

Can we reach 'U' status?

"Within a very few years at the most, APSC will logically pass from a college to a university," stated President Joe Morgan last Thursday.

Although being the only college in the OVC will have "little effect" upon APSC, becoming a university is inevitable. According to the president, "APSC now has the nucleus of a university, only needing slight additional development and organization."

Internally, by present day standards, a university is two or more colleges contained within the larger unit. APSC possesses several departments quite capable of becoming schools, or "divisions" as they will probably be called, when the transition takes place.

In view of the fact that the four Kentucky institutions in the Ohio Valley Conference have recently achieved university status and, further, that APSC is the only state-supported institution of higher education in Tennessee presently not a university, THE ALL STATE APPROACHED President Morgan.

This exclusive interview by Mildred Woods, editor-in-chief, is of major concern to the college community.

Three such divisions presently cited are liberal arts, applied arts and sciences and education. There will either be a dean or chairman chosen for each division.

Just how soon the steps to becoming a university are taken depends largely on the feelings of the students, alumni and faculty. As soon as proper interest is expressed by these groups, a request will be made to the Tennessee State Board of Education for consideration.

Several factors enter in the decision for obtaining university status; however, recruiting seems to hold top position over most of these. Many prospective students choose other state institutions over APSC, as they can attend them for the same nominal fee and, yet, receive their education from a university rather than a college.

This does not even touch on the recruiting of athletes on these two levels (different in name only).

Many misconceptions and false impressions concerning the matter at hand have been reported. There has even been a rumor to the effect that APSC applied for university status and was turned down.

One other angle following this same train of thought concerns the naming of the university. Although everyone agrees that Daniel Peay was a great man and did much for the development of education, it appears that a geographical name would be more appropriate for the institution. This would in no way be meant to take away the idea of tribute paid to the former governor; it would, instead, be for the purpose of establishing an accurate locality and aiding in the progressiveness of the institution.

Changing the name of the school would entail legislation and, therefore, it seems that both actions taken at once would simplify matters considerably.

The Montgomery County News called APSC the future "University of Northern Tennessee" and several individuals have proposed the change to North Tennessee State University. Others simply sanction North Tennessee University.

Don Shirley

CC presents jazz trio

"Not only is he great musically, but he has the fingers to exercise his greatness."

Duke Ellington used these words to describe Don Shirley, pianist and creator of the Don Shirley Trio. This group is to be presented 8 p.m. Saturday in the final Community Concert of the season.

The jazz group is equally at home in classical, folk and contemporary music. The sense of freedom in Don Shirley's approach to music reveals his musical curiosity and his gift of creativity.

No "formal" printed program is offered for the performance. After judging the personality and reaction of the audience, Shirley chooses numbers from the large repertoire to bring more pleasure to the majority of those attending.

Although presented informally, the performance is not improvised. The music which the trio plays is carefully worked out by Shirley before each season, and it is based on solid musical foundations.

Immediately after auditioning them, the pianist hired Martin Slicker, bassist, and Ronald Nappo, bassist and guitarist, for the present tour. This season's tour reaches 60 cities.

Born in Kingston, Jamaica, Shirley began learning music from his mother. He was invited to study at the Leningrad Conservatory at age 9. He has also become known as an expert in the field of liturgical music.

After his American debut with the Boston Pope Orchestra in 1945, he has appeared with many orchestras as guest conductor or soloist. Shirley's compositions include symphonies, four "organ symphonies," piano pieces, two string quartets and a piano concert. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

Miller wins Woodrow Wilson Fellowship

Lewis Dudley Miller has been awarded the coveted Woodrow Wilson Fellowship for the academic year 1966-67.

From over 11,000 applicants, 1,408 were selected from 380 colleges and universities throughout the U. S. and Canada.

Woodrow Wilson Fellows get one academic year of graduate education (with tuition and fees paid by the foundation), a living stipend of $2,000 and allowances for their dependent children. The graduate school they choose to attend receives an additional grant from the Foundation.

Miller is a senior, majoring in physics and mathematics. He plans to do his graduate work at the University of Florida.

APSC and Memphis State were the only two state-supported institutes of higher learning which won a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship this year; the rest were awarded to students enrolled in private colleges or universities.

RECEIVES WOODROW WILSON FELLOWSHIP — Lewis Dudley Miller, APSC senior, has been awarded one of four fellowships in physics in the Ark.-Ky.-Miss.-Tenn. region for the 1966-67 year. He plans to do graduate work at the University of Florida next year.

