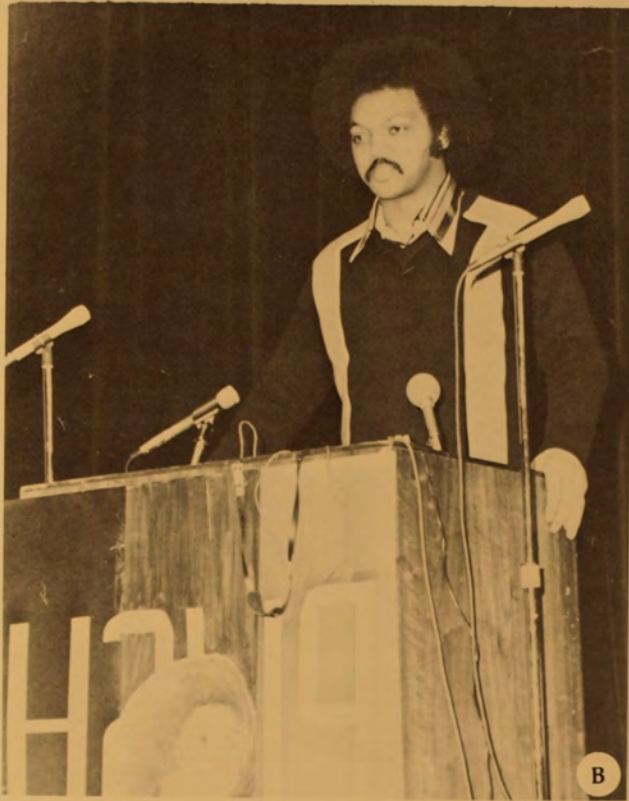

One of the more provocative speakers was Evangelist George "Jed" Smock, (C & D) who spoke of the impending doom of Austin Peay students if they did not repent and change their wicked ways. Jed Smock once a history professor and a drug addict but turned evangelist, was escorted off campus by Security for causing a disturbance and not having permission from the administration to speak on campus.

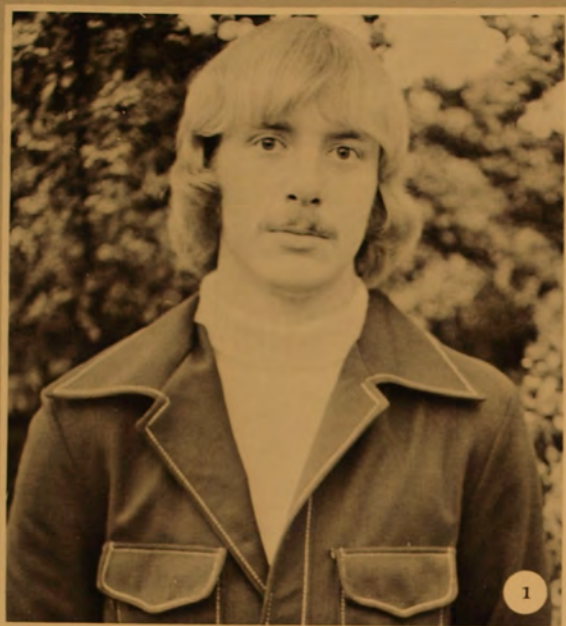

Among the many other speakers was Dr. Frederick Goff, (E) who spoke on "A Study in detection: The First Printing of the Declaration of Independence." This topic was dealing with a study made by Dr. Goff of John Dunlop's broadside of the Declaration printed on July 4 and 5 1776.

WHO'S WHO 1975-1976

To be listed in the "Who Who Among Students in American Universities & Colleges" is an achievement to be carried through life. Being recognized as a member of Who's Who will be a definite factor of your future.

1 DAVID ALLEN RIGGINS — Industrial Arts

Whatever you may do or attempt to do in life, remember to be yourself. It's worked for us so far, so why not use it the rest of the way.

2 LINDA F. HARRIS — Secretarial Science

Education is one way to increase knowledge, but true wisdom comes only from God.

3 MELANIE WATERS

4 HELGA MARIA BECK WHEELER — English

"Resolve to be thyself; and know that he who finds himself loses his misery!" (Matthew Arnold)

- 5 LARRY DARNELL ELLIOTT — Political Science & History
 "The wisest of all men are those who realize their ignorance." I feel as long as a person realizes that he can always learn something from someone he has a chance to succeed. My advice to students is to try hard and enjoy the benefits while you are working at your goal. No one promised us life is easy, but we have a chance to make an easier life for ourselves.
- 6 JOHN MICHAEL STEVENS — Mathematics & History
 I find a great deal of merit in the prayer that God may grant me the courage to challenge those things which should be changed, the patience to accept those which cannot be changed, and the wisdom to distinguish between the two.
- 7 ELIZABETH T. SANFORD — History
- 8 ANN ELIZABETH KARHU — Health & Physical Education

 13 MARTHA LYNNE HUNT — Elementary Education
 14 CAROLYN L. ROGERS — Elementary Education & Sociology

15 GARY RICHARD PERRIZO — Accounting

Graduation is not the end. Instead, it is the beginning of a new career.

19 MARY A. CORNELL — Geography

I would like to thank the members of the faculty for nominating me for this honor. I have had many gratifying experiences and some disappointments at Austin Peay, but most of the people on campus have been very pleasant and helpful. I am especially grateful to some of the professors who gave me confidence and encouragement when I felt discouraged. When I think of leaving Austin Peay, I have mixed emotions. I want to use what I have learned to help others, but at the same time I feel sadness because I will be leaving people that I love.

16 ANDY FULLTON — Business Administration

Enjoy your achievement as well as your plans.

17 CLAUDE ALBERT RICKETTS, Jr. — Biology

The key to success is first having confidence in your ability to succeed and then the willingness to work hard to obtain it.

