I. General Regulations

A. Institutional Statement

1. Austin Peay State University (APSU) students are citizens of the state, local and national governments, and of the academic community, and are, therefore, expected to conduct themselves as law-abiding members of each community at all times. Admission to the University carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students. In recognition of the special relationship that exists between the institution and the academic community which it seeks to serve, the Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) has authorized the President of the University to take such action as may be necessary to maintain campus conditions and preserve the integrity of the institution and its educational environment.
2. Pursuant to this authorization, the University has developed the following Regulations (known as the Code of Student Conduct) that are intended to govern student conduct on the Austin Peay State University Campus.

In addition, students are subject to all national, state and local laws and ordinances. If a student's violation of such laws or ordinances also adversely affects the institution's pursuit of its educational objectives, the University may enforce its own regulations regardless of any proceedings instituted by other authorities. Conversely, violation of any section of these Regulations may subject a student to disciplinary measures by the Institution whether or not such conduct does not violate state, local or national laws.

B. Disciplinary Offenses

1. Generally, through appropriate due process procedures, institutional disciplinary measures shall be imposed for conduct that adversely affects the University's pursuit of its educational objectives, which violates or shows a disregard for the rights of other members of the academic community, or which endangers property or persons on University or University-controlled property.
2. Individual or organizational misconduct that is subject to disciplinary sanction shall include but not be limited to the following examples:

Hazing does not include customary athletic events or similar contests or competitions, and is limited to those actions taken and situations created in connection with initiation into or affiliation with any organization.

- c. Harassment. Any act of harassment by an individual or group against a student, faculty member or another group. Harassment shall include, but not be limited to insults, heckling, verbal abuse, threats of physical abuse, unwanted suggestions of a sexual nature, repeated teasing or annoyance to another, repeated unsolicited phone calls made with the intent to harass, or other actions considered disturbing to others;

"Service animals" perform some of the functions and tasks that the individual with a disability cannot perform for him/herself. The University may require reasonable documentation that the animal is certified as a "service animal" by a recognized training program.

3. Disciplinary action may be taken against a student for violations of the foregoing regulations which occur on University owned, leased, or otherwise controlled property, or which occur off-campus when the conduct impairs, interferes with or obstructs any University activity or the missions, processes and functions of the University. In addition, disciplinary action may be taken on the basis of any conduct, on or off-campus, which poses a substantial threat to persons or property within the University community.
4. For the purposes of the Regulations, a "student" shall mean any person who is registered for study at Austin Peay State University for any academic period. A person shall be considered a student during any period that follows the end of an academic period that the student has completed until the last day for registration for the next succeeding regular academic period, and during any period while the student is under suspension from the University.

C. Academic and Classroom Misconduct

1. The instructor has the primary responsibility for control over classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity, and can order the temporary removal or exclusion from the classroom of any student engaged in disruptive conduct or conduct that violates the general rules and regulations of the University. Extended or permanent exclusion from the classroom or further disciplinary action can be effected only through appropriate procedures of the University.

2. Academic dishonesty may be defined as any act of dishonesty in academic work. This includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism, the changing or falsifying of any academic documents or materials, cheating, and giving or receiving of unauthorized aid in tests, examinations, or other assigned work. Students guilty of academic misconduct, either directly or indirectly through participation or assistance, are immediately responsible to the instructor of the class. Penalties for academic misconduct will vary with the seriousness of the offense and may include, but are not limited to, a grade of "F" on the work in question, a grade of "F" in the course, reprimand, probation, suspension, and expulsion.
3. If the student believes that he or she has been erroneously accused of academic misconduct, and if his or her final grade has been lowered as a result, the student may appeal the case through the academic grievance procedures.
4. Disruptive behavior in the classroom may be defined, but is not limited to, behavior that obstructs or disrupts the learning environment (e.g., offensive language, harassment of students and professors, repeated outbursts from a student which disrupts the flow of instruction or prevents concentration on the subject being taught, failure to cooperate in maintaining classroom decorum, etc.), and the use of any electronic or other device which disturbs or interrupts the concentration of others (e.g., disturbing noises from beepers, cell phones, palm pilots, lap-top computers, games, etc.).
5. Class attendance and punctuality requirements are contracted between the faculty and the students, through specific expectations for attendance and punctuality and specific consequences that are outlined by individual faculty members in the printed syllabus for each course. Students are expected to attend class regularly and on time and are responsible for giving explanations/rationale for absences and lateness directly to the faculty member for each course in which they are enrolled. In cases where student absences are the result of emergency circumstances (e.g., death in a family, a student's serious injury or incapacitation illness), and the student is unable to make immediate contact with faculty, the student may contact the Office of Student Affairs for assistance in providing such immediate notification to faculty. However, the student remains responsible for verifying the emergency circumstances to faculty and for discussing arrangements with faculty for completion of course work requirements.