Professor Preston J. Hubbard, campus representative for the history department, is APSC's Woodrow Wilson foundation.

CHAMBER CHOIR — In concert last Saturday were the APSC Chamber Choir and Orchestra. This is the Chamber Choir's second year of existence, being an outgrowth of the Madrigal Singers. The substance of the choir's performance was a series of 17th century religious music, while the orchestra played an overture to an opera by Gluck. (Photos by Gerald Tenney)

TVA research intensifies

by JIM PHILLIPS

Ever since two of APSC's departments, history and biology, were awarded three-year contracts for research for the "land-between-the-lakes" project, all systems have been "go."

The wheels of research are turning fast and furious and the reports of progress in both departments' concerned are being made.

Dr. Milton Henry of the history department reports that he is still collecting data, but his main concern at the present time is the iron business of this area.

In the 1840's the iron business in what is now Lyon County, Kentucky was one of the largest in the Tennessee Valley region.

The TVA is to release a brochure of the project in the early summer and one of the pictures will be the center furnace from one of the iron works that was located in Lyon County.

Church records, Henry reports, are an invaluable source of material but the only early records he has been able to find are those of the Baptist church and of the Catholic church.

The research by the history and biology departments for the "land-between-the-lakes" project is to be completed by 1968.

Researchers in the biology department are Dr. William Ellis, who is specializing in the research of vascular plants in the project; Dr. Haskell Phillips, who is doing research in lichens and ferns; and David Snyder, who is researching reptiles and amphibians.

Dr. Ellis reported that at the present time 1500 collections have been found and identified. These specimens are being collected in duplicate so that one

Closing hours for our dorms: how they compare with the other state colleges'

by VICKI KEITH

Progress, I have recently found, is best measured by comparing ourselves to those less advanced than we. As long as someone else is still behind us in our progressive society, all is not lost. But what about those more advanced? Forget them.

In a recent discussion with our dean of women, the fact that one state university's dormitory closing hours are no less lenient than ours was made pointedly evident. After all, why should we complain when Tennessee Tech's weekend hours are 11 p.m. and 12 p.m., respectively, for all women residents?

What are the standards for the other four state-supported institutions in this state? Telephone calls to the deans of women revealed the following:

TENNESSEE A&T, Freshmen: 10 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday; Sophomores: 10:15 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 12 p.m., Friday and Saturday; Juniors: 10:30 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 12:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday; Seniors: 11 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 1 a.m., Friday and Saturday.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY: Freshmen: 9:45 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 11:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday; Sophomores: 10 p.m., Sunday - Thursday; 11:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday; Juniors and seniors: 10:30 p.m., Sunday - Thursday. All residents have 1 a.m. permission Friday and Saturday.

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY: Freshmen: 10:30 p.m., Sunday - Thursday with a 2.5 average; otherwise, 7:50 p.m., Sophomores, juniors and seniors have 10:30 p.m. on these nights. All residents have 12 p.m. permission on Friday and Saturday.

Let us be thankful for the fact that one other school is no more progressed than we; otherwise, we might have to look forward to an error was made on my part in my article printed on this page last week, I stated that all women residents were required to live on campus. This is not so.

On page 44 of the 1966-67 college catalogue, it is stated that "Until all dormitories are filled, full-time resident students are required to room in the dormitories unless permission is granted by the Dean of Students or Dean of Women for other arrangements."

I hereby stand corrected. We are not required to live here, only strongly encouraged to do so. But we are bound to the rules, and the only alternatives are to abide by them or try to get them changed, updated, and that's up to you.

Candidates planning to run for ASB offices should submit petitions no later than noon April 1. Class officer petitions are due May 4.

How long will the administration try to play parent - turn a deaf ear? David Tucker, Freshman class president

From the ASB president's desk:

The deadline for the election of your officers is May 16, 1966. All clubs must have had the election of your club or organization's major officers (i.e., president, vice president, secretary, etc.) by this deadline and submit their names to the ASB office.

We are especially concerned about the office of Student Senate Representative. Two representatives are to be elected as stated by the constitution of the Associated Student Body of Austin Peay State College, Article III, Legislative Branch, Section 3: "Each club, organization, fraternity, etc., shall send two representatives to the respective council in which it participates. These representatives shall elect the required number of members to the Student Senate for their council. No person shall represent more than one council on the Senate."