18 SUSAN KING TOWE — Earth Science

With a new president here at Austin Peay, the next few years should provide a great opportunity for you, as students, to institute changes that are much needed at this university. I would hope that the apathy of many students would end and you would put your ideas into action, because without new ideas, nothing ever changes.

20 FRANCES WHITFIELD BROWN Speech & Theater; Philosophy

What "needs" to be said has already been said a thousand times over, only in differing fashions. After a while it all becomes philosophically boring. R.O. Laing expresses it best . . . "If I could turn you on, If I could drive you out of your wretched mind, If I could tell you, I would let you know."

21 JERRY M. LEMONS Speech & Drama
How mad! How humanly insane, the artist. Who in picking up a pen, a brush, a script — commences her or his own crucifixion.

22 JOHN CHRISTOPHER CROW Speech / Theater

"We do not know very much of the future except that from generation to generation the same things happen again and again. Men learn little from other's experience. But in the life of one man, never the same time returns. Sever the cord, shed the scale. Only the fool, fixed in his folly, may think he can turn the wheel on which he turns." (T.S. Eliot)

Today is what life is, tomorrow has yet to come, and yesterday is gone — hope, dream, and believe in tomorrow, remember some yesterdays, but live for each today.

25 JERRY W. FERRELL Biology/Chemistry

The collegiate atmosphere has taught me the beginnings of professionalism needed for advancement to graduate school.

26 CAROLYN STIER FERRELL Biology

To succeed, is to take the path less travelled by and as it is said, that has made all the difference.

27 KENNETH CLOUSE Chemistry (distributive)

With my undergraduate years behind me, I can now look back and appreciate each college experience which I have faced. I have found that with the application of discipline and determination, the impossible becomes possible. I thank God for my personal relationship with Jesus Christ which has enabled me to learn and to enjoy my college career.

28 JOHN QUICK Biology

If we are to truly accomplish something in this world today, we must honestly face the challenges and changes that confront us each day.

29 JIMMIE WILLARD Biology

I have learned how to make life fantastic. The following have helped; commitment, determination to do the job right, and most importantly to do all things out of love. I have learned these things by giving my life to God!

30 BRENDA LIND Marketing

ROTC

For Austin Peay's ROTC cadets, 1975-1976 was a "super year." Enrollment increased again — up 60 percent over last year. Cadet organization and activities had their best year ever. Twenty-six cadets from the Ranger Company were privileged to spend a week in the mountains of Colorado skiing and undergoing cold weather training. In March the rangers completed a highly successful field training exercise competing against special forces personnel from Texas and Arkansas. The cadet color guard and drill team had an active year also. By their victory in the Tenn. Classic Drill Meet at Tennessee Tech, the color guard was designated the Governors Honor Color Guard for 1976 by Governor Blanton. Dressed in their Revolutionary era uniforms the color guard presented the colors at all home basketball games and participated in a number of bicentennial celebrations throughout the Southeast. The highpoint of the year came when the "Governors' Guard" appeared at Busch Stadium in St. Louis to open the 1976 baseball season and when they presented the colors before national television audiences from Comiskey Park in Chicago and from Braves Stadium in Atlanta.

Austin Peay's ROTC Cadets can be justifiably proud of their accomplishments during their country's 200th year of nationhood.

The "Governors' Guard" made up of members Jose' Recio, Mike Brown, Earl Linton, Janice Moore, Lance Morrison, and Rene Ellithorpe presenting the colors at the opening game in the Penn Center.

Cadet Lynn Dorlac, the first woman to be commissioned an officer in the US Army through the AP&U ROTC Program, dashes toward an obstacle in a physical fitness test. Lynn elected to be commissioned in the Adjutant General Corps.

Entering under an arch of sabers at the annual military ball is senior cadet Bill Randolph and his wife Cheryl. The military ball, held in their honor, is the high point of the year for graduating seniors.

The Baptist Student Union is an organization of Christian witness and ministry on the University Campus. The program is centered around the inward and outward growth of students, and involves study, mission opportunities, fellowship, and recreation. In addition to this are offered opportunities for retreats and conferences. The fellowship of the BSU is open to all students who are interested in participating in any phase — be it through the recreational (intramural) program or through Bible study and worship.

The Church of Christ Student Center is a student center for all students. They sponsor devotionals each Thursday and have breakfasts Monday through Friday at 7:45. The students also publish a monthly newsletter. For recreation the Center sponsors quarterly retreats, such as the Fall retreat to Lylewood Christian Camp, which was enjoyed by students from APSU, Western, and David Lipscomb. The Winter retreat was at Brandon Springs, where students from APSU and Vanderbilt enjoyed a week-end of fun. The Church of Christ Student Center also sponsor special campus speakers and have currently sponsored a campus campaign with the theme, "If Life gives you a lemon make lemonade." During the Fall quarter the Church of Christ Student Center offers a Bible class where one can gain college credit. They also offer a non-credit Bible course in the Spring. The Church of Christ Student Center is one that offers a little bit of everything for everyone.

The Wesley Foundation is a student center sponsored by the United Methodist Church. The activities include luncheons and suppers, devotionals and programs dealing with contemporary issues. Also, there are recreation events, dances, retreats, and movies. The group also presented a musical, "The Searcher," performed on campus and then carried it to five cities in Tennessee.

The activities of the Wesley Foundation are open to all students and are designed to meet student needs.

Relaxing is the most popular sport at APSU. Lying around soaking up the sun or just plain acting a fool with someone close to you. Relaxing is different to everyone. To some it is resting, thinking, studying, or even sucking a lolly pop.

The Union for Women's Rights is a campus organization concerned with improving the status of women in order to assure that women have an equal chance in life. The primary activity of the group during this year has been centered around Title IX legislation. The Union has supported efforts to insure that women have an equal chance in the field of athletics. In addition to encouraging support of the women's athletic teams on campus, the organization has taken specific actions to educate the campus community about the guarantees of Title IX. In sports as in other areas of life such as education, business, and social activities, women deserve equal opportunities for participation and development. The Union exists to keep such ideals in the forefront of campus thought.

