Dickson Leads In Literary Meet

ISAAC LITTON AND DONELSON WIN ONE AWARD EACH.

The annual contests for District Three of the Tennessee Inter-scholastic Literary League were held at the Normal School, April 9 and 10.

From four hundred schools in the district came 130 contestants for debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, declamation, humorous and dramatic reading, and one-act plays. These boys and girls represented schools having a total enrollment of over 5,000 students.

Friday was given over entirely to debate, following a new system of elimination originated by W. B. Nicholson, district director of the league. At the end of the day all teams had been eliminated except the affirmatives of Springfield and Isaac Litton, and the Central and Springfield negatives.

On Saturday the complete contests in all other sections were held, eliminations in the morning, and semi-finals and some finals in the afternoon. Friday evening a banquet was given for all the visitors and their friends.

At the banquet the affirmatives of Isaac Litton of Davidson County, declamation, Jimmie Weems, Dickson; original oratory for boys, Herman Sarver, Isaac Litton; for girls, Martha Hake, Dickson; extemporaneous speaking, Frank Good Clement, Dickson; humorous reading, Jim Burns, Dickson; dramatic reading, Violetta Weems, Dickson; one-act play, Donelson. The achievement trophy, which was awarded for the first time this year, and goes to the school scoring the highest on the number of contestants and their success in the various divisions, went to Davidson, with a score of 463 points.

It is interesting to note that Dickson, having won five of the eight awards. A trophy is to be given to the winner in girls' original oration as soon as it can be decided. The negative debating team, from Springfield, composed of J. W. Wilson and Tom Holman, which debated the Isaac Litton team in the finals, also entered the state contest in Knoxville, which was held on April 23 and 24.

Lieutenant Cullom Addresses Students

C. C. C. OFFICER URGES TEACHING PRINCIPLES OF CHRIST.

On Monday, April 19, Lieutenant Cullom of the local C. C. Camp enlivened the regular chapel program with an inspiring address to the students of A. P. N.—future teachers of Tennessee. He urged the students to instill the fundamental principles of Christ into the minds of their future charges. The urge to spread the gospel of Christ, the Lieutenant declared, comes from three places. The first is the call from within—a man's heart. The second is the call from without—the world, one's neighbors and fellow-men. And the third is the call from above—God pushing us on to do His will. He emphasized the fact that the religious background small children receive is of extreme importance, and for that reason teachers of the elementary grades should feel their responsibility keenly and do all in their power to make good Christians out of their pupils.

DR. CLAXTON TO ATTEND SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY

I held it truth, with him who sings
To one clear hearp in divers tones,
Whom all may rise on stepping-stones
Of their dead selves to higher things.

F. G. Woodward, head of the English department of Austin Peay Normal School, was the principal speaker at the graduation exercises at the Pleasant View Elementary School on Friday evening. Speaking on "Our Unconscious Inheritance," Mr. Woodward mentioned three great people who have given to us this heritage: The Hebrews, who gave us piety and sanctity; the Greeks, who gave us beauty; and the Romans, who gave us the practical in life. He emphasized the Greeks, with their love of beauty, culture, and art.

Welcome, Special Quarter Students

The All State staff, voicing the sentiment of the student body, wishes to welcome the Special Quarter students into the fellowship of the college. We need you, and we feel that you need us. Your earnestness, engendered by your facing reality day by day in the country school, is a sobering note which we need; which we have a chance of seeing for you—new faces, new challenges, and we hope, some fun and play. Here you can lay aside your sober pedagogical faces and be human and fallible once more.

CLAXTON SPEAKS ON THOMAS JEFFERSON

TELLS OF LIFE AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF NOTED PRESIDENT.

On Friday, April 16, Dr. P. P. Claxton read in assembly a paper on the life and accomplishments of Thomas Jefferson, discussing in particular the three achievements mentioned by Jefferson in his epitaph.

After outlining Jefferson's birth and education and enumerating his many honors and accomplishments, the speaker discussed what he said were three greatest; namely, the authorship of the Declaration of Independence, the Statute of Virginia for religious freedom, and the founding of the University of Virginia. The first Dr. Claxton said, so convincingly expressed the fundamental rights of man that it has led to their acceptance by all mankind; the second was the first application of the great principle of religious freedom in the history of the world; and the third gave concrete and enduring evidence of Jefferson's conviction in the necessity of universal education to democracy. This last speaker supported by numerous quotations from Jefferson's letters and other papers, concluding with his act of hostility to the forms of tyranny over the mind of man.

On Wednesday, April 21, the discussion was continued in a similar vein.