The election of these officers in the spring quarter is necessary to facilitate the organization of the ASB Senate in the fall quarter of the following school year (1966-67).

This matter is extremely important to us. If you fail to comply with this deadline, you will be assessed a penalty by the Student Court. Please do not be delinquent.

Freedom of the press

It applies to us, too

Freedom of the press is guaranteed by the Constitution. And the 1966-67 Austin Peay State College Bulletin states, "The College newspaper, edited by the students, is a publication for the expression of student opinion."

Yet last week, following an article by Vicki Keith, entitled, "The dormitory 'campus' Does such a penalty belong in a progressive era?" which was printed in THE ALL STATE, one dean took it upon herself to question this right.

She called the editors of THE ALL STATE into her office and for one hour and 45 minutes badgered us about the article which had been printed.

We are not defending nor disputing Miss Keith's article. That was her personal opinion, as was evident by the fact that it was under her by-line and on the editorial page.

But we are defending her right to express that opinion in THE ALL STATE.

THE ALL STATE is for the students of Austin Peay State.

It was not designed to present a rosy picture of our campus to other college campuses. The argument that such an article is detrimental to our "image" is superfluous.

A student newspaper is not a propaganda sheet for the administration. It is run by the students for the students. Students have the right to question administrative policies, within its pages, as long as it is in good taste and is not libelous. Miss Keith's article, despite this dean's opinion, was both.

This questioning does not necessarily mean defiance nor a desire to stir up rebellion in the ranks where it supposedly did not exist before, as was also implied.

If students are afraid to question administrative policies which affect them without having to submit their opinion to "the proper channels" before it can be printed, the student newspaper becomes a farce. If this is what this administrator wants, then she should put out her own paper.

We realize that this dean has a difficult position -- one that involves making decisions that can't please everyone. But if she is willing to hold such a position of responsibility, then she should be able to take the questioning of, or even opposition to, the policies that such a position entails. And instead of badgering the editors, she should have written a letter to the editor explaining the reasons behind the policy.

On the whole, the administration has respected THE ALL STATE's right to act as a voice of the students. We appreciate this.

But we are not going to allow one administrator to make a sham of our student newspaper.

Dear Editor,

I was glad to see that it was the students' voice -- not only one -- THE ALL STATE, which shed the first beam of light on a feudal practice grossly outdated and out of place on a college campus.

The practice of "campusing" girls who "get out of line" is symbolic of the administration's deeply conservative policy towards social life. Such regulations as the campus or early curfew hours at worst destroy the you're-on-your-own concept of a college education; at best serve as a pacifier to those parents who worry how their daughter is going to make it "all by herself" with no one to keep motherly watch over her. In either case, the interests of the person who matters, the student, are neglected.

The campus is not a reminder. It is discipline by threat, a threat that, if carried out, is more

Schmidt honored on Slater anniversary

Slater Food Service is having an anniversary!

ARA Slater Company took over the cafeteria operation in March, 1964, thus making them two years old this month. They decided to celebrate their birthday by honoring someone whom they thought had done an outstanding job for APSC.

They have selected Dr. Aaron

Schmidt, professor of music. States Tom Nease, manager of the cafeteria, "We realize this selection was made from a point of view, but we are sure that many members of the faculty, student body and community will agree."

All students, faculty members and friends are invited by the cafeteria management to a reception given in honor of Dr. Schmidt, which will mark the anniversary of the cafeteria at the same time.

The reception will be held in the Harvill Cafeteria, 2:30-3:30 p.m., Sunday.

Lights installed by city council

The Clarksville City Council passed a motion Thursday night authorizing the Clarksville Department of Electricity to install two street lights around the maintenance building at APSC.

The building was given in 1963 to the college by the old United States Tobacco Company and since then has had several reports of vandalism. Officials believe the placing of these lights will aid in the stoppage of these acts.

Reed & Barton competition concludes soon

There are only three weeks left in Reed & Barton's "Silver Opinion" Scholarship Competition. The competition, in which Austin Peay State has been selected to participate, is open to all undergraduate women on this campus and offers over $7,000 in scholarships and awards.

In the "Silver Opinion Competition" 12 designs of sterling and eight designs of both china and crystal are illustrated. The entrant simply lists the three best combinations of sterling, china and crystal from those shown.

Scholarships and awards will be made to those entries matching or coming closest to the unanimous selections of table-setting editors from three of the nation's leading magazines.