Epsilon Omicron chapter of Alpha Phi devotes countless hours to their National Philanthropy, the Heart Fund. This year, through the sale of candy Love-pops, A Phi's were able to contribute over $800 to the Heart Association. The Heart Drive lasts from mid January to mid February with constant work during those weeks.

Alpha Phi is in its third year at Austin Peay. They actively participated in Sigma Chi's Derby Day, in intramural activities, and sponsored a Bicentennial Christmas tree in the Student Center during the month of December. The sorority won the first place car in the homecoming competition. During the month of April, Alpha Phi participated in the Clarksville Bicentennial Clean-Up. During the year the sorority had workshops, two teas, a homecoming luncheon, and a spring formal.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Delta Sigma Theta is a public service sorority. Delta Sigma Theta's goals were to serve the campus and the community, thereby enriching the lives of its members. Delts's activities were raising money to donate to charity, and the community. They sponsored an annual Greek show which had Greeks from various universities to participate. Delta Sigma Theta has an outstanding pledge program where they have to prove that they want to be Delta's and this helps to make stronger sisterhood.

CHI OMEGA

The Chi Omega Sorority was the first National Women's Fraternity on campus. They sponsor many charitable functions such as a Charity Football Game which goes to support the Montgomery County Toy Drive, a raffle held for the Heart Fund, and a Halloween Party for the children at the Cohn School for the mentally retarded. Being civic minded, they planted a bush in the Bi-centennial Garden at the Montgomery County Court House and painted the downtown fire hydrants a Bi-centennial red, white, and blue.

Chi Omega is also active socially by providing a Homecoming Tea for the alumni, going Christmas caroling, providing teas for other sororities, and having cookouts and covered dish suppers for the fraternities. The Chi Omega sisters also attend church together at least once a quarter.

Being a well-rounded sorority, Chi Omega has won the Spirit Award during Derby Week, the women's volleyball and track in intermurals, and the softball championship last spring. The sisters of Chi Omega are also the Bat Girls for the Baseball Team.