SPECIAL QUARTER OPENS APRIL 26

TEACHERS IN SERVICE WILL SWELL ENROLLMENT; MANY NEW ENROLLMENTS OFFERED.

The Special Quarter for teachers in service began Monday, April 26, with a representative enrollment from the counties surrounding Austin Peay Normal School. Enrollments were not completed Monday, and Dean Harvill was quoted as saying that rolls would not be complete until the latter part of the week.

Many teachers who will finish their two years of work this quarter are inquiring about the possibility of a third year to be begun this year. Much interest is in evidence over the possible decision of the State Board, which meets in the early part of May.

Many new courses have been offered to accommodate the new students. Some of the representative following: Art 201 Methods in Lower Grades, Agri. 231 Gardening, Eng. 231 Rural Economics, Educ. 121 School and Community Organization, Eng. 205 Children's Literature, Eng. 207 Language in Higher Elementary, Home Economics 211 Home—Its Care, Math. 105 Farm and Household Accounting, Math. 100 Teacher's Arithmetic.

Miss Del Gado Makes Talk On Mexico

WEARS POPULAR FIESTA COSTUME, TELLS OF MEXICAN SCHOOLS.

On Friday, April 16, Senorita Anna Del Gado gave a very interesting talk on Mexico during the chapel program. She was dressed in the popular Mexican fiesta costume. On the shirt was an eagle on a prickly pear with a snake, which is the symbol of Mexico. Miss Del Gado told the students the legend of the building of Mexico City. She said that the descendants of the Aztecs and Mayas were helping Mexico to become a better educated country and with the aid of the federal government, every Mexican child is being given an opportunity to study and better himself. Teachers are not allowed to read in religious schools, but the teachers are expected to help spread religion by leading Christian lives and acting as an example for the children. In the schools music, art, needlework, agriculture, home economics and many other practical subjects are taught.

Miss Del Gado, in closing her speech, stated that Mexico was a country on the way ahead.

Miss Del Gado came here to attend the Methodist Convention.

John B. Bond Elected Civitan Leader, Governor

John B. Bond, professor of physical sciences at Austin Peay Normal School and member of the Clarksville Civitan Club, was elected a lieutenant governor in the Tennessee District of Civitan International at the district convention of the organization held at Nashville. # Normal Gets Surprise "Win From "Blue Raiders"

Terrors Defeat STC In Good Game, 7-3

JIM GLASCOCK HURLS AND HITS FOR P. N. TEAM TO VICTORY.

The A. P. N. Terrors upset all odds and gave the Blue Raiders from S. T. C. a 7-3 defeat, their first of the season, Friday, April 12. It was the best played game seen on the Normal field in several years. S. T. C. put a fast combine on the Normal team and looked plain good for anybody's college team. The Normal team looked good all the way. They had good pitching and good support.

A. P. N. scored four runs in the first frame when Murdock walked. Lorentzen reached first on an error, and Gannaway hit safely, followed by a long hit ball to run in. Glascock, the Normal scored again in the fourth frame and twice more in the sixth. Gannaway hit double and scored one run in this inning. The Blue Raiders scored two runs in the seventh inning on a couple of hits and an error. Shorty Campbell, S. T. C. midgest shortstop, hit a home run in the ninth with the bases empty, for their third run.

The Normal defense was much improved. They hit when hits meant runs. Murdock and Coyle Branson executed some pretty double plays.

Score by innings:
A. P. N. 400 192 000—7
S. T. C. 020 000 091—3
Batteries: A. P. N.—Glascock and Miles; S. T. C.—Wagner, Loveless, and Seay.
Umpires: McDaniel and Spirakis.

HARNED HALL

Presenting the members of her dancing class, Mrs. M. L. Shelby entertained the Dancery at the club on Wednesday evening, April 14. The clubs enjoyed very much the performance.

Something tells us that Mary Davis has turned "Cooley" again. Somehow these "maids" hold an attraction for her.

Sexton was kind enough to inform Mrs. Keeling that Wilfens slipped out and went to the show the other night. Does that mean Dave is interested in the rules or—well, what could it mean?

Wilfens Chadwick entertained the Alpha Club at her home on Main Street Saturday evening, April 17, with a party. After a series of interesting games, refreshments were served. Those present were: Lucy Sparkman, Monteen Deason, Sude Fite, Fay Cochran, Kate Beasley, Carolyn

INTRODUCING

From Linden in Perry County comes Billy Stevens. Stevens is a tall blond lad of twenty years who weighs 150 pounds. While in high school at Linden, Billy was very active in school affairs. He was president of his class as a senior and took part in all the class plays. He is also an athlete, playing four years of basketball and football.