D. Disciplinary Sanctions

1. Upon a determination that a student or organization has violated any of the rules, regulations or disciplinary offenses set forth in these regulations, the following disciplinary sanctions may be imposed, either singly or in combination, by the appropriate University officials.
2. Definition of Sanctions
  - a. Restitution. A student who has committed an offense against property may be required to reimburse the University or other owner for damage to or misappropriation of such property. Any such payment in restitution shall be limited to actual cost of repair or replacement.
  - b. Reprimand. A written reprimand, or censure, may be given any student or organization whose conduct violated any part of these Regulations. Such a reprimand does not restrict the student in any way, but does have important consequences. It signifies to the student that he/she is in effect being given another chance to conduct himself/herself as a proper member of the University community, but that any further violation may result in more serious penalties.
  - c. Restriction. A restriction upon a student's or organization's privileges for a period of time may be imposed. This restriction may include, but is not limited to the following: denial of the right to represent the institution in any way, denial of the use of University facilities and/or parking privileges, restriction of participation in extracurricular activities, restriction of Organizational privileges including registration, and restriction of the transfer of academic credit from another institution.

- d. University Probation. Continued enrollment of a student on probation may be conditioned upon adherence to these Regulations. Any student placed on probation will be notified of such in writing and will also be notified of the terms and length of the probation. Probation may include restrictions upon the extracurricular activities of a student. Parents may be notified. Any conduct in violation of these Regulations while on probationary status may result in the imposition of a more serious disciplinary sanction.
- e. Suspension. If a student is suspended, he/she is separated from the University or from a class for a stated period of time with conditions of readmission stated in the notice of suspension. Parents may be notified.
- f. Expulsion. Expulsion entails a permanent separation from the University. The imposition of this sanction is a permanent bar to the student's readmission to the University. Parents may be notified.
- g. Interim or summary suspension. Though as a general rule, the status of a student accused of violation of these Regulations should not be altered until a final determination has been made in regard to the charges against him/her, summary suspension may be imposed upon a finding by the appropriate institutional official or his/her designated representative that the continued presence of the accused on campus constitutes an immediate threat to the physical safety and well-being of the accused, or any other member of the University community or its guests, destruction of property, or substantial disruption of classroom or other campus activities. A final determination of the charges against any student summarily suspended shall be made through appropriate hearing procedures within ten (10) class days of such suspension, during which time the accused shall forfeit all University rights and privileges as a student of the University. Parents may be notified.

- h. Housing Probation. A resident placed on housing probation is deemed not to be in good standing with the housing community, and his/her continued residence is conditioned upon adherence to these Regulations and the Housing Contract. Any resident placed on probation shall be notified in writing of the terms and length of the probation. Parents may be notified. Any conduct of a similar or more serious nature in violation of the probation shall result in suspension from housing.
- i. Housing Suspension and Forfeiture. A resident suspended from the housing may not reside in, visit, or make any use whatsoever of a housing facility or participate in any housing activity during the period for which the sanction is in effect. A suspended resident shall be required to forfeit residence hall fees (including any unused portion thereof and the Housing Deposit). A suspended resident must vacate the housing unit within forty-eight (48) hours. Housing suspension shall remain a part of the student's disciplinary record. Parents may be notified.
- j. Service to the University. A student may be required to donate a specified number of service hours to the University, by way of performing reasonable tasks for the appropriate University office or official. This service shall be commensurate to the offense the student is guilty of violating (i.e., service to maintenance staff for defacing University property).
- k. Special Educational Program. A student may be required to participate in any special educational programs relevant to the offense, to attend special seminars or educational programs, or to prepare a project or report concerning a relevant topic.

1. Interim or Summary Suspension from Campus Housing. Though as a general rule, the status of a student accused of violations of these regulations should not be altered until a final determination has been made in regard to the charges against him, interim suspension from campus housing may be imposed upon a finding by the appropriate institutional official that the continued presence of the accused in the Austin Peay Residence halls or Apartments constitutes an immediate threat to the physical safety and well-being of the accused, or of any other member of the institution, community or its guests, or the destruction of property. A final determination of the charges against any student summarily suspended from campus housing shall be through appropriate hearing procedures within seven (7) class days of such housing suspension during which time the accused shall forfeit the right to reside in or visit campus housing facilities. The accused shall be permitted to attend classes during this interim period. Parents may be notified.
  - m. Referral for Intervention, Assessment and/or Counseling. The student is mandated to visit the appropriate University official for an initial intervention and assessment, which may be followed by required participation and a prescribed plan of action or treatment plan. Parents may be notified.
  - n. Fines. Penalties in the form of fines may be enforced against a student or an organization whenever the appropriate hearing officer(s) or hearing body deems necessary. The sanction of fines may be imposed in addition to other forms of disciplinary sanctions. Failure to pay fines to the Business Office within two weeks of the decision will result in further disciplinary action.
3. The President of the University is authorized, in his/her discretion, to subsequently convert any sanction imposed to a lesser sanction, or to rescind any previous sanction, in appropriate cases.