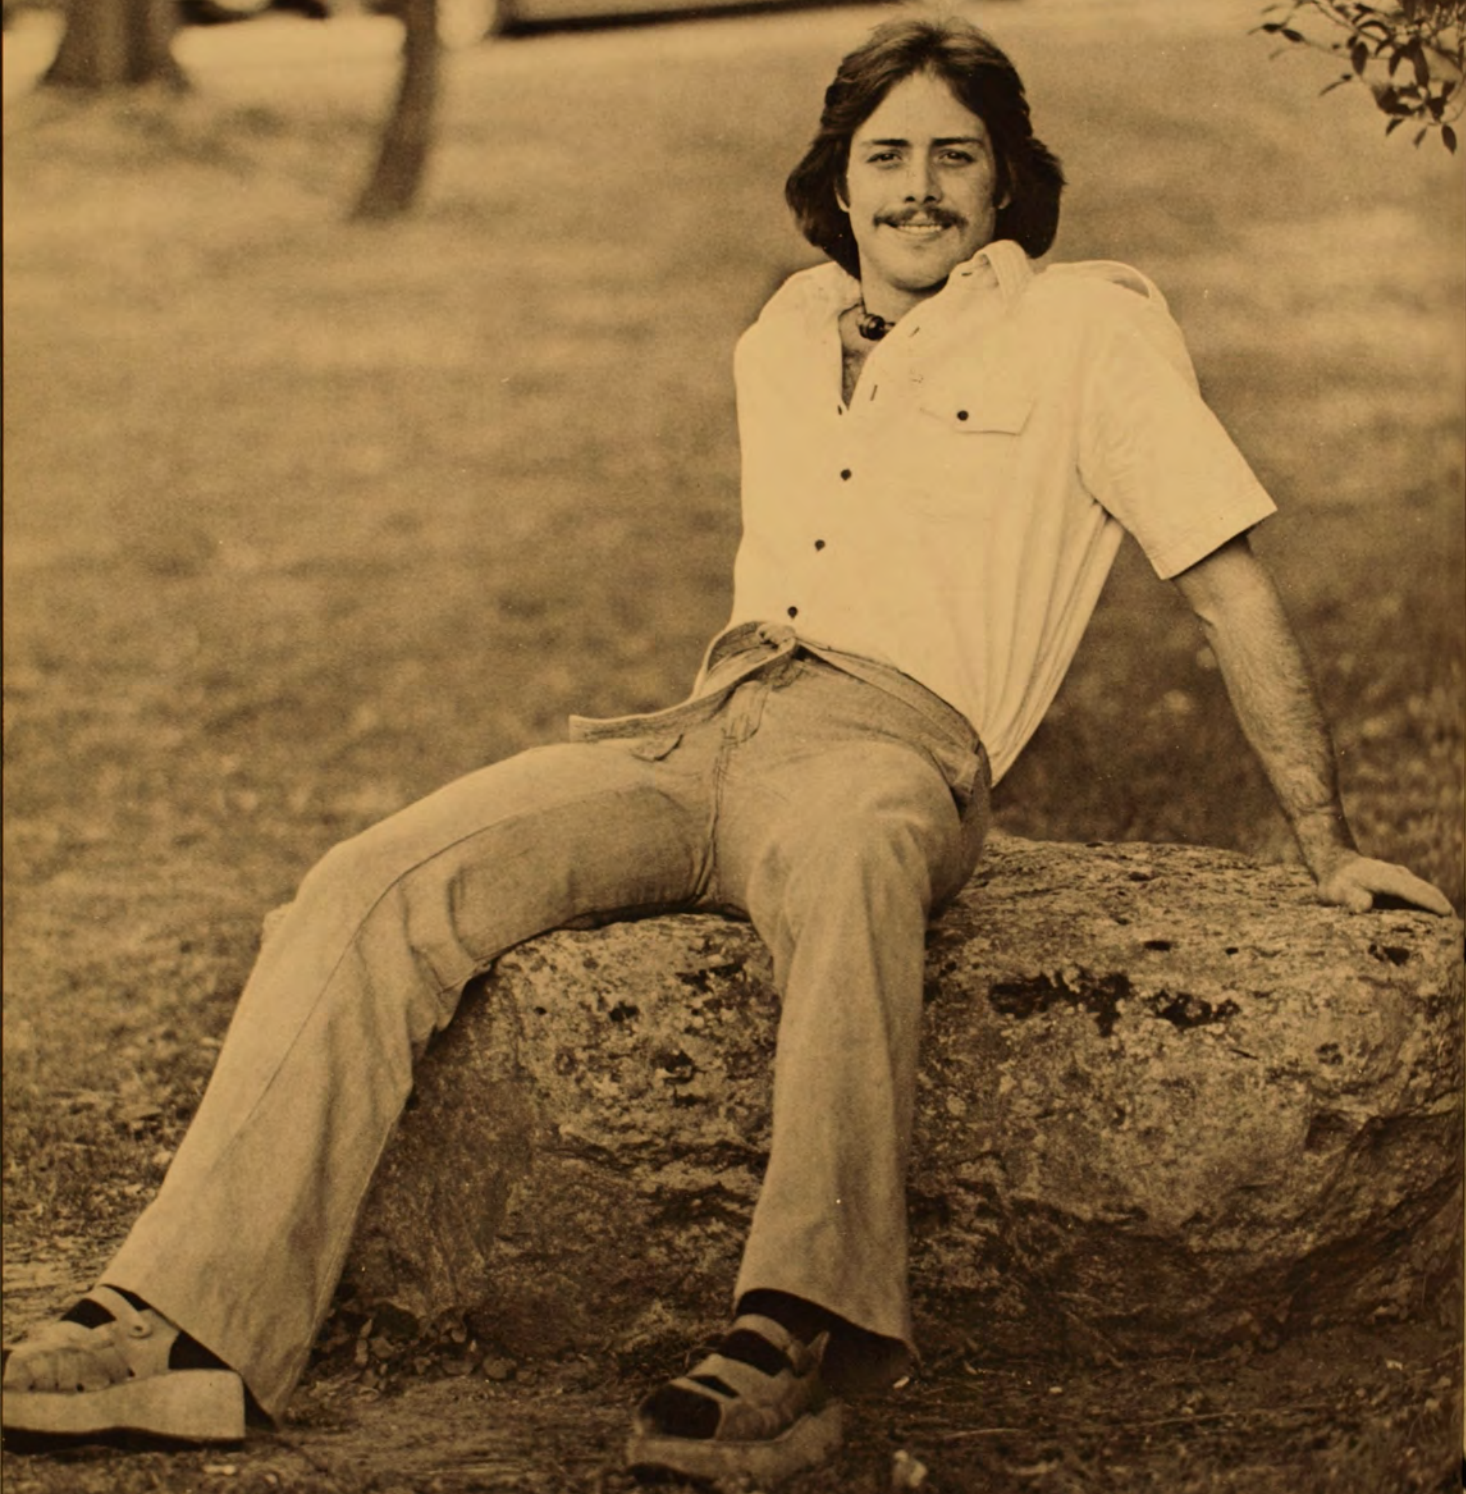

WOMEN'S DORMS

Visitation of men in women's dorms and of women in men's dorms have been liberalized during the past year, and even more freedom is anticipated. At the present time visitations are from 2:00-8:00 on Sundays and 5:00-9:00 on Wednesday, but lights must be left on and shades open. In addition students may find togetherness watching television in the lobby or solitude sunbathing in restricted areas.

WOMEN INVOLVEMENT

Women's involvement is on the rise at APSU. This year we had women as the power behind student government. This was brought about by the election and appointment of women holding the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, USAB chairman, and a number of senators. Also, due to the emphasis on women's sports, more recognition is received by females in this area. This is in addition to the activities that in the past have been associated with the conception that many have had toward the usually activities in which they are prominate. The future will find women becoming even more recognizable in every phase of student life at APSU.

FOOTBALL

"Football is a game of inches!" Whoever made that statement certainly had Austin Peay in mind. Even though the scores did not indicate it, the Governors came "so close, but yet so far away."

The Govs, looking for that one big break to turn the season around, came close many times during the 1975 season. However, they always seemed to come up on the short end when the final gun sounded.

THE OFFENSE

The Govs learned by experience that the only way you can win is to get possession of the football. The Govs' biggest problem was keeping the football once they got it. Each time the Govs gained possession of the ball, it seemed as if all their energy was spent trying to hang on to it. At least when the ball squirted out of the hands of an APSU runner, one began to wonder.

TOP RIGHT: Coveak Moody (25) looks for an opening in the defensive line as opponents move in for the play. ABOVE: Henry Yarber loses the handle on this carry as the Govs continued to be plagued by the fumble. RIGHT: Senior runningback Bill Hammon finds an open spot in Morehead's defense as he picks up a few yards.

TOP RIGHT: Bill Hammon stretches his 6'2" frame out on the turf to gain an extra yard. ABOVE: Randy Christophel (11) takes the snap from center Russ Aaron (58), who then prepares to block a Morehead opponent.

The Govs could only manage to produce a total of 121 points during the eleven game season. Most of the Gov scoring was done on the ground; except for three touchdown passes, two coming in the last game. APSU seemed to be playing against itself at times, as their worst opponent seemed to be the fumble.

THE DEFENSE

Certainly APSU's defense got a lot of experience this season. The Govs gave up 29 touchdowns to their opponents during the 1975 season. However, the defense did show some moments of real promise for the future. With the experience of this season, they should be able to cope with the best and toughest of offenses next year.

The Govs' defensive backfield has proven itself to be one of the best at times. It is composed of two seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores. On the front line, the Govs will return 4 juniors and one frosh. Since the Govs will return some 9 starters, they should be well equipped for the future.