Here at the Normal Billy is a member of the A. P. N. R. A. and the Robb Hall Dormitory Club. Billy says he is interested in girls and music. Robb Hall can testify as to the truth of the last named. His chief hobby is asking questions.

FLIRTATION

Peach limbs, Slender and slickly bare, But for the pale fungous pink-ness of petals.

Cool in the damp, tender air—Easily and guilelessly bluish At the sun's hot desire, Belied by her lust, Sweet, seductive attire.

—J. C. Hunt.

SPORTOGS

By "RED" JACKSON

A. P. N. looked like a real ball club when they defeated S. T. C. 7-3.

More balls were hit against the Normal in the S. T. C. game than ever before.

Several double plays were completed which shows that the infielders are speeding up.

Ernest Mills is at Virginia Military Institute this week. He expects to enter school there this fall.

The tennis tournament is underway and is causing a lot of excitement. It is the first of its type held here in several years. The A. P. N. girls were M. V. C. champs last year. There will be no M. V. C. tournament this year.

Sexton seems to have a good hold on right field. He can hit the ball too.

Normal Boys Win Twice From Lipscomb

STAGE GREAT RALLY IN FIRST GAME; SANDIFER PITCHES GOOD BALL.

The Austin Peay Normal baseball team played their first home game on Monday, April 12, winning a double-header from the David Lipscomb Preachers of Nashville, 6-7 and 2-1.

Going into the last inning of the first game trailing the D. L. C. boys, 7-2, the Normal boys combined five hits with three errors to tie the score. An extra inning was necessary, at which time Sexton scored on a hit by Doyle Branson.

"Beeg Boy" Gallaher started the first game and pitched effective baseball for five innings. He was pulled by Coach Branton after four runs were scored off his arm and three errors. Four runs replaced Gallaher and was succeeded by Sandifer, who finished the game very successfully to go to win the second game as well.

The Normal Terrors collected twelve hits and eight runs off the Preachers, while the Nashville lads were collecting seven hits and seven runs in the first tilt.

In the second game, which was cut to five innings due to darkness, the A. P. N. boys collected three runs off two hits and two errors, while David Lipscomb scored once on three hits.

Sandifer was given credit for both victories. Hitting honors were few. Sexton and Edwards were the only A. P. N. boys able to collect two hits.

Some horses are mudders. So is "Mud" Stevens. He played at Richview the other day is a pond. He believes in cutting runs off at home plate.

When Coach Branton failed to carry his manager on the S. T. C. try, Red Hix resigned.

Winters, Branton, Nicholson and Cherry were seeded in the girls' tournament. All four turned last year's championship squad.

Coyle Branson came through with two nice singles in the S. T. C. game. Let's go, Doyle.

"Buddy" Murdock is upholding his reputation as an infielder, but his hitting has been weak so far.

A team composed of Normal and High School players lost to Richview Sunday afternoon 6-2.

STATE TEACHERS WIN FROM NORMAL IN WILD CONTEST

Lorentzen Gets the Only 2 Hits Secured By the Whole A. P. N. Team.

The Terrors of Austin Peay Normal became terrified and lost a wild and woolly baseball game to the State Teachers at Murfreesboro Friday, April 16, by the large score of 12-1.

The locals were completely outclassed at bat by the "Blue Raiders." Glascock, Normal hurler, lasted only three innings, in which time seven runs were scored off him. Sandifer finished the game, allowing five runs in the seventh frame.

A. P. N. scored in the fifth inning, when Murdock walked, stole second, and came home on Lorentzen's single.

Lorentzen secured two hits, which was also the total of the entire team.

KAMPUS COMICS

"Why don't you fight against your longing for drink?" When you are tempted, think of your wife at home."

"Madame, when the devil is upon me, I am absolutely devoid of fear."

Student: "These university professors don't know a thing! They, not one of them could teach and get away with it anywhere else. They're just dumb. Why, they ought to get a whole new teaching staff!"

Another student: "Yeah, I flunked, too."

Norma: "Can you drive with one arm?"

Loro: "You bet I can."

Norma: "Have an apple."

The wedding present difficulty had resolved itself into the usual silver butterbids.

"What shall I put on the card?" she asked. "It's not as though we've known them very well."

"Oh," he grunted, without looking up from his paper, "Put on it. For butter—or worse."

The police had photographs of the escaped convict in six positions and sent the pictures throughout the country asking the authorities to apprehend him.

Promptly came a reply from the sheriff of Hicksville Corners, which read as follows:

"Received the pictures of criminals. Have captured five of them and am on the trail of the sixth."

Through The Keyhole

Well, folks, here is ol' gossip-columners, as we been snooping in 'ya better hide your faces fer we've seen everything.