Miss Lolly Jackson is the student representative conducting the competition for Reed & Barton at Austin Peay State. Those interested in entering should contact Miss Jackson for entry blanks and for complete details concerning the competition rules.

She also has samples of the 12 Reed & Barton sterling patterns featured in the competition so that entrants can see how these sterling patterns actually look.

APSC Closeup

Basketball much improved

Now that basketball season is over one can look back and see some of the high points and low marks of the season without wondering about an upcoming game. The Governors really gave a respectable showing in spite of the fact that they had very little experience.

With just two seniors the scarlet and white demonstrated amazing team spirit after suffering so many close defeats. One point decisions usually dampen the desire of most clubs; however, APSC stayed together the entire campaign. As a result the Gavs won more games than they did last year and, more important, set the foundation for a good season next year.

Top 6 return

In fact, Fisher's starting five and first reserve will return for the coming year. Included in that sextet are 6-6 Tommy Head, 6-4 Melvin Van Hooser, 6-3 Hal Jackson, 5-9 Dennis Snyder, 6-7 1/2 Bob Burnett and 6-3 Andy Toombs.

Head finished the campaign in the top spot in scoring and rebounding as he marked up 18.2 points per contest and grabbed 10.1 loose balls each outing. "Flex" Snyder was right behind Head as he burned the nets for 16.2 points per tilt.

Other top scorers include Jackson (13.8), Van Hooser (8.6), Gene Wilkerson (8.4), Virgil McElfresh (5.4) and Burnett (5.2). McElfresh and Wilkerson were the only two seniors on this year's contingent.

Expected to bolster the attack for the coming season are sophomores-to-be Charlie Moore, 6-7 Holly Heaberlin, 5-10 Tris Kingston and 6-3 Terry Young.

This year's varsity went into the record book as the best Gov free throw shooting club in history. Presently ranked No. 2 in the nation, APSC hit charity tosses at a torrid .783 clip.

File 13

One half of Eastern Kentucky State University's starting backfield in football season will not be returning this fall. These two, Bob Wester and Herman Carter, have been drafted and must serve a hitch in the service before playing any more college ball.

Spring football has been going strong for one week and the Governors will culminate the second week's activities with the first of two intrasquad games.

The game, which will be played Saturday, will take place in Tullahoma. The Gavs will be divided into two groups for the 7:30 p.m. attraction at Wilkins Stadium.

The contest is sponsored by the Civic and Service Council. Tickets are now on sale in Tullahoma. Win-theater, Fayetteville and Leedburg at $1 each.

The second intrasquad tilt, the regular Red and White spring affair, will be held in April after a break for final exams.

Approximately 70 candidates are vying for positions for the 1966 team. Posting an 8-1 mark in 1964 and 8-1 slate last year, APSC has been Ohio Valley Conference runner-up two straight years.

Thus far the footballers have been working on personnel changes, fundamentals and acquainting the freshmen with polices on offense and defense.

Moore top scorer in freshman ranks

Charlie Moore, outstanding 6-2 forward from Earlington, Ky., was high scorer and rebounder on the 1965-66 APSC freshman team, according to final statistics.

Moore, who was hampered by a knee injury at the seasons end, averaged 19.2 tallies a game and grabbed 14.1 rebounds per tilt for the "Baby Gavs," who finished with a 10-9 slate.

Under the direction of assistant coach Fred Overton and graduate assistant Steve Miller, the frosh finished strong to rank as one of APSC's better rookie squads.

Other varsity contenders who tallied in the double-digit column were: 6-3 Holly Heaberlin, Worthington, Ky., (16.5); 5-10 Tris Kingston, Morton Gap, Ky., (11.5); and 6-7 Terry Young, Blaine, Ky., (10.7).

Averaging 6.5 per outing, Don West, 5-11 guard from Blaine, Ky., turned in some spectacular efforts for the Baby Gavs to grab the No. 5 scoring slot.

Moore also was top in field goal percentage (.483), while Kingston led the regulars in free throw percentage (.709).

Heaberlin getting 9.2 rebounds a contest and Young grabbing 8.9 an outing, trailed Moore in the rebounding column.

As a unit, the freshmen averaged 53.7 per game, while holding their opposition to an 80.3 mark per contest.

Hilltoppers down Gavs in finale, 76-63

OHIO VALLEY conference champion Western Kentucky completed their romp of league foes by stopping APSC 76-63, Thursday night.