Game # 1: Central Arkansas 14
Austin Peay 13

The Gavs opened the 1975 season with a heartbreaker against visiting Central Arkansas. The fumble hurt the Gavs and jinxed them the rest of the season.

Game # 2: Carson-Newman 13
Austin Peay 0

"If you can't win at home, then how can you win on the road!" This question came to mind when the Gavs traveled to Carson Newman to lose game No. 2.

Game # 3: Western Ky. 30
Austin Peay 3

Looking for that one big win, the Gavs returned home for game No 3. But it was curtains for APSU as they were topped by the Hilltoppers of Western Ky.

Game # 4: Eastern Ky. 49
Austin Peay 0

Confident that a new offensive set-up might change things, the Gavs went to Eastern Ky. However, pre-season favorite EKV ran past the Gavs with a 49-0 attack.

Game # 5: Austin Peay 20
Morehead 10

The Gavs took an 0-4 mark into Morehead for what was termed the 'battle of the bottom!' With both MSU and APSU struggling for their first OVC wins, it was the Gavs who emerged victorious.

Game # 6: North Alabama 23
Austin Peay 6

APSU stumbled into North Alabama only to be caught off-guard. N.A. shot down what the Gavs thought was their first break of the season. The Gavs should have stayed home: 23-6.

Game # 7: Austin Peay 17
Middle Tenn 13

A rainy, cool Homecoming Day sent the Gavs against the Raiders of Middle Tenn. After MTSU gained a 7-0 lead, the Gavs came from behind to take this close one 17-13.

Game # 8: U.T. Martin 24
Austin Peay 15

The Gavs then stepped out of the conference to face U.T. Martin. UTM has always been a thorn-in-the-side, and this year was no exception; UTM 24 — Gavs 15.

Game # 9: Murray State 14
Austin Peay 10

Hoping to get back on the right path, the Gavs went to Murray to face a team which had upset EKV the week before. On a controversial call in the last few minutes, the Gavs lost a thriller.

Game # 10: Tenn Tech 0
Austin Peay 0

The Gavs ran into defensive-minded Tenn Tech in game 10. Tenn Tech showed their defense in full bloom against the Gavs and shut them out 20-0.

Game # 11: Austin Peay 37
East Tenn 21

The Gavs finished in fine style for the '75 season by beating East Tenn 37-21 at home. The Gavs passed for two of their three touchdowns and ended the season on a good note.

B A S K E T B A L L

The Austin Peay basketball season was full of surprises during the 1975-76 season. The Governors fell short of their expectations — and the expectations of many others as well. The Gobs were picked strongly to take the OVC crown, but late in the season the Gobs lost their momentum and to a strong Western Ky. team.

The Govs compiled an overall record of 20 wins to only 7 losses, but dropped a few games that they certainly should have won. The Govs went 4-0 before losing their first game to Marshall on the road. However, the Govs rebounded quickly and defeated Marshall on the Govs home court a week later. Weber State caught the Govs off-guard in the opener of the Evansville Invitational. But once again APSU recovered, winning their next six games.

After winning its first three OVC matches, the Govs had trouble in Cookeville as the Golden Eagles of Tenn. Tech handed the Govs their first conference loss. However, once again the Governors came back strong to win their next six contests — all of which were OVC games.

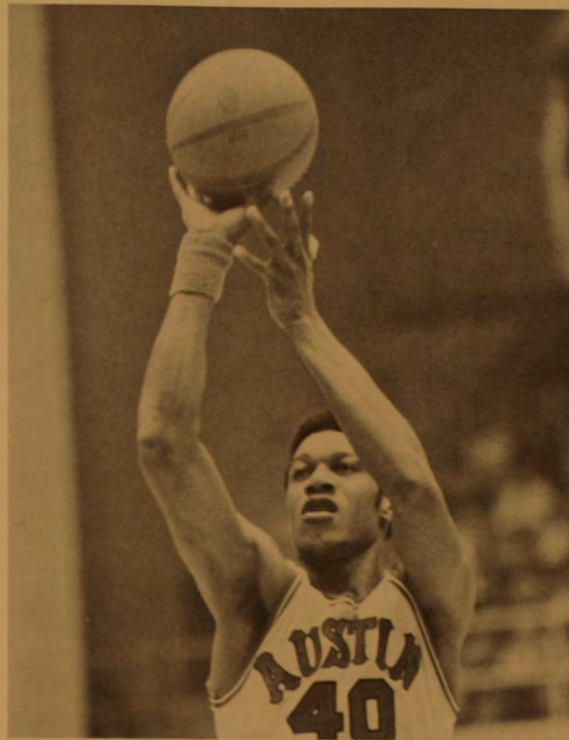

TOP LEFT: Sophomore guard Norman Jackson (14) demonstrates how he shot 66% from the free throw line on this shot. ABOVE: In his first college appearance, Sam Drummer awaits anxiously to return back into the game at the Dunn Center. LEFT: Calvin Garrett (44) gets hot from the corner as the Govs got hot against Middle Tenn.

After defeating East Tennessee, Murray State, Western, and Middle Tennessee twice; the Gavs seemed on their way to their third conference title in four years. However, the Gavs found themselves in the middle of "Death Valley" with no place to turn. And it was "death" for the Gavs as they fell prey to both Eastern Kentucky and Morehead. The two losses sent the Gavs into a tie for the conference lead with Western.

ABOVE: Sam Drummer (33) is forced out of bounds against Murray in the OVC tournament. TOP: Guard Norman Jackson (14) uses a little leverage to make his move. RIGHT: Mickey Fisher (20) shows some fancy passing under the basket.

Again the Govs bounced back by defeating East Tennessee and getting revenge against Tennessee Tech; thus setting up the game-of-the-year in the OVC. The Govs travelled to Western Kentucky for the last regular season game only to bow out to the Hilltoppers on a disappointing and controversial last-second shot.