We went out by the See-See-See Camp an' there they held lots o' contests. Matlock was elected best prospective wife with Buntley, Polly Harper, an' Jud Collier close contestants. Willine Chadwick was elected prettiest blonde. The prettiest brunettes were Edith Walker, Madelyn Rogers, and Pauline Tison. Brewer thought he must have been able to stand the strain, because he went out and got McCurdy before the thing was over. While we were watching we saw Johnnie Louise Nolen run up to a leventan and push him down or trip him up or somethin'. My, my, such goings on!

An' now that Matlock was elected best prospective wife, maybe Marochi will be sorry he changed his mind about not takin' her. He's a good fellow, that Marochi. Course everyone knows that he took Blondell Walker.

Added to our bit of famous quotations:

W. Shaw: "What bothers me is what do you do after you get your arm around a girl?"

T. Shaw: "I spend as much as a dollar a week on her. I put it down under 'Miscellaneous.' It's worth it, though."

C. Fowler: "Even after the way I did me up, I still like her a lot."

L. Foust: "Please open the window, Mr. Spafford; we need some fresh air."

Sexton now hez an interest in Ward-Belmont. Well, anyway, we hear that his ring has disappeared and hez turned up here.

Bum: "Sad, buddy, could you let me have a dime for a cup of coffee?"

Wise Man: "A dime? I thought coffee was only a nickel."

Bum: "I know, but I gotta date."

Abe and Jake were fishing in the bay, in separate boats. Abe caught a fish and asked the boatman what it was. The boatman said it was a haddock.

Immediately Abe called to him in the other boat, "O, Abe; I have a haddock."

"Well," said Jake, "if you have a haddock, y' don't you take an aspirin!"

"Is there any penalty for slow driving through Podunk?"

Yes—y' don't get out of town as quick."

Sam sat down on the sunny side of the street, the perspiration running down his face.

"Boy, why don't you all seat yo'self on the shady side!" his friend asked him.

"Dat's all you know 'bout nature," replied Sam. "By and by de sun's gwine to be on dat side, an' den Ahn' hah' to move."

The blacksmith was instructing a novice in the way to treat horses.

"I'll bring you the shoe from the fire and lay it on the anvil."

"When I nod my head you hit it with this hammer."

The apprentice did exactly as he was told, but he'll never hit a blacksmith again!"

Master: "Doesn't that mule ever kick you?"

Jawdew: "No, sah, he ain't yet—but he frequently kicks de place where Ah recently been, but he never ain't on time."

Hotel Proprietor: "Do you want the porter to call you?"

Guest: "No, thanks, I awaken every morning at seven."

Proprietor: "Then would you mind calling the porter?"

Leonard Allen went to the dormitory last Sunday and gladdened Alma Gallaher's heart. He took J. McKinley Griggs along, but it turned out all right because Miss Ray was just thrilled to death, or party near, to meet J. Mc. So now Grigg's heart turns Wayne County-ward.

Lulu and Dotson are champion bean-throwers, or at least they have had enough practice in Biology class. It must have been a split-second affair, but, anyway, romance is afloot.

Victor and Jim haunt the dormitory now, but Burnett and Hackney have no complaint to make. Maybe it suits them.

Little's love shifts like the wind, but right now Miss Buntley is getting a good breeze.

We thought everyone knew Bill Miles didn't stutter, but some people think he does just because he says "Anna, Anna, Anna" all the time.

Butch is making time with Frances. Wonder what happened to Mophead? Maybe Butch "put the finger on him."

If you want to know how Mike and Sue and Frankie and Chester are behaving, just look up back copies of the All State. We only mention them as a matter of record.

Loro somehow is filling in that vacant gap in Norma's heart made by George. Well time is a great healer.

So long, now. Be careful, because we will be back.

THE GREATEST THING

The best day: Today.

The greatest deceiver: One who deceives himself.

The greatest mistake: Giving up.

The most expensive indulgence: Hate.

The cheapest, stupidest, and easiest thing to do: Finding fault.

The greatest trouble maker: Talking too much.

The worst bankrupt: The soul that has lost its enthusiasm.

The best teacher: One who makes you want to learn.

The best part of any one's religion: Gentleness and cheerfulness.

The meanest feeling: Jealousy.

The greatest need: Common sense.—Emerson.

It is great, and there is no other greatness—to make one nook of God's creation more fruitful, better, more worthy of God; to make one human heart a little wiser, manlier, happier—more blessed, less accursed.—Carlyle.

"Shun passion, fold the hands of thrift,

Still sit and Trust his near; Suddenly it will uplift

Your eyelids to the sphere; Wait a little, you shall see

The portraiture of things to be." —Emerson.