E. Disciplinary Procedure

1. Alternative Hearing Procedures:

- a. Procedures Conforming to the Tennessee Uniform Administrative Procedures Act. All cases which may result in (i) suspension or expulsion of a student from the Institution, a program, or a course for disciplinary reasons, (ii) the assignment of a grade which results in the grade of "F" in the course for academic misconduct, or (iii) revocation of registration of a student organization during the term of the registration are subject to the contested case provisions of the Tennessee Uniform Administrative Procedures Act (TUAPA) and shall be processed in accordance with the uniform contested case procedures adopted by the Tennessee Board of Regents, unless the student waives those procedures in writing and elects to have his or her case disposed of in accordance with the Institutional Hearing Procedures.
- b. Cases that are not subject to the contested case procedures under the Tennessee Uniform Administrative Procedures Act and cases in which a student has waived the contested case procedures in writing shall be processed in accordance with Institutional Hearing Procedures. The University has established two (2) alternate Institutional Hearing Procedures:
  - (1) A hearing conducted by one or more Student Affairs Administrators.
  - (2) A hearing conducted by the University Hearing Board. (Note: This option shall be available until the final ten (10) class days of each semester, or the final five (5) class days of the second summer term, during which time all disciplinary hearings will be conducted by appropriate student affairs administrators, except those subject to TUAPA procedures as selected by the accused student.)

- c. Cases which are not subject to the contested case procedures under the Tennessee Uniform Administrative Procedures Act and which involve very minor first offenses by students may be discussed informally with students. In such cases, no formal record will be maintained in the judicial records of the University. The University official responsible for conducting this Informal Disciplinary Discussion shall note the name of the student involved in his/her personal records. The purpose of this notation is only to determine a student's prior involvement in a minor offense, when and if a second offense occurs at a later date. If the student is subsequently involved in another violation of regulations, this INFORMAL record will become a part of the student's FORMAL Disciplinary Records.
- d. Jurisdiction of cases to be heard by Student Affairs Administrators:
  - (1) All FORMAL cases involving incidents which occur in University Residence Halls and/or Apartments AND which involve on-campus residents shall be heard by the Director of Residence Life.
  - (2) All other FORMAL cases shall be heard by the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, or appropriate designee, EXCEPT in cases where such staff member is NOT available or has a bias toward either party in the pending case. In such cases the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs shall assign one or more Student Affairs Administrators to hear the case.

    - (3) The hearing procedure options available; and
    - (4) The responsibilities of the accused student in the disciplinary procedures.
  - b. A student may WAIVE the right to a preliminary conference and an oral explanation of the items listed in (2) (a) above.
  - c. Once the student elects the procedure to be followed, an Election of Procedure form and/or waiver form shall be completed and signed by the accused student and the administrator conducting the conference. Once the election shall be made, the decision is final and may not be changed during the course of the hearing.
  - d. Cases of alleged sexual assault. Regardless of the procedure elected, in cases involving alleged sexual assault both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the following:
    - (1) Both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunity to have others present during a disciplinary proceedings and,
    - (2) Both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding involving allegations of sexual assault.
3. Institutional Hearing Rights. These rights shall be afforded the accused student in all institutional hearings before the appropriate Student Affairs Administrator or the University Hearing Board.

- a. The right to choose the appropriate hearing option. (This right must be exercised within twenty-four (24) hours of the presentation of charges.) (NOTE: This option shall be available until the final ten (10) class days of each semester, or the final five (5) class days of the second summer term, during which time all disciplinary hearings will be conducted by appropriate Student Affairs Administrators, except those subject to TUAPA procedures as selected by the accused student.)
- b. The right to written notice of the time and place of the hearing at least three (3) days in advance. A justified delay may be granted. (The accused student may waive this right in writing.)

- g. The right to be informed in writing of:
  - (1) The final administrative decision in the case.
  - (2) The proper procedure for appeal.

- h. The right to be provided copies, upon request and in accordance with University policy, of all complaints, reports, witness statements and other written materials used in determining the CHARGES.

RIGHTS OF COMPLAINANT and/or VICTIM. The University member (student, faculty or staff) who authors "complaints" or "statements" as a VICTIM in the alleged violation shall have the following rights:

5. Appeals

a. Any sanction imposed as the result of a hearing conducted under the Code shall be effective immediately upon notification of the student unless the hearing authority deems a stay of such sanction desirable pending appeal.

b. In any case where the decision results in separation from the University, the decision shall be reviewed by the Vice President for Student Affairs, or appropriate designee, prior to notifying the Office of the Registrar and the academic department in which the student has been enrolled.

(2) The University shall not be responsible for injuries or damages to persons or property resulting from the activities of student organizations, or for any debts or liabilities by such organizations.