The Govs found themselves paired against twice-beaten Murray State for their first-round game. Despite a strong Murray attack, the Govs did manage to beat the Pacers to gain a semi-final birth at Bowling Green.

TOP LEFT: Senior Charlie Fishback shows that he can play with the big men as he leaps high into the air to make a pass. ABOVE: Sophomore Gary Greene (40) set Gov fans on their feet this season as he came off the bench game after game to keep the Govs rolling. LEFT: Center Ralph Garner demonstrates the sky-hook against Old Dominion.

The Governors were led this season by Sam Drummer, a freshman, with a 16.7 point average; followed closely by sophomore Otis Howard (16.0) and senior Charlie Fishback (15.9). "Dr. O" also led the Gobs in rebounding with a 10.1 per game mark.

ABOVE: Norman Jackson seems to have been caught in the wrong place at the wrong time by Old Dominion opponents. TOP RIGHT: Juan Smith does the back-step to make this tip. RIGHT: And Otis Howard (45) gets into the act of dancing as he waits on a rebound.

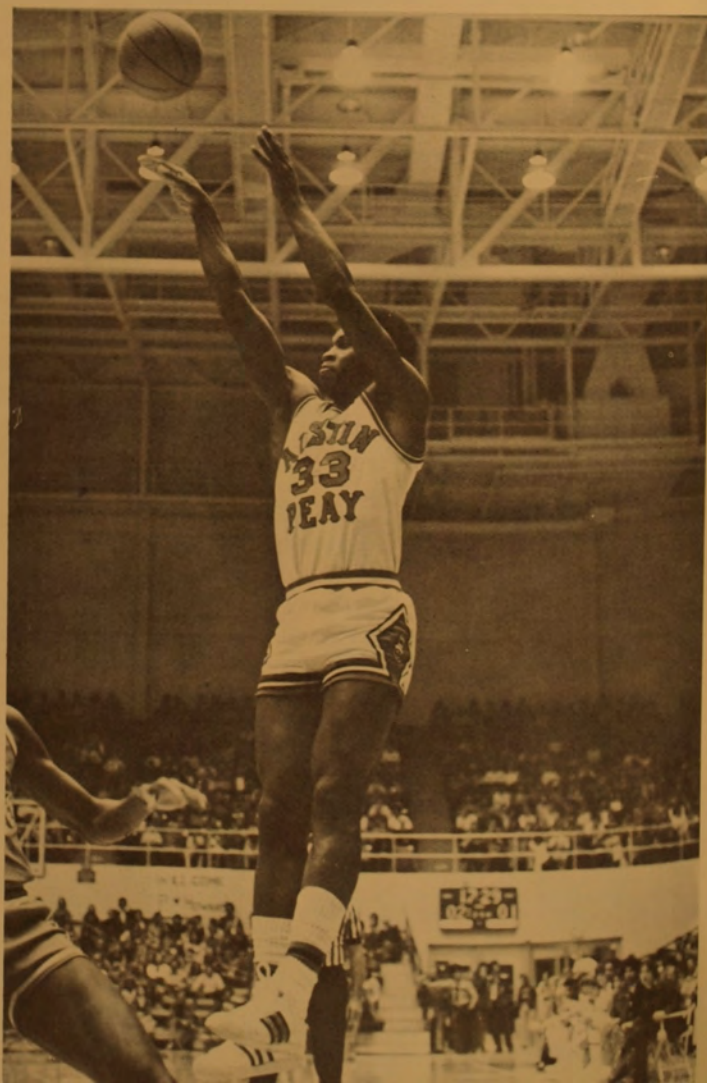

The Governors found themselves in a great position to set up a rematch with top rival Western as they paired up against Morehead in their semi-final match. However, as happened many times during the season, the Govs could not hold on to a big lead. A hot-shooting Morehead team outshot and outlasted the Govs to close out any Governor hopes for a NCAA bid.

Lake Kelly, in his fifth year at APSU, coached the Govs to 20-7 won-loss mark during the 1975-76 season. The Govs finished second only to Western Kentucky in the final OVC standings with a record of 10 wins to only four losses. The Govs also began a home game record for their new dwelling place in the Winfield Dunn Center with an unblemished 13-0 record.

The Gov linksmen of the 1975 season dropped from their third place finish of 1974, to seventh place in the O.V.C. tournament. In the tournament the Govs were led by Jim Bewley, Eddie Gleichman, and Leon Hawk; all of which posted a 79.7 average.

TOP: Sophomore Jim Bewley from Glasgow, Ky. stands in confidence after he rolls a putt in the hole. RIGHT: Senior Leon Hawk sizes up a putt at Fort Campbell.

The Govs tied for first in their own Fall Mid-South Classic, but lost out to the University of Mississippi on the first hole playoff. Finally, the Govs finished third in the Opryland Invitational.

The Gavs began their spring season on the wrong foot and finished 16th in the Colonel Classic at Richmond, Ky. However, the Gavs fared much better the following week in the Mid-South Classic when they finished a strong third.

The Gov linksmen were edged out of second place in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Tournament at Sewanee, Tenn. One point behind Middle Tenn, the Govs finished third. Finally, the Govs traveled to Eastern Ky. to face the other O.V.C. teams for the conference championship. The Govs could only manage seventh place.

TRACK

Records are made to be broken and the Govs did just that during the 1975 track season. The Govs set new school records in 7 categories in outdoor performances and in 7 categories in indoor performances. Coveak Moody broke two of those records himself by running the 220-yard run in 21.2 seconds and the 100-yard in 9.5 seconds. Moody also joined with Dan Taillon, Elton Pilot, and Anthony Carter in setting a new 440-yard relay record at 40.9 seconds.

The Governors finished third in the Ohio Valley Track meet held in Richmond, Ky. during the 1975 season. The Govs finished 23 points behind second-place Morehead and 32 points ahead of fourth place Middle Tenn.