Leading most of the first half, the Gavs saw the Hilltoppers drop in two charity tosses before the intermission to take a 30-28 advantage and go on to win their 23rd contest while only having two setbacks.

Western hit 33 to 74 from the field for a 44.6 percent while the Gavs managed a 41.5 percent, 27 out of 67 attempts.

Picking off 50 rebounds, the Hilltoppers held an advantage as the George Fisher coached squad controlled only 32 loose balls.

MENTOR JOHNNY OLDHAM had four boys in double figures with Wayne Chapman (18), Clem Haskins (17), Steve Cunningham (15) and Dwight Smith (14) providing the attack.

Center Tommy Head rattled the goal for 20 counters and Dennis Snyder threw in 11 for APSC. Hal Jackson and Mel Van Hooser sank 10 each.

Finishing with a league record of 3 wins and 11 defeats, the Gavs were 7-14 in all games played.

Bulletin

Western Kentucky, the Ohio Valley Conference representative to the NCAA tournament, ramblled past Loyola of Chicago Monday night by a score of 105-86.

The Hilltoppers played a near perfect game as they shot well rebounded well and handled the ball well. For John Oldham, Western mentor, it was sweet revenge over a 1962 loss at the hands of the Chicago School.

Oldham was coaching at Tack that season when they were defeated by the eventual national champs.

Western was led by Dwight Smith and Clem Haskins. Smith tallied 29 points and made some remarkable moves, as did Haskins, who countered 25 points.

APSC succumbs to Murray in overtime

On the short end of a 40-33 halftime score, Murray State University felled 13 straight points to eventually ramble on to a 80-73 overtime victory at the APSC Governors' expense.

MELVIN VAN HOOSER

MEL VAN HOOSER shined in a 14-foot jump shot during the closing seconds of the affair to lead the score 67-61.

However, the Racers hit another one of their hot spells, pumping in eight straight points in the overtime action to drop the Govs.

Tommy Head topped the Gov offensive pattern with 16 points, followed by Van Hooser with 15, Andy Tomlin and Hal Jackson 14, and Bob Burnett 13. Twenty-four points were credited to Murray guard Mill Pitts while his running mate Don Duncan poured in 19.

Having a cold first half, the APSC freshmen fell short on a second period rally as they dropped their season finale, 92-87, to the Murray State yearlings. SPORTING ONLY 23 points at the rest period, the "Baby Govs" came back to within 11 of the Racers, 60-49, when the roof fell in. Forward Charlie Moore and 6-7 Terry Young were removed from the game via the foul route as the frosh dropped their ninth contest.

They closed their slate with 10 victories. Reliable Holly Heaberlin tossed in 23 for the Govs, while Moore with 12 and Young having 10 finished the double-digit scoring.

Six-seven Jim Stokes tipped in 29 for the Kentuckians and Rick Haverstock connected for 24 markers to defeat the Govs.

Netters to open season at WKSU

Having a 2-5 worksheet last year, the APSC tennis team will be facing their toughest opposition in history when they open their program on April 2.

Directed by Fred Overton, the netters will participate in 12 matches, two each against Western Kentucky, Tennessee Tech, Murray State, Middle Tennessee, U-T Martin and Kentucky Wesleyan.

The schedule includes: April 2—at Western Kentucky; 5—Tennessee Tech; 9—at Tennessee Tech; 14—at U-T Martin; 16—Western Kentucky; 22—at Kentucky Wesleyan; 25—Kentucky Wesleyan; 26—at Murray State; 28-29—Tennessee Intercollegiate at Murfreesboro.

May 2—U-T Martin; 3—Middle Tennessee; 10—at Middle Tennessee; 12—Murray State; 20-21—Ohio Valley Conference at Richmond, Ky.

Intramural champion to be decided

APSC's intramural basketball tournament is being held this week in Memorial Gymnasium. Quarterfinals were held Monday night.

One semi-final contest will be held tonight and the final championship tilt will be played tomorrow.

Out of eight divisions there were seven teams which made it through their three-game schedule undefeated.

Two squads, Jake's Jerks and the Redeyes, were hardly pushed in their contests. In fact, the closest any team came to touching the Jerks was when the Roundballers came within 21 points to fall 72-51.