With the third place Ohio Valley finish behind conference champion Western Kentucky, the Govs fared well among the other O.V.C. schools. Gary Eason and Anthony Carter qualified to compete in the 1975 NCAA Indoor Track Championships in Detroit, Michigan. Eason finished sixth in the pole vault competition with a 16'5" mark. Carter finished eighth in the long jump at 24'3".

TENNIS

The Governors found how tough it was to stay on top last year. After winning its first O.V.C. Tennis title in 1974, the Gobs dropped to third place in the O.V.C. championships last season. The Gobs' 33-21 individual singles conference mark just wasn't enough during the 1975 season.

B A S E B A L L

The Governor baseball team improved upon their previous record this season by finishing with a 22-14 record. However, in the games that really counted — OVC matches — the Gavs could only muster a 3-3 mark.

The Gavs were tough to beat at home this year as they posted a 14-4 record in Clarksville. But the Gavs had their problems getting a win on the road. However, they did finish the season in great style by winning five of their last seven games, six of which were played on the road.

TOP: Third baseman, Dave Simonton takes his stance in readiness for any ball hit his way. ABOVE: Eddie Beam (19) waits on a slow curve ball.

By defeating Murray, Vanderbilt, Tenn Tech, North Alabama, and David Lipscomb, the Gobs finished the season with a 22-14 overall record and 3-3 in the Ohio Valley Conference. Their 3-3 mark in the O.V.C. allowed the Gobs to finish in second place in the Western Division behind conference champion Murray State.

LEFT: Pitcher Allan Stalnaker (33) takes a big stride into this pitch. ABOVE: Shortstop Eddie Beam takes the throw and aims toward first in order to complete the double play.

WOMEN'S

SPORTS

There is nothing new about women's sports — except that it is quickly growing to be as important as men's sports! With all the new laws about equal opportunity, women's sports has taken on a new look. The new look is a look of importance and keen interest and competition. APSU currently offers intercollegiate athletics for women in four different areas: volleyball, basketball, golf, and tennis.

The women's sports program at Austin Peay is becoming a very important feature of the university's total athletic program.

The Lady Gavs posted a 10-11 record over the 1975-76 season under first-year coach Sally Shute. Considering that the Gavs had two seniors and only one junior on the squad, it was a very successful season. The two seniors on this season's team were Co-captains Rosa Black and Judy Mason. Linda Highfull was the only junior. The Lady Gavs will return three sophomores and three freshmen to the court next year.

TOP RIGHT: Senior Co-captain Rosa Black goes up for this rebound against the Hilltoppers of Western Kentucky.

RIGHT: Junior center, Linda Highfull (25) puts the defense on at the baseline as Rosa Black helps out from behind.

The Lady Govs posted a 8-9 mark for the past season before entering the Small College State Tournament at Maryville, Tennessee. The Govs defeated both Fisk and Lambuth College, before losing to Tusculum and Carson Newman in the double-elimination tournament.

Certainly big things are expected for the Govs in the years to come.

Austin Peay State University also provides women's athletic competition in golf. Coaching the golf team is Dr. Lea Larson. With a young team, Coach Larson looks forward to the upcoming season with great hopes and expectations. Last season Jane Jensen and Kathy Conner participated in the National Tournament which was a first time event for the APSU women golfers.

Tennis is a game which seems to be catching on everywhere. And it is no different at Austin Peay — especially for the ladies. The Lady Governors seem to be improving day-by-day and it shouldn't be long until APSU will be challenging in the state tournament. The 1976 season has found coach Sally Shute as the instructor for the team. Shute is in her first year at Austin Peay as the head basketball and tennis coach.

CHEERLEADERS

Enthusiasm, vitality, and dedication are all words of motto for the Austin Peay cheerleading squad. On the field, or on the court, the cheerleaders show their spirit in an effort to involve the fans in support of the Austin Peay football and basketball teams.

The APSU cheerleaders also participate in camps, judgments and other school activities. The 1975-76 squad won a special "superior" award, three "superior" ribbons, and an "excellent" ribbon in competition in Memphis last spring. They were also judged one of the top 10 teams in the Memphis camp.

The cheerleaders also help with the local Heart fund Association and in building the Queen's Float for the Homecoming Parade.

INTRAMURAL RECREATION

RECREATION

Intramurals is a part of every college of university. But Austin Peay has something different. APSU offers a full program in "Intramural Recreation." Intramural Recreation involves a lot more than just competitive activities. It involves every possible and potential person at the university.

Included in the variety of activities is: Flag Football, Tennis, Co-Rec Football, Men's and Women's Intertube Water Basketball, Table Tennis, Billiards, Softball, Volleyball, Cross Country and many others.

Intramural Recreation involves more than fraternities and sororities competing for awards. It is a means and an opportunity for the whole university to participate in some worth-while activity for recreation.

A big part of the APSU program is simply "open-recreation" where facilities and equipment is made available to the student and faculty member.

INTRAMURAL

The philosophy of Intramural Recreation is "Friendship First, Competition Second." The whole program is aimed at providing for all APSU students a way to recreate in some form or fashion. The headquarters for Intramural Recreation is located in the Memorial Recreational Complex which houses a gymnasium, a swimming pool, badminton courts, storage for outside equipment, and the office of the director.

Coach Bob Neilson is the director of the intramural recreation program.

The APSU Photographers are directed by Mr. Gerald Tenney, and Karla Brown is secretary. This staff has worked many diligent hours to capture all events around campus on film. They aid the Farewell and Hail, The All State, and other University organizations. They are a dedicated working group responsible for being on location when a camera is needed.

APSU PHOTOGRAPHERS

THE ALL STATE

The All State is the award-winning weekly student newspaper of Austin Peay State University, earning the coveted A + rating from the National Newspaper Service. The publication was also rated first class by the Associated Collegiate Press. It has been active in efforts to revitalize the Tennessee Collegiate Press Association, has worked to amend the Board of Student Publication's Constitution, and co-sponsored the First All-American APSU Bicentennial Facial Hair Growing Extravaganza, a campus-wide bicentennial public involvement project.