Trip to Florida in store for duffers

TRAVELING TO Coral Gables, Fla., Coach Sherwin Cliff's golf squad will open an attractive 10-match schedule, participating in the University of Miami Invitational March 23-26.

Riding on a 10-5-1 effort last season, the Gov linksmen will play six dual matches and two triangulars.

Newcomers on the slate include Sewanee and the University of Chattanooga.

The slate:

March 23-26—University of Miami Invitational at Coral Gables, Fla.

April 1—at Vanderbilt; 5—University of Chattanooga; 8—at David Lipscomb; 9-5 Sewanee and David Lipscomb at Sewanee; 15-16—Tennessee Intercollegiate at Sewanee; 25—Tennessee Tech; 29—at the University of Chattanooga.

May 5-7—Murray State Invitational at Gilbertville, Ky.; 11—at Murray State; 14—David Lipscomb and Murray State; 20-21—Ohio Valley Conference at Richmond, Ky.

Scarlet and white prepare for April diamond opener

Veteran Leon Sandifer, starting his 15th season as the head mentor, will send his baseball charges against Wittenberg, April 4, in the season opener, giving able assistance will be Jim Lane.

Among the 23 games on the agenda, the Governors will play home-and-home double-headers against Ohio Valley Conference Western Division foes Murray State, Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky.

Holding a not-so-good 5-12 outcome last season, the Govs will be out to improve Sandifer's overall record of 107-100 at APSC.

The Schedule includes:

April 4—Wittenberg; 9—Bethel (Minn.) (2); 12—David Lipscomb (2); 15—at Murray State (2); 16—at David Lipscomb (2); 23—Middle Tennessee (2); 25—Murray State (2); 30-31 at Kentucky Wesleyan.

May 2—at Middle Tennessee (2); 7—Western Kentucky (2); 13—at Tennessee Tech (2); 17—at Kentucky Wesleyan.

McElfresh tabbed as captain

VIRGIL MCFRESH

Virgil McElfresh, senior from Washington, Ill. and Melvin Van Hooser, native of Greenville, Ky., were elected captain and co-captain for the 1965-66 edition by their teammates.

Although not a regular figure in the starting line-up, McElfresh has been an inspiration to the team and to the school during his four years at APSC.

The 6-4 forward averaged 5.4 points a contest. Van Hooser, 6-4 guard, rimmed an average of 8.3 counters per outing. He also came on strong in the latter part of the season to aid in Gov titles.

New balance beam

Gymnastics class initiated

by BETTY PARIS

Grace and poise — two essentials of a woman gymnast!

Every Monday and Wednesday afternoon beginning at approximately 4:30, Miss Mary E. Chambliss can be found in the recreation room of the Austin Peay State gymnasium supervising several girls on the poise and grace necessary to perform on the balance beam, trampolene, mats and "horse."

This group developed its gymnastic interest through a stunts and tumbling class. They became so interested that they wanted to spend more than just the class time learning different techniques and routines on this equipment.

The girls participate in a workshop situation. They work individually, but are supervised by Miss Chambliss. "Female gymnastics requires flexibility, agility and balance, whereas men's gymnastics is based strictly on strength," says Miss Chambliss. The importance of spotting and safety is being learned along with poise, grace and flexibility.

The balance beam is the newest piece of equipment for these gymnasts and its purchase has spurred much interest among the girls. It is 16 feet long, 4 inches wide, and 4 feet from the floor. In order to complete a successful routine on this apparatus, the girls must make a graceful mount, utilize poise running, leaping and jumping movements, maintain perfect balance and make a graceful dismount.

Cartwheels, forward rolls and backward rolls are also a part of some of the routines worked up on the balance team.

On April 9, Miss Chambliss and some of the gymnasts will observe the AAU Southeastern gymnastic meet to be held at Peabody College in Nashville. There they will be introduced to new ideas and routines as well as a first-hand look at new gymnastic apparatus.

All interested girls are invited to join this group on Monday and Wednesday afternoons at 4:30.

This group hopes to become an organized and active campus club. Eventually, they hope to have a status which will enable them to compete in the Southeastern AAU meets.

TVA

group will be used for TVA purposes and one group will remain at APSC.

Of the collections made, 94 plant families and 288 plant genera have been identified.

A preliminary check list shows 506 species represented and of them 23 are new range extensions of the area researched.

Although Dr. Phillips and Snyder were not available for comment on their projects, Dr. Ellis reported that their research is well underway and progress is being made for APSC as well as for TVA.