FAREWELL AND HAIL

The 1975-76 Farewell and Hail staff dedicated itself to preserving the yearbook tradition at APSU. This book serves as a pictorial account of the years activities, and is the 31st edition of the Farewell and Hail. The 288-page volume holds many memories for all persons who have been a part of Austin Peay and wish to remember their years as a student or administrator. For this purpose the staff, under the guidance of Mr. Gerald Tenney, has devoted itself to keeping the yearbook alive.

MENC

MENC stands for Music Educators National Conference. It is composed of students and faculty who are interested in music education. It is a non-profit organization and tries to acquaint its members with the standards of music in this country. Their annual conference was held in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest

Dale Wasserman after Ken Kesey

The AP Playhouse presented "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" by Dale Wasserman. This was the second play of the season and was directed by Dr. I.J. Filippo. It is a funny, yet touching, clash between the individual and the institution set in an insane asylum. The cast and crew worked diligently on this production and their efforts were apparent in the outstanding performances.

(a musical)

"Roar of the Greasepaint, the Smell of the Crowd", was presented by the AP Playhouse in the Trahern building. It is a musical written by Leslie Bricusse and Anthony Newley, and was directed by Francis Brown. The Instrumental Ensemble consisted of a pianist, bass guitar, and drums. The theatrical group again performed magnificently for the viewers of this production.

Edward Albee's
WHO'S
WOOLF?

"Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?", is the first and most outstanding full-length play by Edward Albee. In this production Albee criticizes the deceit, hypocrisy, and immorality of people who must rise to positions of leadership for the sake of the future. It was presented by the AP Playhouse and directed by Dr. I.J. Filippo. Cast included Chris Crow, John Woolam, Frances Brown, and Kathy Watts.

"THE LIBRARY"

In the past years "The Library" has become a refuge for many overworked students at Austin Peay. It is situated close enough to the campus for students, with or without transportation, to find relaxation and gather with their friends. It serves as a meeting point before and after ball-games, at the beginning of new quarters, at the end of old ones. It's gayly painted red and white exterior has already become a landmark for the college campus

"SUGAR DADDY'S"

Sugar Daddy's is a new establishment that opened this year in the Clarksville area. Austin Peay students can enjoy a fun-filled evening of partying and dancing in the new discotheque, while "Jimmy-in-the-morning" plays the top hit records of the year. It became a favorite spot for the young people during its first few opening nights.

THE FINAL WORD

On this page, the editors page, I will try to wrap up the whole book. The book this year consists of 288 pages, 16 full color. The cover is a photograph of a magazine rack, therefore to bring the total book together. The book is divided up into different sections consisting of; "Life," a look at Austin Peay and the type of life we live; "Newsweek," contains administration, honor societies, APSU President, and various topics "Playgirl," a woman's section, has male photogenics, sororities, and women's organizations, while "Playboy," a man's section has female photogenics and fraternities. "Sports Illustrated," contains all sports in which is participated by APSU. The "People," section is devoted to faculty and classes. "Rolling Stones," contains all concerts and music organization. I appreciate greatly having had the permission to use the following magazines as division pages; "Life", "Newsweek", "Playgirl", "Playboy", "Rolling Stones", "Sports Illustrated", and "People".

Without the help of many people this book would not be possible. I would like to thank everyone at Austin Peay State University, but this would be almost impossible. Without all these people Austin Peay would not be Austin Peay. The following are several people that stand out when I think about the preparation of this book.

The members of Photographic Services who made the photography of this successfully. The chief photographers who contributed their time and skills were, Donovan Earhart, Anthony Choate, Larry Safko, Larry Schmidt, Ken Davis, James Celsor, Robert Smith, and members of Photographic Services — because without these people this book would not have possible. Also I would like to thank Karla Brown, secretary of Photographic Services for helping me greatly in developing pictures and sending photographers on assignments for me.

Special thanks goes to Ron Fontes and Lisa Shelton for doing the artwork need for this book.

The staff of the Farewell and Hail deserve the most praise for all their long hard hours of work and being understanding of me when I pushed them to complete their sections. Special thanks goes to Lynn Ellis, assistant editor, who did the sections on administration, Riggs, Morgan, wrote copy for the opening section. Wrenea Perkins, associate editor, was greatly appreciated for doing the "Rolling Stones" section. Sports editor, Kenny Clouse, also deserves a special thanks for doing the "Sports Illustrated" section. The other staff members were Carol Lee, Jordan Beers, Ronsonlyn Sholar, Margaret Langford, and Diane Coakley, which I thank for all their help. Also I would like to thank Debbie Bishop and Ronald Russell for typing and proof reading. Without the help of all these people this book would not exist.

I would also like to thank Jeff Bibb and "The All State" for helping me with various information. Thanks goes out to all administration, faculty, and organizations for all their cooperation throughout the preparation of this book.

Our advisor, Mr. Gerald Tenney, is the person I praise most for helping us through so many problems. Thanks Mr. Tenney for working late with us, but mostly for just being there when needed.

The issue of Farewell and Hail was printed by American Yearbook Company, a division of Josten's, in Clarksville, Tennessee. A special thanks goes out to Mr. Johnny Lovier and Mr. John Lowney who helped us with several problems.

The 31st issue of the Farewell and Hail is dedicated to the Bicentennial of America, in hopes America will live to celebrate in 200 more years.

The total book is done in a different way than before, but hopefully in good taste. I have tried to present Austin Peay in a different way but not be partial to any sex, race, religion, or organization, but equal to everyone.

In the long hard hours of putting this book together the point I hoped to reach everyone was that life goes on after college, but that these are the good days to look back on and say what a good year 1976 was and not be sorry. I hope that this book will help you remember all the good times at the big PEAY.
